STATE ACTION. NATIONAL CHANGE.

2016 ANALYSIS AND RECOMMENDATIONS KANSAS

FRAMEWORK ISSUE 1: CRIMINALIZATION OF DOMESTIC MINOR SEX TRAFFICKING

Legal Components:

- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.
- 1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.
- 1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.
- 1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute trafficking crimes.

Legal Analysis¹:

- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) (4) (Human trafficking) specifically applies to the sex trafficking of a minor and does not require that the trafficker use force, fraud, or coercion. Specifically, aggravated trafficking “involv[es] recruiting, harboring, transporting, providing or obtaining, by any means, a person under 18 years of age knowing that the person, with or without force, fraud, threat or coercion, will be used to engage in forced labor, involuntary servitude or sexual gratification of the defendant or another.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4). The crime is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months

(recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000.² Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, if the victim is under 14, and the offender is 18 or older, the crime becomes the off-grid person felony of aggravated human trafficking and the penalties are heightened to a mandatory³ imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(A), 21-6611(a)(1).

1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.

CSEC is criminalized separately in the Kansas code through the following laws:

1. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), commercial sexual exploitation of a child is knowingly:

(1) Giving, receiving, offering or agreeing to give, or offering or agreeing to receive anything of value to perform any of the following acts:

(A) Procuring, recruiting, inducing, soliciting, hiring or otherwise obtaining any person

² Unless otherwise specified, the sentences of imprisonment for all felonies provided throughout this report are based on the assumption that the defendant has no prior felony convictions, and that none of the aggravating or mitigating factors listed in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804 (Sentencing grid for nondrug crimes) or in the sentencing provisions themselves are present. A defendant with prior felony convictions may be subject to a greater minimum sentence of imprisonment. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804(a). When using the sentencing grid to determine appropriate imprisonment ranges, the vertical axis on the grid represents the severity level of the offense, and the horizontal axis on the grid represents the criminal history of the defendant. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804(c). Aggravating factors, such as using a firearm to commit a felony, result in presumptive imprisonment and an optional nonimprisonment sentence if the offense falls into a grid labeled “border box.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804(h). A border box penalty is governed by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 6804(q), which allows the court to “impose an optional nonprison sentence.” Subsection (q) states that the “optional nonprison sentence” may be imposed instead of a presumptive sentence if the court makes certain findings, such as the fact that “an appropriate treatment program exists,” the treatment program would admit the offender within a reasonable time, or that the nonprison sentence would “serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.” State v. Sidders, 888 P.2d 409, 412 (Kan. Ct. App. 1995) further clarifies border boxes by stating, “A border box classification means the grid block is neither a presumed imprisonment box nor a presumed nonimprisonment box. The trial court may impose a nonimprisonment sentence if it finds that a reasonably available treatment program would be more appropriate than prison or nonimprisonment would serve community interests and promote offender reformation.” While the court is generally expected to impose the presumptive sentence in the sentencing guidelines, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6185(c)(2)(F)(i), the judge may consider imposing a departure sentence if the defendant commits a “crime of extreme sexual violence,” to include: “aggravated human trafficking . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or commercial sexual exploitation of a child . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age.”

³ Here and elsewhere that mandatory minimum imprisonments are mentioned in this report certain exceptions to the mandatory sentencing applies. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6627(a)(2),

The provision of subsection (a)(1) requiring a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of not less than 25 years shall not apply if the court finds:

(A) The defendant is an aggravated habitual sex offender and sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-6626, and amendments thereto; or

(B) The defendant, because of the defendant’s criminal history classification, is subject to presumptive imprisonment pursuant to the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes and the sentencing range exceeds 300 months. In such case, the defendant is required to serve a mandatory minimum term equal to the sentence established pursuant to the sentencing range.

younger than 18 years of age to engage in sexual intercourse, sodomy or manual or other bodily contact stimulation of the genitals of any person with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of the offender or another; or

(B) Procuring, recruiting, inducing, soliciting, hiring or otherwise obtaining a patron where there is an exchange of value, for any person younger than 18 years of age to engage in sexual intercourse, sodomy or manual or other bodily contact stimulation of the genitals of any person with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of the patron, the offender or another;

(2) establishing, owning, maintaining or managing any property, whether real or personal, where sexual relations are being sold or offered for sale by a person younger than 18 years of age, or participating in the establishment, ownership, maintenance or management thereof;

(3) permitting any property, whether real or personal, partially or wholly owned or controlled by the defendant to be used as a place where sexual relations are being sold or offered for sale by a person who is younger than 18 years of age; or

(4) procuring transportation for, paying for the transportation of or transporting any person younger than 18 years of age within this state with the intent of causing, assisting or promoting that person's engaging in selling sexual relations.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 is punishable as a severity level 5 felony by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422 (b)(1)(A), (b)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, commercial sexual exploitation of a child is punishable as an off-grid person felony with mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000.⁴ Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6627(a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1).

2. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)⁵ (Sexual exploitation of a child), “sexual exploitation of a child” includes:

(1) Employing, using, persuading, inducing, enticing or coercing a child under 18 years of age to engage in sexually explicit conduct⁶ with the intent to promote any performance;

⁴ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611 provides for fines for crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993. Fines for crimes committed before July 1, 1993 are laid out in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6710. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6612,

(a) When the law authorizes any other disposition, a fine shall not be imposed as the sole and exclusive punishment unless having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, the court finds that the fine alone suffices for the protection of the public.

(b) The court shall not sentence a defendant to pay a fine in addition to a sentence of imprisonment, probation or assignment to a community correctional services program unless:

(1) The defendant has derived a pecuniary gain from the crime; or

(2) the court finds that a fine is adapted to deterrence of the crime involved or to the correction of the offender.

⁵ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House Bill 2501 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2016).

⁶ “Sexually explicit conduct” is defined as “actual or simulated: Exhibition in the nude; sexual intercourse or sodomy, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital or oral-anal contact, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex; masturbation; sado-masochistic abuse with the intent of sexual stimulation; or lewd exhibition of the genitals, female breasts or pubic area of any person.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(d)(1).

- (3) being a parent, guardian or other person having custody or control of a child under 18 years of age and knowingly permitting such child to engage in, or assist another to engage in, sexually explicit conduct for any purpose described in subsection (a)(1) or (2); or
- (4) promoting any performance that includes sexually explicit conduct by a child under 18 years of age, or a person whom the offender believes to be a child under 18 years of age, knowing the character and content of the performance.

As a severity level 5 felony, sexual exploitation of a child is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(1)(A), (B), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, if the offender violated (a)(1) or (a)(4) and if the victim is under 14, and the offender is 18 or older, then the crime is an off-grid person felony with mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life, and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1)(F), 21-6611(a)(1).

The following sexual offenses could also apply to cases of commercial sexual exploitation:

1. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child),

Indecent solicitation of a child is enticing, commanding, inviting, persuading or attempting to persuade a child 14 or more years of age but less than 16 years of age to:

- (1) Commit or to submit to an unlawful sexual act; or
- (2) enter any vehicle, building, room or secluded place with intent to commit an unlawful sexual act upon or with the child.

This crime is a severity level 6, person felony with presumptive punishment of imprisonment for 17–19 months (recommended 18 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $100,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5508(c)(1), 21-6804(a); 21-6611(a)(3). The crime is raised to a severity level 5, person felony and considered aggravated when the child is under 14 and is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5508(b), (c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

2. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5503(a)(3) (Rape), rape includes “sexual intercourse with a child under 14.” The crime is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5503(b)(1)(B), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, when the victim is under 14 and the perpetrator is 18 or over, rape pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5503(a)(3), or an “attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation to commit rape as defined in subsection (a)(3),” is an off-grid person felony with mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5503(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1)(B), 21-6611(a)(1).

3. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506(a) (Indecent liberties with a child), the crime of indecent liberties with a child occurs when an individual engages in the following acts with a child that is 14 or 15 years of age:

- (1) Any lewd fondling or touching of the person of either the child or the offender, done or submitted to with the intent to arouse or to satisfy the sexual desires of either the child, or the offender, or both; or

(2) soliciting⁷ the child to engage in any lewd fondling or touching of the person of another with the intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desires of the child, the offender or another.

A conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506(a) is punishable as a severity level 5, person felony by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21- 5506(c)(1), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506(b),

(b) Aggravated indecent liberties with a child is:

(1) Sexual intercourse with a child who is 14 or more years of age but less than 16 years of age;

(3) engaging in any of the following acts with a child who is under 14 years of age:

(A) Any lewd fondling or touching of the person of either the child or the offender, done or submitted to with the intent to arouse or to satisfy the sexual desires of either the child or the offender, or both; or

(B) soliciting the child to engage in any lewd fondling or touching of the person of another with the intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desires of the child, the offender or another.

A conviction under subsection (b)(1) is punishable as a severity level 3, person felony with presumptive imprisonment for 55–61 months (recommended 59 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5506(c)(2)(A), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). A conviction under subsection (b)(3) is punishable as a severity level 3, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 55–61 months (recommended 59 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5506(c)(2)(C), 6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, if the child is under 14 and the perpetrator is over 18, then a conviction under subsection (b)(3), or an “attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation to commit aggravated indecent liberties with a child as defined in subsection (b)(3),” is punishable as an off-grid person felony punishable by a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5506(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(C), 21-6611(a)(1).

1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.

Kansas’s prostitution statute, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), refers to human trafficking as an affirmative defense to a charge of selling sexual relations. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419(c) states,

It shall be an affirmative defense to any prosecution under this section that the defendant committed the violation of this section because such defendant was subjected to human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by section 4, and amendments thereto.

1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute trafficking crimes.

Kansas defines “Racketeering activity” as “to commit, attempt to commit, conspire to commit or to solicit, coerce or intimidate another person to commit” a series of crimes, including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5601 (Endangering a child or aggravated endangering a child), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5602 (Abuse of a child), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5603 (Contributing to a child’s misconduct or deprivation), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6420 (Promoting the sale of sexual relations), and Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6328(f)(1) (Same; definitions).

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6329 (Same; unlawful activities; penalty) states, “(a) It is unlawful for any covered person:

- (1) Who has received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of any unlawful debt to use recklessly or invest, whether directly or indirectly, any part of such proceeds, or the proceeds derived from the investment or use thereof, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise;
- (2) through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt, to recklessly acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in or control of any enterprise or real property; or
- (3) employed by, or associated with, any enterprise to recklessly conduct or participate, directly or indirectly, in such enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6328(b) (Same; definitions), “Covered person” is defined as any person who:

- (1) Is a criminal street gang member or criminal street gang associate, as defined in K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6313, and amendments thereto;⁸
- (2) has engaged in or is engaging in any conduct prohibited by K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, or K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, commercial sexual exploitation of a child; or
- (3) has engaged in or is engaging in any conduct prohibited by K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5703, and amendments thereto, unlawful manufacturing of controlled substances, or K.S.A. 2014

⁸ Kansas criminalizes street gang activity under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6314 (Recruiting criminal street gang membership) and § 21-6315 (Criminal street gang intimidation), however only offenses involving controlled substances qualify as predicate offenses. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6313(c) (Criminal street gangs; definitions),

"[C]riminal street gang activity" means the commission or attempted commission of, or solicitation or conspiracy to commit, one or more person felonies, person misdemeanors, felony violations of K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5701 through 21-5717 [Crimes involving controlled substances], and amendments thereto, any felony violation of any provision of the uniform controlled substances act prior to July 1, 2009, or the comparable juvenile offenses, which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of such felonies or misdemeanors on separate occasions.

Supp. 21-5705, and amendments thereto, unlawful cultivation or distribution of controlled substances.

A violation of the RICO law, or conspiracy to commit a violation is a severity level 2, person felony. Kan. Stat. Ann. §21-6329(c) (Same; unlawful activities; penalty). A conviction for covered conduct “through which the person derived pecuniary value, or by which the person caused personal injury or property damage or other loss, may be sentenced to pay a fine that does not exceed three times the gross value gained or three times the gross loss caused, whichever is the greater, plus court costs and the costs of investigation and prosecution, reasonably incurred.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6329(e)(1) (Same; unlawful activities; penalty).

Legal Components:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to the buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor.
- 2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.
- 2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate buying sex acts with an adult and buying sex acts with a minor under 18.
- 2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.
- 2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.
- 2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.
- 2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.
- 2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.
- 2.9 Buying and possessing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.
- 2.10 Convicted buyers of commercial sex acts with minors and child pornography are required to register as sex offenders.

Legal Analysis:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to the buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4) (Human trafficking) can apply to buyers of sex with minors following federal precedent through the term “obtain.”⁹ Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4), one commits a crime of aggravated human trafficking by “. . . recruiting, harboring, transporting, providing or obtaining,¹⁰ by any means, a person under 18 years of age knowing that the person, with or without force, fraud, threat or coercion, will be used to engage in forced labor, involuntary servitude or sexual gratification of the defendant or another.”

⁹ See United States v. Jungers, 702 F.3d 1066 (8th Cir. 2013). In this case, the Eighth Circuit held that the federal sex trafficking law, 18 U.S.C. § 1591 (Sex trafficking of children or by force, fraud, or coercion) applies to buyers of sex with minors. Reversing a District of South Dakota ruling that Congress did not intend the string of verbs constituting criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 1591(a)(1) (“recruits, entices, harbors, transports, provides, obtains, or maintains”) to reach the conduct of buyers (United States v. Jungers, 834 F. Supp. 2d 930, 931 (D.S.D. 2011)), the Eighth Circuit concluded that 18 U.S.C. § 1591 does not contain “a latent exemption for purchasers” because buyers can “engage in at least some of the prohibited conduct.” Jungers, 702 F. 3d 1066, 1072. Congress codified Jungers clarifying that the federal sex trafficking law is intended to apply to buyers in the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act (JVTA) of 2015 Pub. L. No. 114-22, 129 Stat 227), enacted on May 29, 2015. The JVTA adds the terms “patronize” and “solicit” to the list of prohibited conduct and expressly states, “section 108 of this title amends section 1591 of title 18, United States Code, to add the words ‘solicits or patronizes’ to the sex trafficking statute making absolutely clear for judges, juries, prosecutors, and law enforcement officials that criminals who purchase sexual acts from human trafficking victims may be arrested, prosecuted, and convicted as sex trafficking offenders when this is merited by the facts of a particular case.” Id. at Sec. 109. The Eighth Circuit decision in United States v. Jungers and the federal sex trafficking law as amended by the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act establish persuasive authority when state courts interpret the string of verbs constituting prohibited conduct in state sex trafficking laws (in particular the term “obtains”) to the extent such interpretation does not conflict with state case law.

¹⁰ “Obtain” is defined by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5111(q) (Definitions) as “to bring about a transfer of interest or possession of property, whether to the offender or to another.” The definitions in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5111 “shall apply when the words and phrase are used in this code, except when a particular context clearly requires a different meaning.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5111. It would seem that in this instance a different meaning applies.

2.1.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking) to clarify that buyer conduct is included as a violation of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking).

2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(a)(1) (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) applies to anyone who buys or solicits commercial sex with a minor, providing:

Giving . . . offering or agreeing to give . . . anything of value to perform any of the following acts:
(A) Procuring, recruiting, inducing, soliciting, hiring or otherwise obtaining any person younger than 18 years of age to engage in sexual intercourse, sodomy or manual or other bodily contact stimulation of the genitals of any person with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of the offender or another
. . . .

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422, commercial sexual exploitation of a child is a Severity level 5, person felony for a first conviction. A Severity level 5, person felony, is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is punishable as an off-grid person felony by mandatory imprisonment for 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Section 4(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1), (a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1).

2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate buying sex acts with an adult and buying sex acts with a minor under 18.

The general solicitation statute, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6421(a) (Buying sexual relations), only applies to buyers of commercial sex with persons over the age of 18. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6421. A buyer that solicits sex with a minor would be prosecuted under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), which criminalizes “[g]iving . . . offering or agreeing to give . . . anything of value to perform any of the following acts: procuring, recruiting, inducing, soliciting, hiring or otherwise obtaining any person younger than 18 years of age to engage in sexual intercourse” a Severity level 5, person felony. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(b)(1)(A).

2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.

A violation of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4) (Human trafficking) is generally a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, if the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime becomes the off-grid person felony of aggravated human trafficking and the penalties are heightened to a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000.¹¹ Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(A),¹² 21-6611(a)(1).

¹¹ While the court is generally expected to impose the presumptive sentence in the sentencing guidelines, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6185(c)(2)(F)(i), the judge may consider imposing a departure sentence if the defendant commits a “crime of extreme sexual violence,” to include: “aggravated human trafficking . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or commercial sexual exploitation of a child . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age.”

¹² See supra note 3.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) also criminalizes commercial sex acts with a minor. Commercial sexual exploitation of a child is a Severity level 5, person felony, unless the person charged has a prior conviction for a CSEC violation. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (b)(1)(A). A Severity level 5, person felony, is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is punishable as an off-grid person felony by mandatory imprisonment for 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1), (a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804(j)(1) (Sentencing grid for nondrug crimes; authority and responsibility of sentencing court; presumptive disposition), “The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current convicted crime carries a presumptive term of imprisonment shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term.” For any fine for a felony or misdemeanor found in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(a)–(b) (Fines; crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993), “the fine imposed may [alternatively] be fixed at any greater sum not exceeding double the pecuniary gain derived from the crime by the offender.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(c).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the buyer has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense¹³ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). To the extent buyers can be prosecuted under other federal CSEC laws,¹⁴ a conviction is punishable by penalties ranging from a fine not to exceed $250,000.

2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509(a) (Electronic solicitation) states, “Electronic solicitation is, by means of communication conducted through the telephone, internet or by other electronic means, enticing or soliciting¹⁵ a person, whom the offender believes to be a child, to commit or submit to an unlawful sexual act.” If the offender believes the victim to be 14 or 15, electronic solicitation is a severity level 3, person felony with presumptive imprisonment for 55–61 months (recommended 59 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5509(b)(1), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If the offender believes the child is under 14, the crime is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for an offense under section 1591 [18 USCS § 1591] (relating to sex trafficking of children), 2241 [18 USCS § 2241] (relating to aggravated sexual abuse), 2242 [18 USCS § 2242] (relating to sexual abuse), 2244(a)(1) [18 USCS § 2244(a)(1)] (relating to abusive sexual contact), 2245 [18 USCS § 2245] (relating to sexual abuse resulting in death), 2251 [18 USCS § 2251] (relating to sexual exploitation of children), 2251A [18 USCS § 2251A] (relating to selling or buying of children), 2422(b) [18 USCS § 2422(b)] (relating to coercion and enticement of a minor into prostitution), or 2423(a) [18 USCS § 2423(a)] (relating to transportation of minors).

¹⁴ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (Selling or buying of children), 2251(a) (Sexual exploitation of children), 2423(a) (Transportation of a minor with intent for minor to engage in criminal sexual activity), 2422(a) (Coercion and enticement), 2252(a)(2), (a)(4) (Certain activities relating to material involving the sexual exploitation of minors).

¹⁵ See supra note 7.

147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5509(b)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.

Neither Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking), nor Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) reference a mistake of age defense.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5207(a) (Ignorance or mistake), “A person’s ignorance or mistake as to a matter of either fact or law, except as provided in K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5204, and amendments thereto, is a defense if it negates the existence of the culpable mental state which the statute prescribes with respect to an element of the crime.” However, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5204 (Culpable mental state; exclusions) excludes mistake of age as grounds for a defense provided under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5207(a). It states, “Proof of a culpable mental state does not require proof . . . that the accused had knowledge of the age of the minor, even though age is a material element of the crime with which the accused is charged.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5204(b).

2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.

Some statutes applicable to buyers of commercial sex with minors have penalties that vary based on the age of the minor. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4) (Human trafficking) is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, if the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, this crime is heightened to aggravated human trafficking, an off-grid person felony with a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(A), 21-6611(a)(1).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(b)(1)(A) (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), commercial sexual exploitation of a child is a Severity level 5, person felony for a first conviction. A Severity level 5, person felony, is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is punishable as an off-grid person felony by mandatory imprisonment for 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Section 4(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1), (a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1).

2.7.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) to impose substantial penalties that reflect the seriousness of the offense for any offense involving a minor under 18.

2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.

Various fines apply to buyers of sex with minors. A conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) (Human trafficking) is punishable as a severity level 1, person felony by a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6611(a)(2). If the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is heightened to an off-grid felony punishable by a possible fine not to exceed $500,000.¹⁶ Kan. Stat. Ann. §§

21-5426(c)(3), 21-6611(a)(1). A conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) is punishable by a fine of “not less than $2,500 nor more than $5,000 unless the defendant has a prior conviction under the law, or is over the age of 18 and solicited sex with a person 14 years old or younger.” In that case, the defendant, “shall be fined not less than $5,000.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(b)(3). A conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child) involving a 14 or 15 year old child, is a severity level 6, person felony punishable by a possible fine not to exceed $100,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5508(a), (c)(1), 21-6611(a)(3). If the victim is under 14, the crime is heightened to a severity level 5, person felony punishable by a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5508(b), (c)(2), 21-6611(a)(2).

For any fine for a felony or misdemeanor found in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(a), (b) (Fines; crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993), “the fine imposed may [alternatively] be fixed at any greater sum not exceeding double the pecuniary gain derived from the crime by the offender.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(c).

In addition, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4104(p)–(dd) (Covered offenses and conduct giving rise to forfeiture), violations of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking), § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), § 21-5508 (Indecent solicitation of a child; aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), and § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child) give rise to mandatory, civil asset forfeiture. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4105 (Property subject to forfeiture), property subject to forfeiture includes the following:

- (b) except as otherwise provided by law, all property, of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments and the whole of any lot or tract of land . . . that is either:
 - (1) Furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in an exchange that constitutes conduct giving rise to forfeiture; or
 - (2) used or intended to be used in any manner to facilitate conduct giving rise to forfeiture . . .
- (c) all proceeds of any conduct giving rise to forfeiture;
- (d) all property of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments derived from or realized through any proceeds which were obtained directly or indirectly from the commission of an offense listed in K.S.A. 60-4104, and amendments thereto;

Seizure of forfeitable property is governed by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4107 (Seizure of property). Forfeiture may be accomplished by an in rem proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4113 (In rem proceedings) or an in personam proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4114 (In personam proceedings). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4117 (Disposition of forfeited property; use of proceeds of sale) governs the disposition of forfeited property and states, in part:

- (a) When property is forfeited under this act, the law enforcement agency may:
 - (1) Retain such property for official use or transfer the custody or ownership to any local, state or federal agency, subject to any lien preserved by the court;
 - (2) destroy or use for investigative or training purposes, any illegal or controlled substances and equipment or other contraband, provided that materials necessary as evidence shall be preserved;
 - (3) sell property which is not required by law to be destroyed and which is not harmful to the public . . .
- (c) The proceeds of any sale shall be distributed in the following order of priority:
 - (1) For satisfaction of any court preserved security interest or lien . . .
 - (2) thereafter, for payment of all proper expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and disposition

(3) reasonable attorney fees:

(4) repayment of law enforcement funds expended in purchasing of contraband or controlled substances, subject to any interagency agreement.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d) (Judgment and sentence), a buyer convicted of commercial sex with a minor may also be required to pay restitution. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(1) states, if a defendant is found guilty and “upon request of the victim or the victim’s family and before imposing sentence, the court shall hold a hearing to establish restitution.” The court can also order a person convicted of human trafficking, aggravated human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of a child and amendments made to such statute prohibiting such conduct, to pay restitution to victims of such offense. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(2).

2.9 Buying and possessing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Possessing child pornography is a crime under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)(2) (Sexual exploitation of a child), which prohibits “possessing any visual depiction of a child under 18 years of age shown or heard engaging in sexually explicit conduct with intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desires or appeal to the prurient interest of the offender or any other person.”¹⁷ This crime is a severity level 5, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(1)(A), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

In comparison, a federal conviction for possession of child pornography¹⁸ is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.¹⁹ Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.²⁰

¹⁷ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5610 (Unlawful possession of visual description of a child - elements, affirmative defense, applicability) may also apply to buyers who possess or receive child sexual abuse images, but only if the buyer is under 19 years of age. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5610(a)–(b),

(a) Unlawful possession of a visual depiction of a child is knowingly possessing a visual depiction of a child 12 years of age or older but less than 16 years of age in a state of nudity, if committed by a person less than 19 years of age, and the possessor of such visual depiction received such visual depiction directly and exclusively from the child who is the subject of such visual depiction.

(b) Unlawful possession of a visual depiction of a child is a class B person misdemeanor.

The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5610 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House Bill 2501 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2016).

¹⁹ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a)(2) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (a)(4) is punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both), 2252A(b)(1) (a conviction is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a) is “subject to the penalties provided in section 2252A(b)(1),” imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (b) is “subject to the penalties provided in section 2252A(b)(2),” imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

²⁰ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years, but if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(4), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 10–20 years),

- 2.9.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)(2) (Sexual exploitation of a child) to increase penalties to reflect the seriousness of the offense.

2.10 Convicted buyers of commercial sex acts with minors and child pornography are required to register as sex offenders.

Offenders are required to register pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4905(a) (Registration of offender) in person within 3 days of coming into any county or jurisdiction “in which the offender resides or intends to reside, maintains employment or intends to maintain employment, or attends school or intends to attend school.” Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(a)(1), (2) (Definitions), “offender” includes both sex offenders and violent offenders. A “sex offender” is defined by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(b)²¹ as any person who:

- (1) On or after April 14, 1994, is convicted of any sexually violent crime;
- (2) On or after July 1, 2002, is adjudicated as a juvenile offender for an act which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a sexually violent crime, unless the court, on the record, finds that the act involved non-forcible sexual conduct, the victim was at least 14 years of age and the offender was not more than four years older than the victim;
- (4) on or after July 1, 1997, is convicted of any of the following crimes when one of the parties involved is less than 18 years of age:
 - (D) patronizing a prostitute, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6421, prior to [its] amendment on July 1, 2013;²² or
 - (E) lewd and lascivious behavior, as defined in . . . K.S.A.2015 Supp. 21-5513, and amendments thereto;
- (6) is convicted of an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302, 21-5303, and amendments thereto, of an offense defined in this subsection; or
- (7) has been convicted of an offense that is comparable to any crime defined in this subsection, or any out of state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be an offense defined in this subsection.

Several of the crimes defined as sexually violent by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(c) are crimes that could possibly be used to prosecute buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor. Sexually violent crimes include the following:

- (1) Rape as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5503, and amendments thereto;
- (2) indecent liberties with a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5506(a), and amendments thereto;

2252A(b)(1) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that the penalty scheme for section 2252A(b) applies); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

²² The July 1, 2013 Amendment renames the statute “buying sexual relations,” and limits its application to instances where the sexual services are provided by adults.

(3) aggravated indecent liberties with a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5506(b), and amendments thereto;

(6) indecent solicitation of a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5508(a), and amendments thereto.

(7) aggravated indecent solicitation of a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5508(b), and amendments thereto;

(8) sexual exploitation of a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto;

(11) electronic solicitation as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5509, and amendments thereto, committed on or after April 17, 2008;

(13) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3447, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or in part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the defendant or another;

(14) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto;

(15) any conviction or adjudication for an offense that is comparable to a sexually violent crime as defined in this subsection, or any out of state conviction or adjudication for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a sexually violent crime as defined in this subsection;

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(e)(1)(I), a “violent offender” includes a person who is convicted of aggravated human trafficking under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) (Human trafficking), on or after July 1, 1997. It also includes “any person who . . . is convicted of an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3301, 21-3302 or 21-3303, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 and 21-5303, and amendments thereto . . .” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(e)(4).

According, buyers convicted of human trafficking, CSEC, or child pornography offenses under Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426, 21-6422, and 21-5510, respectively, will be required to register as sex offenders.

Legal Components:

- 3.1 Penalties for trafficking a child for sexual exploitation are as high as federal penalties.
- 3.2 Creating and distributing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.
- 3.3 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit or sell commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for traffickers.
- 3.4 Financial penalties for traffickers, including asset forfeiture, are sufficiently high.
- 3.5 Convicted traffickers are required to register as sex offenders.
- 3.6 Laws relating to termination of parental rights for certain offenses include sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses in order to remove the children of traffickers from their control.

Legal Analysis:

- 3.1 Penalties for trafficking a child for sexual exploitation are as high as federal penalties.

Traffickers of children for commercial sexual exploitation are subject to prosecution under several criminal statutes. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4) (Human trafficking), which includes human trafficking of a person under 18 is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, aggravated human trafficking is an off-grid person felony with a mandatory imprisonment for 25 years and life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(A), 21-6611(a)(1).

A trafficker may also be convicted under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child). Commercial sexual exploitation of a child is a Severity level 5, person felony for a first conviction. A Severity level 5, person felony, is punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is punishable as an off-grid person felony by mandatory imprisonment for 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1), (a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6804(j)(1) (Sentencing grid for nondrug crimes; authority and responsibility of sentencing court; presumptive disposition), “The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current convicted crime carries a presumptive term of imprisonment shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term.” For any fine for a felony or misdemeanor found in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(a)–(b) (Fines; crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993), “[T]he fine imposed may [alternatively] be fixed at any greater sum not exceeding double the pecuniary gain derived from the crime by the offender.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(c).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense²³ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1).

²³ See supra note 13.

3.2 Creating and distributing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Creating and distributing child pornography falls under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510²⁴ (Sexual exploitation of a child) which states, in part, “(a) . . . sexual exploitation of a child is: (1) Employing, using, persuading, inducing, enticing or coercing a child under 18 years of age to engage in sexually explicit conduct²⁵ with the intent to promote any performance.”²⁶ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)(1). Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(d)(2), the term “promoting” is defined to include the following:

procuring, transmitting, distributing, circulating, presenting, producing, directing, manufacturing, issuing, publishing, displaying, exhibiting, or advertising:

(A) For pecuniary profit; or

(B) with intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire or appeal to the prurient interest of the offender or any other person.

Sexual exploitation of a child is a severity level 5, person felony, punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(1)(B), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). However, when the child is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, sexual exploitation of a child is an off-grid person felony with mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1)(F),²⁷ 21-6611(a)(1).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense²⁸ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). Additionally, a federal conviction for

²⁶ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5611 (Unlawful transmission of visual description of a child - elements, definitions) may also apply to traffickers who transmit child sexual abuse images, but only if the trafficker is under 19 years of age. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5611(a)–(b),

(a) Unlawful transmission of a visual depiction of a child is knowingly transmitting a visual depiction of a child 12 or more years of age but less than 18 years of age in a state of nudity when the offender is less than 19 years of age.

(b) Aggravated unlawful transmission of a visual depiction of a child is:

(1) Knowingly transmitting a visual depiction of a child 12 or more years of age but less than 18 years of age in a state of nudity;

(A) With the intent to harass, embarrass, intimidate, defame or otherwise inflict emotional, psychological or physical harm;

(B) for pecuniary or tangible gain; or

(C) with the intent to exhibit or transmit such visual depiction to more than one person; and

(2) when the offender is less than 19 years of age.

Unlawful transmission of a visual depiction is a Class A person misdemeanor, and a subsequent conviction is a felony; aggravated unlawful transmission of a visual depiction is also a felony. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5611(c). The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5611 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House Bill 2501 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2016).

distribution of child pornography²⁹ is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.³⁰ Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.³¹

3.2.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child) to apply the enhanced penalty to all minors under 18.

3.3 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit or sell commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for traffickers.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509(a) (Electronic solicitation) states, “Electronic solicitation is, by means of communication conducted through the telephone, internet or by other electronic means, enticing or soliciting³² a person, whom the offender believes to be a child, to commit or submit to an unlawful sexual act.” If the offender believes the victim to be 14 or 15, electronic solicitation is a severity level 3, person felony with presumptive imprisonment for 55–61 months (recommended 59 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5509(b)(1), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If the offender believes the child is under 14, the crime is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5509(b)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

3.4 *Financial penalties for traffickers, including asset forfeiture, are sufficiently high.*³³

Traffickers are subject to both criminal and civil forfeiture provisions, restitution, and fines for violations of Kansas’s laws. A conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) (Human trafficking) or Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) when the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older is punishable by a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422 (b)(2), 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6611(a)(1). Otherwise, a conviction under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) or Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 when the victim is over 14 and under 18 is punishable by a fine not to exceed $300,000. Sec. 4(b)(1)(A), Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6611(a)(2).

³¹ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(3) or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 2252A(b)(1) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that the penalty scheme for section 2252A(b) applies); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

For any fine for a felony or misdemeanor found in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(a)–(b), “the fine imposed may [alternatively] be fixed at any greater sum not exceeding double the pecuniary gain derived from the crime by the offender.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6611(c).

Kansas’s asset forfeiture laws are applicable to traffickers who violate Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking), § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), and § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4104(p)–(dd) (Covered offenses and conduct giving rise to forfeiture). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4105(b)–(d) (Property subject to forfeiture), property subject to forfeiture includes the following:

- (b) except as otherwise provided by law,³⁴ all property, of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments and the whole of any lot or tract of land . . . that is either:
 - (1) Furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in an exchange that constitutes conduct giving rise to forfeiture; or
 - (2) used or intended to be used in any manner to facilitate conduct giving rise to forfeiture, including, but not limited to, any electronic device, computer, computer system, computer network or any software or data owned by the defendant which is used during the commission of an offense listed in K.S.A. 60-4104 [Covered offenses and conduct giving rise to forfeiture] and amendments thereto;
 - (c) all proceeds of any conduct giving rise to forfeiture;
 - (d) all property of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments derived from or realized through any proceeds which were obtained directly or indirectly from the commission of an offense listed in K.S.A. 60-4104, and amendments thereto;

³⁴ Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4106 (Exemptions),

- (a) All property, including all interests in property, described in K.S.A. 60-4105, is subject to forfeiture . . . except that property specifically exempted hereunder:
 - (1) No real property or conveyance, or an interest therein, may be forfeited under this act unless the offense or conduct giving rise to forfeiture constitutes a felony.
 - (2) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this act unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this act.
 - (3) No property is subject to forfeiture under this act if the owner or interest holder acquired the property before or during the conduct giving rise to the property’s forfeiture, and such owner or interest holder:
 - (A) Did not know and could not have reasonably known of the act or omission or that it was likely to occur; or
 - (B) acted reasonably to prevent the conduct giving rise to forfeiture.
 - (4) No property is subject to forfeiture if the owner or interest holder acquired the property after the conduct giving rise to the property’s forfeiture, including acquisition of proceeds of conduct giving rise to forfeiture, and the owner or interest holder acquired the property in good faith, for value and was not knowingly taking part in an illegal transaction.
- (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), property is not exempt from forfeiture, even though the owner or interest holder lacked knowledge or reason to know that the conduct giving rise to property’s forfeiture had occurred or was likely to occur, if the:
 - (2) owner or interest holder is criminally responsible for the conduct giving rise to the property’s forfeiture, whether or not there is a prosecution or conviction;

Seizure of forfeitable property is governed by Kan. Stat. Ann. §60-4107 (Seizure of property). Forfeiture may be accomplished by an in rem proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4113 (In rem proceedings) or an in personam proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4114 (In personam proceedings). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4117 (Disposition of forfeited property; use of proceeds of sale) governs the disposition of forfeited property and states, in part:

- (a) When property is forfeited under this act, the law enforcement agency may:
 - (1) Retain such property for official use or transfer the custody or ownership to any local, state or federal agency, subject to any lien preserved by the court;
 - (2) destroy or use for investigative or training purposes, any illegal or controlled substances and equipment or other contraband, provided that materials necessary as evidence shall be preserved;
 - (3) sell property which is not required by law to be destroyed and which is not harmful to the public:

- (c) The proceeds of any sale shall be distributed in the following order of priority:
 - (1) For satisfaction of any court preserved security interest or lien . . .
 - (2) thereafter, for payment of all proper expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and disposition
 - ...
 - (3) reasonable attorney fees:
 - (4) repayment of law enforcement funds expended in purchasing of contraband or controlled substances, subject to any interagency agreement.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d) (Judgment and sentence), a trafficker convicted of commercial sex with a minor may also be required to pay restitution. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(1) states, if a defendant is found guilty and “upon request of the victim or the victim’s family and before imposing sentence, the court shall hold a hearing to establish restitution.” The court can also order a person convicted of human trafficking, aggravated human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of a child and amendments made to such statute prohibiting such conduct, to pay restitution to victims of such offense.³⁵ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(2).

3.5 Convicted traffickers are required to register as sex offenders.

Sex offenders are required to register pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4905(a) (Registration of offender) in person within 3 days of coming into any county or jurisdiction “in which the offender resides or intends to reside, maintains employment or intends to maintain employment, or attends school or intends to attend school.” Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(a)(1)–(2) (Definitions), “offender” includes both sex offenders and violent offenders. A “sex offender” is defined by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(b)³⁶ as

- any person who:
 - (1) On or after April 14, 1994, is convicted of any sexually violent crime;

³⁵ While the court is generally expected to impose the presumptive sentence in the sentencing guidelines, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6185(c)(2)(F)(i), the judge may consider imposing a departure sentence if the defendant commits a “crime of extreme sexual violence,” to include: “aggravated human trafficking . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or commercial sexual exploitation of a child . . . if the victim is less than 14 years of age.”

³⁶ See supra note 21.

(2) On or after July 1, 2002, is adjudicated as a juvenile offender for an act which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a sexually violent crime, unless the court, on the record, finds that the act involved non-forcible sexual conduct, the victim was at least 14 years of age and the offender was not more than four years older than the victim;

(4) on or after July 1, 1997, is convicted of any of the following crimes when one of the parties involved is less than 18 years of age:

(D) patronizing a prostitute, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6421, prior to [its] amendment on July 1, 2013.

(E) lewd and lascivious behavior, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5513, and amendments thereto;

(6) is convicted of an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302, 21-5303, and amendments thereto, of an offense defined in this subsection; or

(7) has been convicted of an offense that is comparable to any crime defined in this subsection, or any out of state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be an offense defined in this subsection.

Several of the crimes defined as sexually violent by Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(c) are crimes applicable to traffickers. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4902(c) these crimes include the following:

(8) sexual exploitation of a child as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto;

(11) electronic solicitation as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5509, and amendments thereto, committed on or after April 17, 2008;

(13) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3447, prior to its repeal, K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or in part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the defendant or another;

(14) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in section 4, and amendments thereto;

(15) any conviction or adjudication for an offense that is comparable to a sexually violent crime as defined in this subsection, or any out of state conviction or adjudication for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a sexually violent crime as defined in this subsection;

(16) an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in . . . K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302, 21-5303, and amendments thereto, of a sexually violent crime, as defined in this subsection; or

(17) any act which has been determined beyond a reasonable doubt to have been sexually motivated, unless the court, on the record, finds that the act involved nonforcible sexual conduct, the victim was at least 14 years of age and the offender was not more than four years older than the victim. As used in this paragraph, “sexually motivated” means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of the defendant’s sexual gratification.

Accordingly, traffickers convicted of human trafficking, CSEC, and child pornography offenses under Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426, 21-6422, and 21-5510, respectively, will be required to register as sex offenders.

3.6 Laws relating to termination of parental rights for certain offenses include sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses in order to remove the children of traffickers from their control.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2269(a) (Factors to be considered in termination of parental rights), “When the child has been adjudicated to be a child in need of care, the court may terminate parental rights or appoint a permanent custodian when the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the parent is unfit by reason of conduct or condition which renders the parent unable to care properly for a child and the conduct or condition is unlikely to change in the foreseeable future.” One of the factors a court may consider in determining fitness is “conviction of a felony and imprisonment.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2269(b)(5). Additionally, a parent or guardian may be found unfit if he or she has been “convicted of a felony in which intercourse occurred, or if a juvenile is adjudicated a juvenile offender because of an act which, if committed by an adult, would be a felony in which sexual intercourse occurred, and as a result of the sexual intercourse, a child is conceived” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2269(e).

Under Kan. Stat. Ann § 38-2271(a) (Presumption of unfitness, when; burden of proof),

It is presumed . . . that a parent is unfit by reason of conduct or condition which renders the parent unable to fully care for a child, if the state establishes, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(7) a parent has been convicted of . . . human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, K.S.A. 21-3446 or 21-3447, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto

Legal Components:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.
- 4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.
- 4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.
- 4.4 Promoting and selling child pornography is illegal.

Legal Analysis:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.

The human trafficking provision may apply to facilitators. Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(a) (Human trafficking),

Human trafficking is:

- (1) The intentional recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud or coercion for the purpose of subjecting the person to involuntary servitude or forced labor;
- (2) intentionally benefitting financially or by receiving anything of value from participation in a venture that the person has reason to know has engaged in acts set forth in subsection (a)(1).

Therefore, facilitators prosecuted under this provision would need to have reason to know that “force, fraud, threat or coercion will be used to cause the person to engage in forced labor or involuntary servitude.” Human trafficking is a severity level 2, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 109–123 months (recommended 117 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(1), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4), aggravated trafficking “involve[es] recruiting, harboring, transporting, providing or obtaining, by any means, a person under 18 years of age knowing that the person, with or without force, fraud, threat or coercion, will be used to engage in forced labor, involuntary servitude or sexual gratification of the defendant or another.” Aggravated human trafficking is a severity level 1, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 147–165 months (recommended 155 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(2), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If the victim is less than 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is an off-grid person felony with a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5426(c)(3), 21-6627(a)(1)(A),³⁷ 21-6611(a)(1).

Additionally, a facilitator could be charged under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422(a) (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), which includes knowingly:

³⁷ See supra note 3.

- (2) establishing, owning, maintaining or managing any property, whether real or personal, where sexual relations are being sold or offered for sale by a person younger than 18 years of age, or participating in the establishment, ownership, maintenance or management thereof;
- (3) permitting any property, whether real or personal, partially or wholly owned or controlled by the defendant to be used as a place where sexual relations are being sold or offered for sale by a person who is younger than 18 years of age; or
- (4) procuring transportation for, paying for the transportation of or transporting any person younger than 18 years of age within this state with the intent of causing, assisting or promoting that person's engaging in selling sexual relations.

When the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, commercial sexual exploitation of a child is an off-grid person felony with a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422 (b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1)(E), 21-6611(a)(1). Where the minor victim is over 14 and under 18, it is a severity level 5, person felony, punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and possible fine up to $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422(b)(1)(A), 21-5510(b)(1)(A), (B), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If the defendant has a prior conviction, however, it is a severity level 2, person felony, punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 109–123 months (recommended 117 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-6422(b)(1)(A), 21-5426(c)(1), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2).

4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.

Kansas's asset forfeiture laws are applicable to facilitators who violate Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking) and Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4104(p), (aa). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4105(b), (c), (d) (Property subject to forfeiture) property subject to forfeiture includes the following:

- (b) except as otherwise provided by law, all property, of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments and the whole of any lot or tract of land . . . that is either:
 - (1) Furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in an exchange that constitutes conduct giving rise to forfeiture; or
 - (2) used or intended to be used in any manner to facilitate conduct giving rise to forfeiture . . .
- (c) all proceeds of any conduct giving rise to forfeiture;
- (d) all property of every kind, including, but not limited to, cash and negotiable instruments derived from or realized through any proceeds which were obtained directly or indirectly from the commission of an offense listed in K.S.A. 60-4104, and amendments thereto . . .

Seizure of forfeitable property is governed by Kan. Stat. Ann. §60-4107 (Seizure of property). Forfeiture may be accomplished by an in rem proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4113 (In rem proceedings) or an in personam proceeding pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4114 (In personam proceedings). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-4117 (Disposition of forfeited property; use of proceeds of sale) governs the disposition of forfeited property and states, in part:

- (a) When property is forfeited under this act, the law enforcement agency may:
 - (1) Retain such property for official use or transfer the custody or ownership to any local, state or federal agency, subject to any lien preserved by the court;

- (2) destroy or use for investigative or training purposes, any illegal or controlled substances and equipment or other contraband, provided that materials necessary as evidence shall be preserved;
- (3) sell property which is not required by law to be destroyed and which is not harmful to the public

- (c) The proceeds of any sale shall be distributed in the following order of priority:
 - (1) For satisfaction of any court preserved security interest or lien . . .
 - (2) thereafter, for payment of all proper expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and disposition . . .
 - (3) reasonable attorney fees;
 - (4) repayment of law enforcement funds expended in purchasing of contraband or controlled substances, subject to any interagency agreement.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d) (Judgment and sentence), a facilitator convicted of facilitating commercial sex with a minor may also be required to pay restitution. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(1) states, if a defendant is found guilty and “upon request of the victim or the victim’s family and before imposing sentence, the court shall hold a hearing to establish restitution.” The court can also order a person convicted of human trafficking, aggravated human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of a child and amendments made to such statute prohibiting such conduct, to pay restitution to victims of such offense.³⁸ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(2).

4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.

Kansas has no law specifically prohibiting sex tourism.

- 4.3.1 Recommendation: Enact a law that prohibits selling or offering to sell travel services that include or facilitate travel for the purpose of engaging in commercial sexual exploitation of a child or prostitution of a minor, if sale or travel occurs in Kansas.

4.4 Promoting and selling child pornography is illegal.

Promoting child pornography is illegal under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), which states, among other things, “promoting any performance³⁹ that includes sexually explicit conduct⁴⁰ by a child under 18 years of age, knowing the character and content of the performance.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)(4). Under this statute, “promoting” is defined as “procuring, transmitting, distributing, circulating, presenting, producing, directing, manufacturing, issuing, publishing, displaying, exhibiting or advertising: (A) For pecuniary profit; or (B) with intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire or appeal to the prurient interest of the offender or any other person.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(d)(2). Generally, violating this provision of sexual exploitation of a child is a severity level 5, person felony punishable by presumptive imprisonment for 31–34 months (recommended 32 months) and a possible fine not to exceed $300,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(2)(A), 21-6804(a), 21-6611(a)(2). If, however, the victim is under 14 and the offender is 18 or older, the crime is an off-grid person felony with a mandatory imprisonment of 25 years to life and a possible fine not to exceed $500,000. Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 21-5510(b)(2), 21-6627(a)(1)(F), 21-6611(a)(1).

³⁹ “Performance” is defined to include “any film, photograph, negative, slide, book, magazine or other printed or visual medium, any audio tape recording or any photocopy, video tape, video laser disk, computer hardware, software, floppy disk or any other computer related equipment or computer generated image that contains or incorporates in any manner any film, photograph, negative, photocopy, video tape or video laser disk or any play or other live presentation.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(d)(3).

- 4.4.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), to apply the enhanced penalty for an offense involving any minor under 18.

Legal Components:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.
- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.
- 5.3 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.
- 5.4 State law provides a non-punitive avenue to specialized services through one or more points of entry.
- 5.5 Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.
- 5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.
- 5.7 Crime victims’ compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).
- 5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.
- 5.9 Expungement or sealing of juvenile delinquency records resulting from arrests or adjudications for prostitution-related offenses committed as a result of, or in the course of, the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor is available within a reasonable time after turning 18.
- 5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.
- 5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened sufficiently to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Legal Analysis:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.⁴¹

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking), Kansas’s human trafficking offense, includes all commercial sexual exploitation of minors. Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4), when the victim is a minor, means of force, fraud, or coercion are not required.⁴² In addition, the human trafficking law applies to buyers through the term “obtains,” regardless of third party control; thus, buying commercial sex with a person who is under the age of eighteen constitutes human trafficking.⁴³ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4). Consequently, the offense of human trafficking, under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4), includes any child who is bought for sex, regardless of whether force, fraud, or coercion is used, regardless of whether a buyer exploited the youth without a trafficker’s involvement, and regardless of whether the victim identifies a trafficker. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4).

⁴¹ See generally SHARED HOPE INTERNATIONAL, “Eliminating the Third Party Control Barrier to Identifying Juvenile Sex Trafficking Victims,” JuST Response Policy Paper (2015), http://sharedhope.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Policy-Paper_Eliminating-Third-Party-Control_Final1.pdf (discussing need to include all commercially sexually exploited children within sex trafficking definitions and corresponding need to include buyer conduct in core sex trafficking offenses regardless of whether victim is under control of a third party).

⁴² See supra discussion in Component 1.1.

⁴³ See supra discussion of buyer applicability in Component 2.1.

- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking) is silent with regard to the availability of a defense based on the minor’s willingness to engage in the commercial sex act.

- 5.2.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking) to expressly prohibit a defense based on the minor’s willingness to engage in the commercial sex act.

- 5.3 *State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.*⁴⁴

Minors may be prosecuted under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), however it is an affirmative defense to the charge that the person who committed selling sexual relations was a victim of human trafficking. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419(c).

- 5.3.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations) to ensure that all minors are protected from criminalization for prostitution offenses.

- 5.4 State law provides a non-punitive avenue to specialized services through one or more points of entry.

- (10) is willfully and voluntarily absent at least a second time from a court ordered or designated placement, or a placement pursuant to court order, if the absence is without the consent of the person with whom the child is placed or, if the child is placed in a facility, without the consent of the person in charge of such facility or such person's designee;

- (14) has been subjected to an act which would constitute human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426 [Human trafficking; aggravated human trafficking], and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422 [Commercial sexual exploitation of a child], and amendments thereto, or has committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute selling sexual relations, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations], and amendments thereto.

I. Initial custody

a. Authority for initial custody

Certain individuals have duties to report neglect and abuse of children including medical providers, educational provider, and social services providers. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2223(a)(1) (Reporting of certain abuse or neglect of children; persons reporting; reports, made to whom; penalties; immunity from liability).

Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2231(b)(1)⁴⁷ (Child under 18, when law enforcement officers or court services officers may take into custody; sheltering a runaway), “A law enforcement officer shall take a child under 18 years of age into custody when the officer: (1) reasonably believes the child will be harmed if not immediately removed from the place or residence where the child has been found.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2231(b)(1). An officer may also take a child into custody “when the officer has probable cause to believe that the child is a runaway or a missing person or a verified missing person entry for the child can be found in the national crime of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations] or 21-6422 [Commercial sexual exploitation of a child], and amendments thereto.

information center missing person system” or “reasonably believes the child is a victim of human trafficking, aggravated human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of a child.” Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 38-2231(b)(2), (3).

Additionally, a child may be taken into protective custody upon court order after an application has been filed. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242(a)⁴⁸ (Ex parte orders of protective custody; application; determination of probable cause; period of time; placement; procedures; orders for removal of child from custody of parent, limitations), the application must include the following:

- (1) The applicant’s belief that the child is a child in need of care;
- (2) that the child is likely to sustain harm if not immediately removed from the home;
- (3) that allowing the child to remain in the home is contrary to the welfare of the child; and
- (4) the facts relied upon to support the application, including efforts known to the applicant to maintain the family unit and prevent the unnecessary removal of the child from the child’s home, or the specific facts supporting that an emergency exists which threatens the safety of the child.

If the court determines there is probable cause to believe the allegations in the application are true, the court may issue an order of protective custody. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242(b)(1).

b. Placement

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(a)⁴⁹ (Child under 18 taken into custody), when a law enforcement officer takes a minor under 18 into custody, the officer must first attempt to deliver the child “to the custody of the child’s parent or other custodian unless there are reasonable grounds to believe that such action would not be in the best interests of the child.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(a)(1). If the child is not returned to a parent or custodian, “the child shall promptly be delivered to a shelter facility . . . or, if the child is 15 years of age or younger, or is 16 or 17 years of age if the child has no identifiable parental or family resources or shows signs of physical, mental, emotional or sexual abuse,” the child should be delivered “to a facility or person designated by the secretary.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(a)(2).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(a)(3), if, after a child is delivered to a shelter facility, it is determined that the child will not remain in the facility but, the child is presently alleged, but not yet adjudicated, to be a child in need of care solely pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2202(d)(9) or (d)(10)⁵⁰ [runaway or truant], and amendments thereto, [then,] the

⁴⁹ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 367 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2019).

⁵⁰ Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2202(d),

"Child in need of care" means a person less than 18 years of age at the time of filing of the petition or issuance of an ex parte protective custody order pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2242, and amendments thereto, who:

. . . .

(9) is willfully and voluntarily absent from the child's home without the consent of the child's parent or other custodian;

(10) is willfully and voluntarily absent at least a second time from a court ordered or designated placement, or a placement pursuant to court order, if the absence is without the consent of the person law enforcement officer shall deliver the child to a secure facility, designated by the court, where the child shall be detained for not more than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays, and days on which the office of the clerk of the court is not accessible.

Further, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(a)(4) states,

No child taken into custody pursuant to this code shall be placed in a secure facility, except as authorized by this section and by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2242 [Ex parte orders of protective custody], 38-2243 [Orders of temporary custody] and 38-2260 [Placement], and amendments thereto.

Additionally, if a child has been taken into custody pursuant to Kan Stat. Ann. § 38-2231(b)(3), “. . . the law enforcement officer shall place the child in protective custody and may deliver the child to a staff secure facility. The law enforcement officer shall contact the department for children and families to begin an assessment to determine safety, placement and treatment needs for the child.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(b)(2). However, the statute also provides that, “[s]uch child shall not be placed in a secure facility” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2232(b)(2).

II. Process following initial custody

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2287 establishes that a child victim of human trafficking is referred to the Department for Children and Families for a placement assessment. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2287(a)⁵¹ (Child in custody, victim of certain conduct; special assessment to determine safety, placement and treatment needs) states, Whenever a child is in custody, as defined in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2202, and amendments thereto, and there is a reason to believe such child has been subjected to an act which would constitute human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, or the child committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute selling of sexual relations, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419, and amendments thereto, the court shall refer the child to the secretary for children and families for an assessment to determine safety, placement, treatment and service needs for the child. The secretary shall use a validated, evidence-based assessment tool or instrument to assess such needs and shall make appropriate recommendations to the court. The secretary shall provide only a summary of the results from the assessment tool or instrument, not the complete assessment tool or instrument.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242(b)(2) (Ex parte orders of protective custody; application of determination of probable cause; period of time; placement; procedures; orders for removal of child from custody of parent, limitations), “No child shall be held in protective custody for more than 72 hours . . . unless within the 72-hour period a determination is made as to the necessity for temporary custody in a with whom the child is placed or, if the child is placed in a facility, without the consent of the person in charge of such facility or such person's designee; temporary custody hearing.” Additionally, under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2243(f)⁵² (Orders of temporary custody),

The court may enter an order of temporary custody after determining there is probable cause to believe that the: (1) Child is dangerous to self or to others; (2) child is not likely to be available within the jurisdiction of the court for future proceedings; (3) health or welfare of the child may be endangered without further care; (4) child has been subjected to human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto; or (5) child committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a violation of K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations], and amendments thereto.

If the court does choose to issue an order of temporary or protective custody, “the court may also enter an order restraining any alleged perpetrator of physical, sexual, mental or emotional abuse of the child from residing in the child’s home; visiting, contacting, harassing or intimidating the child; or attempting to visit, contact, harass or intimidate the child, other family member or witness[es]” Kan. Stat. Ann. §§ 38-2242(e), 38-2243(h).

III. Placement process pending adjudication/investigation

Through both Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242(c)(1) (Ex parte orders of protective custody; application of determination of probable cause; period of time; placement; procedures; orders for removal of child from custody of parent, limitations) and Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2243(g)(1) (Orders of temporary custody), when the court determines it is necessary to order protective custody or temporary custody, the minor may be placed into the custody of one of the following:

- (A) A parent or other person having custody of the child and may enter a restraining order pursuant to [subsection (e) for Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242 and] subsection (h) [for Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2243];
- (B) a person, other than the parent or other person having custody, who shall not be required to be licensed under article 5 of chapter 65 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto;
- (C) a youth residential facility;
- (D) a shelter facility;
- (E) a staff secure facility, notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the child has been subjected to human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, or the child committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a violation of K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations], and amendments thereto; or
- (F) the secretary, if the child is 15 years of age or younger, or 16 or 17 years of age if the child has no identifiable parental or family resources or shows signs of physical, mental, emotional or sexual abuse.

⁵² The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2243 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 367 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2019).

IV. Adjudication or referral to alternate process

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2251(c) (Adjudication), “[a] final adjudication or dismissal shall be entered within 60 days from the date of the filing of the petition, unless good cause for a continuance is shown on the record.”

Additionally, as an alternative to adjudication and pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2252(a) (Predispositional alternative; placement with person other than child's parent; conference; recommendations; immunity),

Before placement pursuant to this code of a child with a person other than the child's parent, the secretary, the court or the court services officer, at the direction of the court, may convene a conference of persons determined by the court, the secretary or the court services officer to have a potential interest in determining a placement which is in the best interests of the child. Such persons shall be given any information relevant to the determination of the placement of the child, including the needs of the child and any other information that would be helpful in making a placement in the best interests of the child. After presentation of the information, such persons shall be permitted to discuss and recommend to the secretary or the court services officer the person or persons with whom it would be in the child's best interest to be placed. Unless the secretary or the court services officer determines that there is good cause to place the child with a person other than as recommended, the child shall be placed in accordance with the recommendations.

V. Outcomes

At a dispositional hearing under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2253 (Dispositional hearing; purpose; time), several dispositions are possible. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2255 (Authorized dispositions), the child may be placed with the parent or removed from the custody of the parent and custody awarded to “a relative of the child or to a person with whom the child has close emotional ties . . . to any other suitable person, to or, if the child is 15 years of age or younger, or 16 or 17 years of age if the child has no identifiable parental or family resources or shows signs of physical, mental, emotional or sexual abuse, to the secretary.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2255(b), (c), (d). Additionally, a child that is a victim of domestic minor sex trafficking may be held in a staff secured facility. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2255(d).

The procedures for a permanency hearing are set out in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2264⁵³ (Permanency hearing; purpose; procedure; time for hearing; authorized orders), which states

- (a) A permanency hearing is a proceeding conducted by the court or by a citizen review board for the purpose of determining progress toward accomplishment of a permanency plan as established by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2263, and amendments thereto.
- (b) The court or a citizen review board shall hear and the court shall determine whether and, if applicable, when the child will be:
 - (1) Reintegrated with the child's parents;
 - (2) placed for adoption;
 - (3) placed with a permanent custodian; or

⁵³ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2264 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 418 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2016).

(4) if the child is 16 years of age or older and the secretary has documented compelling reasons why it would not be in the child's best interests for a placement in one of the placements pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) placed in another planned permanent arrangement.

Additionally, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2242(c)(2), a child may only be placed in protective custody until services are in place “[i]f the secretary presents the court with a plan to provide services to a child or family which the court finds will assure the safety of the child.” Additionally, pursuant to the same statute,

When the child is placed in the temporary custody of the secretary and the child has been subjected to human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by section 4, and amendments thereto, or the child committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a violation of K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations], and amendments thereto, the secretary shall have the discretionary authority to place the child in a staff secure facility, notwithstanding any other provision of law

Child Identified as a Juvenile Offender

Alternatively, a domestic minor sex trafficking victim could potentially be considered a “juvenile offender,” which includes “a person who commits an offense while 10 or more years of age but less than 18 years of age which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a felony or misdemeanor” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2302(s)⁵⁴ (Definitions). Therefore, if a domestic minor sex trafficking victim is convicted of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), the victim could be considered a juvenile offender.

I. Initial custody

a. Authority for initial custody

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2330(a)⁵⁵ (Juvenile taken into custody),

A law enforcement officer may take a juvenile into custody when:

- (1) Any offense has been or is being committed in the officer’s view;
- (2) the officer has a warrant commanding that the juvenile be taken into custody;
- (3) the officer has probable cause to believe that a warrant or order commanding that the juvenile be taken into custody has been issued in this state or in another jurisdiction for an act committed therein;
- (4) the officer has probable cause to believe that the juvenile is committing or has committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute:
 - (A) A felony; or
 - (B) a misdemeanor and: (i) The juvenile will not be apprehended or evidence of the offense will be irretrievably lost unless the juvenile is immediately taken into custody; or (ii) the juvenile may cause injury to self or others or damage to property or may be injured unless immediately taken into custody;

⁵⁵ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2330 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 367 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective January 1, 2017).

- (5) the officer has probable cause to believe that the juvenile has violated an order for electronic monitoring as a term of probation; or
- (6) the officer receives a written statement (c) [in which the juvenile has violated the condition of the juvenile's release].

b. Placement

After taking the juvenile into custody, the officer or other authorized person shall take the juvenile “without unnecessary delay to the custody of the juvenile’s parent or other custodian, unless there are reasonable grounds to believe that such action would not be in the best interest of the child or would pose a risk to public safety or property.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2330(d)(1). However, “[i]f the juvenile cannot be delivered to the juvenile's parent or custodian, the officer may: (A) Issue a notice to appear . . . ; or (B) contact or deliver the juvenile to an intake and assessment worker⁵⁶ for completion of the intake and assessment process” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2330(d)(2).

If detention is being considered for the juvenile, the intake and assessment worker shall collect “the results of a standardized detention risk assessment tool⁵⁷” to determine “eligibility for placement in a juvenile detention facility” Kan. Stat. Ann § 75-7023(d)(1), (f)(2)⁵⁸ (Juvenile intake and assessment system; confidentiality of records; information collected; dispositional alternatives; custody of child; conditions of release).⁵⁹

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2331⁶⁰ (Criteria for detention of juvenile in detention facility), however,

- (a) The court shall not enter an order removing a juvenile from the custody of a parent pursuant to this section unless the court first finds a detention risk assessment . . . has assessed the juvenile as detention-eligible . . . and the court finds probable cause that:
 - (1) Community-based alternatives to detention are insufficient to:

Ann. § 38-2302(r) defines “[j]uvenile intake and assessment worker” as “a responsible adult trained and authorized to perform intake and assessment services as part of the intake and assessment system established pursuant to K.S.A. 75-7023 [Juvenile intake and assessment system; confidentiality of records; information collected; dispositional alternatives; custody of child; conditions of release], and amendments thereto.”

⁵⁸ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-7023 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 367 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective January 1, 2017).

⁵⁹ However, Kan. Stat. Ann § 75-7023(f) provides,

- (3) The detention risk assessment tool includes an override function that may be approved by the court for use under certain circumstances. If approved by the court, the juvenile intake and assessment worker or the court may override the detention risk assessment tool score in order to direct placement in a short-term shelter facility, a community-based alternative to detention, or . . . a juvenile detention facility
- (4) If a juvenile meets one or more of the eligibility criteria for detention or referral to a community-based alternative to detention, the person with authority to detain shall maintain discretion to release the juvenile if other less restrictive measures would be adequate.

- (A) Secure the presence of the juvenile at the next hearing as evidenced by a demonstrable record of recent failures to appear at juvenile court proceedings and an exhaustion of detention alternatives; or
- (B) protect the physical safety of another person or property from serious threat if the juvenile is not detained; and
- (2) The court shall state the basis for each finding in writing.
- (b) Community-based alternatives to detention shall include, but not be limited to:
 - (1) Release on the youth's promise to appear;
 - (2) release to a parent, guardian or custodian upon the youth's assurance to secure such youth's appearance;
 - (3) release with the imposition of reasonable restrictions on activities, associations, movements and residence specifically related to securing the youth's appearance at the next court hearing;
 - (4) release to a voluntary community supervision program;
 - (5) release to a mandatory, court-ordered community supervision program;
 - (6) release with mandatory participation in an electronic monitoring program with minimal restrictions on the youth's movement; or
 - (7) release with mandatory participation in an electronic monitoring program allowing the youth to leave home only to attend school, work, court hearings or other court-approved activities.

“After completion of the intake and assessment process for such child, the intake and assessment worker shall make both a release and referral determination.” Kan. Stat. Ann § 75-7023(e). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann § 75-7023(e), the intake and assessment worker may:

- (1) Release the child to the custody of the child’s parent, other legal guardian or another appropriate adult.
- (2) Conditionally release the child to the child’s parent, other legal guardian or another appropriate adult if the intake and assessment worker believes that if the conditions are met, it would be in the child’s best interest to release the child to such child’s parent, other legal guardian or appropriate adult; and the intake worker has reason to believe that it might be harmful to the child to release the child to such child’s parents, other legal guardian or another appropriate adult without imposing the conditions. The conditions may include, but not be limited to the alternatives listed in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2331(b), and amendments thereto, and the following:
 - (A) Participation of the child in counseling;
 - (B) participation of members of the child’s family in counseling;

 - (F) referral of the child and the child’s family to available community resources or services and the agreement of the child and family to accept and participate in the services offered;
 - (G) requiring the child and members of the child’s family to enter into a behavioral contract which may provide for regular school attendance among other requirements; or
 - (H) any special conditions necessary to protect the child from future abuse or neglect.
- (3) Deliver the child to a shelter facility or a licensed attendant care center along with the law enforcement officer’s written application for a maximum stay of up to 72 hours. The shelter facility or licensed attendant care facility shall then have custody as if the child had been directly delivered to the facility by the law enforcement officer pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2232, and amendments thereto.

- (4) The intake and assessment worker shall also refer the juvenile’s case to one of the following:
- (A) An immediate intervention program⁶¹ pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2346(b), and amendments thereto;
 - (B) the county or district attorney for appropriate proceedings to be filed, with or without a recommendation that the juvenile be considered for alternative means of adjudication programs pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2389, and amendments thereto, or immediate intervention pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2346, and amendments thereto; or
 - (C) refer the child and family to the secretary for children and families for investigations in regard to the allegations.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2343(a)⁶² (Detention hearing; waiver; notice; attorney for juvenile; procedure; removal from custody of parent; audio-video communications), “. . . the juvenile shall not remain in detention for more than 48 hours . . . unless the court determines after hearing, within the 48-hour period, that further detention is warranted based on the criteria in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38–2331”

Additionally, “If the juvenile is in custody on the basis of a new offense which would be a felony or misdemeanor if committed by an adult and no prior judicial determination of probable cause has been made, the court shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile has committed the alleged offense.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2343(b)(1).

III. Placement process pending adjudication/investigation

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2343(a) (Detention hearing; waiver; notice; attorney for juvenile; procedure; removal from custody of parent; audio-video communications), a child may be detained in a juvenile detention facility for longer than 48 hours if the court determines “further detention is warranted based in the criteria in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38–2331” If the juvenile is detained for an extended period, then “the court shall hold a detention review hearing at least every 14 days that a juvenile is in However, under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2343(b)(2), [i]n the absence of the necessary findings, the court shall order the juvenile released.”

IV. Adjudication or referral to alternate process

The adjudication procedures are specified in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2356, which states

(a) If the court finds that the evidence fails to prove an offense charged or a lesser included offense as defined in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5109, and amendments thereto, the court shall enter an order dismissing the charge.

(b) If the court finds that the juvenile committed the offense charged or a lesser included offense as defined in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5109, and amendments thereto, the court shall adjudicate the juvenile to be a juvenile offender and may issue a sentence as authorized by this code.

(c) If the court finds that the juvenile committed the acts constituting the offense charged or a lesser included offense as defined in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 21-5109, and amendments thereto, but is not responsible because of mental disease or defect, the juvenile shall not be adjudicated as a juvenile offender and shall be committed to the custody of the secretary for aging and disability services and placed in a state hospital. The juvenile's continued commitment shall be subject to annual review in the manner provided by K.S.A. 22-3428a, and amendments thereto, for review of commitment of a defendant suffering from mental disease or defect, and the juvenile may be discharged or conditionally released pursuant to that section. The juvenile also may be discharged or conditionally released in the same manner and subject to the same procedures as provided by K.S.A. 22-3428, and amendments thereto, for discharge of or granting conditional release to a defendant found suffering from mental disease or defect. If the juvenile violates any conditions of an order of conditional release, the juvenile shall be subject to contempt proceedings and returned to custody as provided by K.S.A. 22-3428b, and amendments thereto.

V. Outcomes

Sentencing alternatives exist for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking that enter the system as juvenile offenders. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2361(a)⁶³ (Sentencing alternatives),

Upon adjudication as a juvenile offender pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2356, and amendments thereto, modification of sentence pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2367, and amendments thereto, or violation of a condition of sentence pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2368, and amendments thereto, the court may impose one or more of the following sentencing alternatives for a fixed period pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38–2369 and section 1, and amendments thereto.

(1) Place the juvenile on probation for a fixed period⁶⁴ . . . subject to terms and conditions the court deems appropriate consistent with juvenile justice programs in the community. Any juvenile placed on probation shall be supervised according to the juvenile's risk and needs as determined by a risk and needs assessment. Placement of juvenile offenders to community corrections for probation supervision shall be limited to offenders adjudicated for an offense that are determined to be moderate-risk, high-risk or very high-risk on a risk and needs assessment using the cutoff scores established by the secretary pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2360, and amendments thereto.

⁶⁴ Pursuant to Senate Bill 367, Section 1, the term of probation shall be determined as follows:

(2) Order the juvenile to participate in a community based program available in such judicial district subject to the terms and conditions the court deems appropriate. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (11). Requirements pertaining to child support may apply if custody is vested with other than a parent.

(3) Place the juvenile in the custody of a parent or other suitable person, which is not a group home or other facility licensed pursuant to article 5 of chapter 65 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, subject to terms and conditions consistent with juvenile justice programs in the community. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (11).

Requirements pertaining to child support may apply if custody is vested with other than a parent.

(4) Order the juvenile to attend counseling, educational, mediation or other sessions, or to undergo a drug evaluation pursuant to subsection (b).

(9) Place the juvenile under a house arrest program administered by the court pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto.

(10) Place the juvenile in the custody of the secretary of corrections as provided in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2365, and amendments thereto. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (3) or (12). Except for a mandatory drug and alcohol evaluation, when this alternative is ordered with alternatives in paragraphs (2), (4) and (9), such orders shall constitute a recommendation by the court. Requirements pertaining to child support shall apply under this alternative. The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(11) Upon a violation of a condition of sentence, other than a technical violation pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2368, and amendments thereto, commit the juvenile to detention for a period no longer than 30 days subject to the provisions of subsection (g).

(12) If the judge finds and enters into the written record that the juvenile poses a significant risk of harm to another or damage to property, and the juvenile is otherwise eligible for commitment pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2369, and amendments thereto, commit the juvenile directly to the custody of the secretary of corrections for placement in a juvenile correctional facility or a youth residential facility. Placement in a youth residential facility shall only be permitted as authorized in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2369(e), and amendments thereto. If the court elects, a period of conditional release pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2369, and amendments thereto, may also

(1) . . . the court shall establish a specific term of probation as specified in this sub-section based on the most serious adjudicated count in combination with the results of a risk and needs assessment, as follows, except that the term of probation shall not exceed the overall case length limit:

(A) Low-risk and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor and low-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to six months;

(B) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to nine months;

(C) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may be placed on probation for a term up to 12 months.

(2) The court may extend the term of probation if a juvenile needs time to complete an evidence-based program . . . [or] for good cause shown . . .

be ordered. The period of conditional release shall be limited to a maximum of six months and shall be subject to graduated responses. Twenty-one days prior to the juvenile's release from a juvenile correctional facility, the secretary of corrections or designee shall notify the court of the juvenile's anticipated release date. This alternative may be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (7). Requirements pertaining to child support shall apply under this alternative.

The discharge procedures for juveniles are set out in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2376(a)⁶⁵ (Same; discharge from commitment; notification), which states

When a juvenile offender has reached the age of 23 years, has maximized the overall case length limit,⁶⁶ or has been convicted as an adult while serving a term of incarceration at a juvenile correctional facility, or has completed the prescribed terms of incarceration at a juvenile correctional facility, together with any conditional release following the program, the juvenile shall be discharged by the secretary of corrections from any further obligation under the commitment unless the juvenile was sentenced pursuant to an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution upon court order. The discharge shall operate as a full and complete release from any obligations imposed on the juvenile offender arising from the offense for which the juvenile offender was committed.

5.5 *Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.*⁶⁷

Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse in Kansas's child protection statutes. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2202(ff)⁶⁸ (Definitions), "sexual abuse" is defined as "any contact or interaction with a child in which the child is being used for the sexual stimulation of the perpetrator, the child or another person" and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

⁶⁵ The text of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2376 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 367 during the 2016 1st Regular Session of the Kansas Legislature (effective July 1, 2017).

⁶⁶ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2302(u) defines "overall case length limit" as "the maximum jurisdiction of the court following disposition on an individual case." Senate Bill 367, Section 1, provides the maximum overall case length limits. Accordingly,

- (b) Except as provided in subsection (c), the overall case length limit shall be calculated based on the adjudicated offense and the results of a risk and needs assessment, as follows:
 - (1) Offenders adjudicated for a misdemeanor may remain under the jurisdiction of the court for up to 12 months;
 - (2) low-risk and moderate-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may remain under court jurisdiction for up to 15 months; and
 - (3) high-risk offenders adjudicated for a felony may remain under court jurisdiction for up to 18 months.
 - (c) There shall be no overall case length limit for a juvenile adjudicated for a felony that, if committed by an adult, would constitute an off-grid felony or a nondrug severity level 1 through 4 prison felony.
 - (d) When a juvenile is adjudicated for multiple counts, the maximum overall case length shall be calculated based on the most severe adjudicated count at the court's discretion
 - (e) When the juvenile is adjudicated for multiple cases simultaneously, the court shall run those cases concurrently.

allowing, permitting or encouraging a child to

- (1) Be photographed, filmed or depicted in pornographic material; or
- (2) be subjected to aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the offender or another, or be subjected to an act which would constitute conduct proscribed by article 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations] or 21-6422 [Commercial sexual exploitation of a child], and amendments thereto.

Additionally, “[p]hysical, mental or emotional abuse’ means the infliction of physical, mental or emotional harm or the causing of a deterioration of a child and may include, but shall not be limited to, maltreatment or exploiting a child to the extent that the child’s health or emotional well-being is endangered.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2202(y).

However, a commercially sexually exploited minor may not be considered neglected. Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2202(t) “neglect” is defined as acts or omissions by a parent, guardian or person responsible for the care of a child resulting in harm to a child, or presenting a likelihood of harm, and the acts or omissions are not due solely to the lack of financial means of the child’s parents or other custodian. Neglect may include, but shall not be limited to:

- (1) Failure to provide the child with food, clothing or shelter necessary to sustain the life or health of the child;
- (2) failure to provide adequate supervision of a child or to remove a child from a situation which requires judgment or actions beyond the child’s level of maturity, physical condition or mental abilities and that results in bodily injury or a likelihood of harm to the child; or
- (3) failure to use resources available to treat a diagnosed medical condition if such treatment will make a child substantially more comfortable, reduce pain and suffering, or correct or substantially diminish a crippling condition from worsening

5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.

Kan. Stat. Ann § 38-2202⁶⁹ (Definitions) does not require that a parent or caregiver be the perpetrator of abuse in order to find that a juvenile sex trafficking victim is a child in need of care. It states,

As used in the revised Kansas code for care of children, unless the context otherwise indicates:

- (d) “Child in need of care” means a person less than 18 years of age at the time of filing of the petition or issuance of an ex parte protective custody order pursuant to K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 38-2242, and amendments thereto, who:
- (1) Is without adequate parental care, control or subsistence and the condition is not due solely to the lack of financial means of the child's parents or other custodian;
 - (2) is without the care or control necessary for the child's physical, mental or emotional health;
 - (3) has been physically, mentally or emotionally abused or neglected or sexually abused .

⁶⁹ See supra note 45.

(14) has been subjected to an act which would constitute human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426 [Human trafficking; aggravated human trafficking], and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6422 [Commercial sexual exploitation of a child], and amendments thereto, or has committed an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute selling sexual relations, as defined by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations], and amendments thereto.

(ff) "Sexual abuse" means any contact or interaction with a child in which the child is being used for the sexual stimulation of the perpetrator, the child or another person. Sexual abuse shall include, but is not limited to, allowing, permitting or encouraging a child to
(1) Be photographed, filmed or depicted in pornographic material; or
(2) be subjected to aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the offender or another, or be subjected to an act which would constitute conduct proscribed by article 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or K.S.A 2015 Supp. 21-6419 [Selling sexual relations] or 21-6422 [Commercial sexual exploitation of a child], and any amendments thereto.

5.7 Crime victims' compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

A trafficked child may qualify for compensation under Kansas's crime victims' compensation program. Within this program, a "victim" is defined as "a person who suffers personal injury or death as a result of: (1) Criminally injurious conduct; (2) the good faith effort of any person to prevent criminally injurious conduct; or (3) the good faith effort of any person to apprehend a person suspected of engaging in criminally injurious conduct." Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7301(m) (Definitions). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7301(e),

"Criminally injurious conduct" means conduct that:

- (1) (A) Occurs or is attempted in this state or occurs to a person whose domicile is in Kansas who is the victim of a violent crime which occurs in another state, possession, or territory of the United States of America may make an application for compensation if:
 - (i) The crimes would be compensable had it occurred in the state of Kansas; and
 - (ii) the places the crimes occurred are states, possessions or territories of the United States of America not having eligible crime victim compensation programs;
- (B) poses a substantial threat or personal injury or death; and
- (C) either is punishable by fine, imprisonment or death or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this state; or

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7305(b) (Claims for compensation), in order to receive compensation a victim must file a claim with the crime victims compensation board "within two years of the reporting of the incident to law enforcement officials if the victim was less than 16 years of age and the injury or death is the result of any of . . ." certain listed crimes, including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506(a) (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5506(b) (Aggravated indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), § 21-3446 or § 21-5426(a) (Human trafficking), § 21-3447 or § 21-5426(b) (Aggravated human trafficking), and § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child).

Because the extended period for filing a claim only applies to specific crimes where the victim is under 16, minors aged 16 and 17 and victims of non-listed offenses have only two years from the occurrence of the crime to apply for victims' compensation. If the victim must testify in a "sexually violent predator commitment," a claim for compensation for mental health counseling may be filed up to two years after the testimony is given.⁷⁰ Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7305(b)(6).

A victim may become ineligible for compensation if the crime victims' compensation board determines that the victim suffered damages due to "contributory misconduct" or "the victim was likely engaging in, or attempting to engage in, unlawful activity at the time of the crime upon which the claim for compensation is based . . ." although, victims of domestic abuse or sexual assault may not have their awards reduced due to this latter provision. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7305(c)(2)–(3). Additionally, under subsection (e), "Compensation may not be awarded unless the criminally injurious conduct resulting in injury or death was reported to a law enforcement officer within 72 hours after its occurrence or the board finds there was good cause for the failure to report within that time." Finally, under subsection (g), "Except in [Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5604(a) (Incest) or (b) (Aggravated incest)], or cases of sex offenses established in [including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5503 (Rape), § 21-5506(a) (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5506(b) (Aggravated indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5509 (Electronic solicitation), § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), § 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), § 21-6420 (Promoting the sale of sexual relations), § 21-6421 (Buying sexual relations), § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), § 21-3446 (Human trafficking), and § 21-3447 (Aggravated human trafficking) compensation may not be awarded if the economic loss is less than $ 100."

- 5.7.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-7305 (Claims for compensation) to specifically exempt all minor victims of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b)(4) (Human trafficking) and Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) from the ineligibility factors for victim compensation.

5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.

Evidence of the victims' previous sexual conduct is generally inadmissible in prosecutions for certain offenses, unless the prosecutor decides to introduce it, including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426(b) (Aggravated human trafficking), § 21-5506(a) (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5506(b) (Aggravated indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5509 (Electronic solicitation), and § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5502(a) (Evidence of complaining witness' previous sexual conduct in prosecutions for sex offenses; motions; notice). If the defense wishes the evidence to be introduced, the defense must make a motion and the judge, after reviewing the evidence in camera, will determine its relevance and admissibility. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5502(b).

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3434(a) (Videotape of testimony of child victim admissible in certain cases) children under 13 are allowed to testify via closed circuit television or by recorded testimony if the court so orders, upon motion by the attorney for any party. However, under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3434(b), "The state must establish by clear and convincing evidence that to require the child who is the alleged victim to testify in open court will so traumatize the child as to prevent the child from reasonably communicating to the jury or render the child unavailable to testify." Furthermore, "The court shall make such an individualized finding before the state is permitted to proceed under this section." Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3434(b). During out-of-court testimony, the only individuals that may be present include "attorneys for the defendant, the state and the child, any person whose presence would contribute to the welfare and well-being of the child and persons necessary to operate the recording or closed-circuit equipment.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3434(c)(1).

Similarly, for cases brought under the Revised Kansas Code for Care of Children in Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2249(c) (Rules of evidence),

In any proceeding in which a child less than 13 years of age is alleged to have been physically, mentally or emotionally abused or neglected or sexually abused, a recording of an oral statement of the child, or of any witness less than 13 years of age, made before the proceeding began, is admissible in evidence if:

- (1) The court determines that the time, content and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability;
- (2) no attorney for any party or interested party is present when the statement is made;
- (3) the recording is both visual and aural and is recorded on film, videotape or by other electronic means;
- (4) the recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;
- (5) the statement is not made in response to questioning calculated to lead the child to make a particular statement or is clearly shown to be the child’s statement and not made solely as a result of a leading or suggestive question;
- (6) every voice on the recording is identified;
- (7) the person conducting the interview of the child in the recording is present at the proceeding and is available to testify or be cross-examined by any party or interested party; and
- (8) each party or interested party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before it is offered into evidence.

Law enforcement officers and government officials are prohibited from requiring or requesting a polygraph examination or similar truth telling test for anyone who is a victim of certain sex offenses, including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking; aggravated human trafficking), § 21-5503 (Rape), § 21-5506(a) (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5506(b) (Aggravated indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5509 (Electronic solicitation), § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child), § 21-6420 (Promoting the sale of sexual relations), and § 21-6421 (Buying sexual relations), as a condition for proceeding with an investigation or for prosecuting a suspect. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-4614.

While the official file of proceedings are open for public inspection, under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2309(b) (Court records; disclosure; preservation of records), the judge can determine that opening the official file for public inspection is not in the best interests of a juvenile who is less than 14 years of age and “[i]nformation identifying victims and alleged victims of sex offenses, as defined in article 35 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, prior to their repeal . . . or human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3446 or 21-3447 . . . shall not be disclosed or open to public inspection under any circumstances.”

5.9 Expungement or sealing of juvenile delinquency records resulting from arrests or adjudications for prostitution-related offenses committed as a result of, or in the course of, the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor is available within a reasonable time after turning 18.

Expungement is available to child victims of minor sex trafficking charged with prostitution offenses under the Juvenile Justice Code, which states, “Except as provided in subsection (b) [expungement not permitted for certain offenses] and (c) [expungement not permitted for those required to register as sex offenders], any records or files specified in this code concerning a juvenile may be expunged upon application to a judge of the court of the county in which the records or files are maintained.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2312(a) (Expungement of records; docket fee). An application must be made for expungement. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2312 (a). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2312(e)(1)(A),

After hearing, the court shall order the expungement of the records and files if the court finds that:

- (A) (i) The juvenile has reached 23 years of age or that two years have elapsed since the final discharge; or
- (ii) one year has elapsed since the final discharge for an adjudication concerning acts committed by a juvenile which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a violation of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6419 (Selling sexual relations), and amendments thereto.

5.9.1 Recommendation: Amend Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2312(e)(1)(A)(ii) to include an express exception to the requisite one year waiting period for victims of DMST, allowing victims to have such records expunged upon discharge for an adjudication of a prostitution offense.

5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.

Restitution is available to victims of crime in Kansas. Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d)(2)(A) (Judgment and sentence), “[t]he court shall order a person convicted of human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, K.S.A. 21-3446 or 21-3447, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, to pay restitution to the victim of the offense” If, after a criminal trial, a verdict or finding of guilty occurs, “upon request of the victim or the victim’s family and before imposing sentence, the court shall hold a hearing to establish restitution.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-3424(d).

Additionally, sex trafficking and CSEC victims may bring a civil claims under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-5003 (Damages for human trafficking or commercial exploitation of a child victim). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-5003(a)–(b),

- (a) A victim of the conduct of another that would constitute conduct prohibited by K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, or K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, commercial sexual exploitation of a child, may bring an action in an appropriate state court against the person or persons who engaged in such conduct if the victim suffered personal or psychological injury as a result of the conduct. Such victim may seek actual damages, exemplary or punitive damages, injunctive relief and any other appropriate relief.
- (b) In an action under this section, the court shall award a prevailing plaintiff the cost of the suit, including reasonable attorney fees. A victim who is awarded under this section shall be deemed to have sustained damages of at least $150,000.

Some domestic minor sex trafficking victims may also be able to bring a civil claim based on childhood sexual abuse. “Childhood sexual abuse” is defined as “any act committed against the person which act occurred when the person was under the age of 18 years and which act would have been a violation of” certain listed statutes, including Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506 (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5506(b) (Aggravated indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), or § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child). Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-523(b)(2).

Victims of child pornography may seek civil remedies from a buyer if the buyer is convicted of any offense listed under Chapter 21, Article 35 (Sex offenses), including indecent liberties with a child, aggravated indecent liberties with a child, indecent solicitation of a child, and aggravated indecent solicitation of a child, or under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking), § 21-3447 (Aggravated human trafficking), or § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child), “and any portion of such offense was used in the production of child pornography” and the victim suffered “personal or psychological injury as a result of the . . . possession of such child pornography” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-5001(a).

Victims of Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5506 (Indecent liberties with a child), § 21-5508(a) (Indecent solicitation of a child), § 21-5508(b) (Aggravated indecent solicitation of a child), or § 21-5510 (Sexual exploitation of a child) may seek civil remedies from offenders pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-523(b)(2).

5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened sufficiently to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

For most crimes, prosecutions must generally occur within 5 years after the commission of the crime. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5107(d).

Additionally, pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5107((e)(6) (Time limitations for commencement of prosecutions), the period of time in which a prosecution must begin does not include a period where whether the fact of the crime is concealed by the active act or conduct of the accused, there is substantially competent evidence to believe two or more of the following factors are present:

(A) The victim was a child under 15 years of age at the time of the crime;

(B) the victim was of such age or intelligence that the victim was unable to determine that the acts constituted a crime;

(C) the victim was prevented by a parent or other legal authority from making known to law enforcement authorities the fact of the crime whether or not the parent or other legal authority is the accused; and

(D) there is substantially competent expert testimony indicating the victim psychologically repressed such witness’ memory of the fact of the crime, and in the expert’s professional opinion the recall of such memory is accurate and free of undue manipulation, and substantial corroborating evidence can be produced in support of the allegations contained in the complaint or information but in no event may a prosecution be commenced as provided in subsection (e)(6) later than the date the victim turns 28 years of age. Corroborating evidence may include, but is not limited to, evidence the defendant committed similar acts against other persons or evidence of contemporaneous physical manifestations of the crime.

For civil actions, an action commenced by a victim of an offense under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5426 (Human trafficking) or Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) shall be filed “within 10 years after the later of the date on which the victim was freed from the human trafficking situation or attained 18 years of age.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-5003(c) (Damages for human trafficking or commercial exploitation of child victims). Therefore, a domestic minor sex trafficking victim may bring a claim until the victim reaches the age of 28 or within 10 years of being freed from trafficking.

For all other civil actions, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-515(a) (Persons under legal disability) provides, [e]xcept as provided in K.S.A. 60-523, if any person entitled to bring an action, other than for the recovery of real property or a penalty or a forfeiture, at the time the cause of action accrued or at any time during the period the statute of limitations is running, is less than 18 years of age, . . . such person shall be entitled to bring such action within one year after the person’s disability is removed, except that no such action shall be commenced by or on behalf of any person under the disability more than eight years after the time of the act giving rise to the cause of action.

Therefore, for victims of childhood sexual abuse, an action for damages may be commenced either within 3 years of the victim's 18th birthday or "more than three years from the date the person discovers or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or illness was caused by childhood sexual abuse, whichever occurs later." Kan. Stat. Ann. § 60-523(a) (Limitations on actions for recovery of damages suffered as a result of childhood sexual abuse).

Legal Components:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.
- 6.2 Single party consent to audio-taping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.
- 6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking.
- 6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate buying or selling of commercial sex acts is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.
- 6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.
- 6.6 Law enforcement are mandated to promptly report missing and recovered children.

Legal Analysis:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.

Kansas law specifies that a law enforcement officer must attend 40 hours of continuing training annually. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 74-5607a(b) (Certification for full-time and part-time law enforcement officers; annual training; provisional certificate). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-756 (Authorizing coordination of training regarding human trafficking), the Attorney General is authorized to “coordinate training regarding human trafficking for law enforcement agencies throughout Kansas.”

- 6.2 Single party consent to audiotaping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.

Kansas does allow single party consent to audiotaping. A breach of privacy occurs when an individual “without the consent of the sender or receiver” intercepts the contents of a message sent via “telephone, telegraph, letter or other means of private communication.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6101(a)(1) (Breach of privacy).

- 6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking.

Kansas specifically permits the use of wiretapping in domestic minor sex trafficking investigations. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-2515(a) (Same; order; application; crimes for which order may be issued; disclosure and use of contents of wire, oral or electronic communications; effect on privileged communications) authorizes wiretapping for a range of offenses including human trafficking or aggravated human trafficking, sexual exploitation of a child and commercial sexual exploitation of a child. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 22-2515(a)(20)–(24).

- 6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate buying or selling of commercial sex acts is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.

While there is no law in place that explicitly prohibits a defense to prosecution based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor, the defense would be prohibited under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509 (Electronic solicitation), which makes it a crime to “entic[e] or solicit[] a person whom the offender believes to be a child” Additionally, the CSEC offense under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5510(a)(1) (Sexual exploitation of a child) applies to “a person whom the offender believes to be a child under 18 years of age.”

However, a defendant may still be able to assert a defense based on a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate other buyer-applicable offenses through reverse sting operations, which are the most likely situations in which a defendant would try to use such a defense. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 (Commercial sexual exploitation of a child) is a buyer applicable CSEC offense⁷¹ that does not prohibit this defense, meaning that buyers charged for attempting to solicit or purchase sex with a minor under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-6422 would not be prohibited from raising a defense based on the fact that an actual minor was not involved.

6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.

Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509 (Electronic solicitation) provides a means for law enforcement to use the Internet to investigate buyers of commercial sex with minors. Under Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509(a), “enticing or soliciting a person, whom the offender believes to be a child to commit an unlawful sexual act” through electronic means is a crime. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 21-5509(a). Because of the use of the language “believes to be a child,” the provision appears to allow for prosecution in cases where an officer posed as a minor online and no real child was involved.

6.6 Law enforcement are mandated to promptly report missing and recovered children.

Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-712b(a) (Same; missing and unidentified person system), “[t]he Kansas bureau of investigation shall establish a missing and unidentified person system which shall be a central repository of information received by law enforcement agencies and coroners in this state relating to persons who have been reported missing or are unidentified.” Under subsection (b), law enforcement agencies shall report all information received relating to missing persons or face a possible civil penalty not to exceed $500. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-712b(b), (g). Pursuant to Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-712c(a)(3)⁷² (Same; reports of missing persons; duties of law enforcement agencies), law enforcement officers shall enter reports of missing persons “into the missing person system of the national crime information center and the missing and unidentified person system of the Kansas bureau of investigation within two hours of receipt of the minimum data required to enter a record into such system”

Further, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2289(b)⁷³ (Reporting requirements) provides,

Immediately after receiving information that a child in the custody of the secretary is missing, and in no case later than 24 hours after receiving such information, the secretary shall report such information to the national center for missing and exploited children and the law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction from which the child is missing. The law enforcement officer shall enter such information into the missing person system of the national crime information center and the missing and unidentified person system of the Kansas bureau of investigation⁷⁴

⁷⁴ Although not specifically applicable to missing children, Kan. Stat. Ann. § 38-2289(a) also provides,

Immediately upon receiving information that a child has been identified as a victim of human trafficking, aggravated human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of a child, and in no case later than 24 hours after receiving such information, the secretary shall report such information to law enforcement agencies of jurisdiction.

Such reports could be used to identify missing children who are also victims of human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation.

Additionally, “[a]ny person or entity which has legal guardianship of a person or legal custody of a person, or both, pursuant to the Kansas code for care of children . . . shall notify a law enforcement agency immediately, and in no case later than two hours, if such person is unaccounted for or if such person’s location is unknown.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-712f(a) (Report of missing person required, when; notice of person’s return). Under subsection (b), “[a] person or entity required to notify a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section shall notify the law enforcement agency not later than 24 hours after the missing person returns or is located.” Kan. Stat. Ann. § 75-712f(b).
