STATE ACTION. NATIONAL CHANGE.

2016 ANALYSIS AND RECOMMENDATIONS NEW YORK

FRAMEWORK ISSUE 1: CRIMINALIZATION OF DOMESTIC MINOR SEX TRAFFICKING

Legal Components:

- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.
- 1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.
- 1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.
- 1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute trafficking crimes.

Legal Analysis¹:

- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.

New York's sex trafficking statute requires force, fraud, or coercion for all cases of sex trafficking, even when the victim is under 18. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking),

A person is guilty of sex trafficking if he or she intentionally advances² or profits³ from prostitution by:

¹ This report includes legislation enacted as of August 1, 2016.

² N.Y. Penal Law § 230.15(1) (Advance prostitution) is defined as, "A person 'advances prostitution' when, acting other than as a person in prostitution or as a patron thereof, he or she knowingly causes or aids a person to commit or engage in prostitution, procures or solicits patrons for prostitution, provides persons or premises for prostitution purposes, operates or assists in the enterprise, or engages in any other conduct designed to institute, aid or facilitate an act or enterprise of prostitution." The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.15(1) cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

1. unlawfully providing to a person who is patronized, with intent to impair said person’s judgment: (a) a narcotic drug or a narcotic preparation; (b) concentrated cannabis as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision four of section thirty-three hundred two of the public health law; (c) methadone; or (d) gamma-hydroxybutyrate (GHB) or flunitrazepan, also known as Rohypnol;
2. making material false statements, misstatements, or omissions to induce or maintain the person being patronized to engage in or continue to engage in prostitution activity;
3. withholding, destroying, or confiscating any actual or purported passport, immigration document, or any other actual or purported government identification document of another person with intent to impair said person’s freedom of movement; . . .
4. requiring that prostitution be performed to retire, repay, or service a real or purported debt;
5. using force or engaging in any scheme, plan or pattern to compel or induce the person being patronized to engage in or continue to engage in prostitution activity by means of instilling a fear in the person being patronized that, if the demand is not complied with, the actor or another will do one or more of the following:
 - (a) cause physical injury, serious physical injury, or death to a person; or
 - (b) cause damage to property, other than the property of the actor; or
 - (c) engage in other conduct constituting a felony or unlawful imprisonment in the second degree in violation of section 135.05 [Sex offenses; lack of consent] of this chapter; or
 - (d) accuse some person of a crime or cause criminal charges or deportation proceedings to be instituted against some person; . . . or
 - (e) expose a secret or publicize an asserted fact, whether true or false, tending to subject some person to hatred, contempt or ridicule; or
 - (f) testify or provide information or withhold testimony or information with respect to another’s legal claim or defense; or
 - (g) use or abuse his or her position as a public servant by performing some act within or related to his or her official duties, or by failing or refusing to perform an official duty, in such manner as to affect some person adversely; or
 - (h) perform any other act which would not in itself materially benefit the actor but which is calculated to harm the person who is patronized materially with respect to his or her health, safety, or immigration status.

A conviction is punishable as a Class B felony by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain⁴ from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.34, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1).

- 1.1.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) to eliminate the requirement to prove a form of force, fraud, or coercion in sex trafficking of minor cases or enact a stand-alone sex trafficking of a child statute that eliminates the requirement to prove force, fraud, or coercion.⁵

³ N.Y. Penal Law § 230.15(2) (Profit from prostitution) is defined as, “A person ‘profits from prostitution’ when, acting other than as a person in prostitution receiving compensation for personally rendered prostitution services, he or she accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he or she participates or is to participate in the proceeds of prostitution activity. The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.15(2) cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

⁴ N.Y. Penal Law § 80.00(2) defines “gain” as “the amount of money or the value of property derived from the commission of the crime, less the amount of money or the value of property returned to the victim of the crime or seized by or surrendered to lawful authority prior to the time sentence is imposed.”

1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.

CSEC offenses are separate and distinct from general sexual offenses under New York state law. The following statutes criminalize acts of commercial sexual exploitation of children:

1. Under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.05⁶ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree), “A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree when, being eighteen years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution⁷ and the person patronized⁸ is less than fifteen years old.” A conviction is punishable as a Class E felony, punishable by imprisonment not to exceed 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).
2. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06⁹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree) states, “A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree when: (1) He or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than eleven years old; or (2) Being eighteen years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than thirteen years old.” A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense¹⁰ by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the

⁷ Under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.02(1) (Patronizing a person for prostitution; definitions),

A person patronizes a person for prostitution when:

- (a) Pursuant to a prior understanding, he or she pays a fee to another person as compensation for such person or a third person having engaged in sexual conduct with him or her; or
- (b) He or she pays or agrees to pay a fee to another person pursuant to an understanding that in return therefor such person or a third person will engage in sexual conduct with him or her; or
- (c) He or she solicits or requests another person to engage in sexual conduct with him or her in return for a fee.

The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.02 cited here and elsewhere in this report include amendments made by the enactment of the Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

⁸ “Person who is patronized” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 230.02(2) as “the person with whom the defendant engaged in sexual conduct or was to have engaged in sexual conduct pursuant to the understanding, or the person who was solicited or requested by the defendant to engage in sexual conduct.”

⁹ The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06 cited here and elsewhere in this report include amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

defendant's gain from the commission of the crime.”¹¹ N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.06, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii),¹² 80.00(1). Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 60.13¹³ (Authorized dispositions; felony sex offenses), courts are mandated to “sentence the defendant in accordance with the provisions of section 70.80 [Sentences of imprisonment for conviction of a felony sex offense] of this title.”

3. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.08(1)¹⁴ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in a school zone) states, “A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in a school zone¹⁵ when, being twenty-one years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than eighteen years old at a place that he or she knows, or reasonably should know, is in a school zone.” A conviction is punishable as a Class E felony, punishable by imprisonment not to exceed 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant's gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.08, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).
4. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.11¹⁶ (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree) states, “A person is guilty of aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree when, being twenty-one years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than seventeen years old and the person guilty of patronizing engages in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct, anal sexual conduct, or aggravated sexual conduct as those terms are defined in section 130.00 of this part, with the person patronized.” A conviction is punishable as a Class E felony, punishable by imprisonment not to exceed 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant's gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.11, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 60.13¹⁷ (Authorized dispositions; felony sex offenses), courts are mandated to “sentence the defendant in accordance with the provisions of section 70.80 [Sentences of imprisonment for conviction of a felony sex offense] of this title.”

¹¹ Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 70.80(4)(c), “If the court, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, is of the opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is necessary but that it would be unduly harsh to impose a determinate sentence upon a person convicted of a class D or class E felony sex offense, the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.”

¹² A “predicate felony sex offender” faces certain penalty enhancements under N.Y. Penal Law § 70.80(5). Subsection (5)(a) clarifies that the penalty enhancements “apply to a predicate felony sex offender who stands convicted of a non-violent felony sex offense and who was previously convicted of one or more felonies.” See supra note 10 for the definition of “felony sex offense.” N.Y. Penal Law § 70.80(5). Subsection (8) states, “Whenever a juvenile offender stands convicted of a felony sex offense, he or she must be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of sections 60.10 [Authorized disposition; juvenile offender] and 70.05 [Sentence of imprisonment for juvenile offender] of this chapter.” N.Y. Penal Law § 70.80(8).

15. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 (Luring a child), “A person is guilty of luring a child when he or she lures a child³³ into a motor vehicle, aircraft, watercraft, isolated area, building, or part thereof, for the purpose of committing against such child” any violation of, among other things, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.30 (Promoting prostitution in the second degree), § 230.33 (Compelling prostitution), § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 263.05 (Use of a child in a sexual performance), § 263.10 (Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child), § 263.15 (Promoting a sexual performance by a child), or any of the sexual offense laws that are felonies listed in Article 130. A conviction, when the underlying offense would have been a Class A or B felony, is punishable as a Class C or D felony by either imprisonment of 1–15 years or imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 120.70(2), 70.00(2)(c), (d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). Otherwise, a conviction is punishable as a Class E felony by imprisonment not to exceed 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 120.70(2), 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).

The following sexual offenses could also apply to cases of commercial sexual exploitation:

1. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 130.25(2) (Rape in the third degree), “A person is guilty of rape in the third degree when: . . . 2. Being twenty-one years old or more, he or she engages in sexual intercourse with another person less than seventeen years old.” A conviction is punishable as a Class E felony sex offense³⁴ by imprisonment of 1.5–4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.25, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(iv), 80.00(1).
2. Under N.Y. Penal Law § 130.30(1) (Rape in the second degree), “A person is guilty of rape in the second degree when: . . . being eighteen years old or more, he or she engages in sexual intercourse with another person less than fifteen years old,” but it is an affirmative defense if the offender was less than four years older than the victim. A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense³⁵ by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.30, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1).
3. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 130.35(3), (4) (Rape in the first degree), “A person is guilty of rape in the first degree when he or she engages in sexual intercourse with another person: . . . 3. Who is less than eleven years old; or 4. Who is less than thirteen years old and the actor is eighteen years old or more.” A conviction is punishable as a Class B felony sex offense by imprisonment of 5–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.35, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(i), 80.00(1).
4. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 130.40(2) (Criminal sexual act in the third degree), “A person is guilty of criminal sexual act in the third degree when: . . . 2. Being twenty-one years old or more, he or she engages in oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct with a person less than seventeen years old.” A conviction is punishable as a Class E felony sex offense³⁶ by imprisonment of 1.5–4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.40, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iv), 80.00(1).

5. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 130.45(1) (Criminal sexual act in the second degree), “A person is guilty of criminal sexual act in the second degree when: 1. being eighteen years old or more, he or she engages in oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct with another person less than fifteen years old,” but it is an affirmative defense if the offender was less than four years older than the victim. A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense³⁷ by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.45, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1).
6. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 130.50 (Criminal sexual act in the first degree),

A person is guilty of criminal sexual act in the first degree when he or she engages in oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct with another person:

3. Who is less than eleven years old; or
4. Who is less than thirteen years old and the actor is eighteen years old or more.

A conviction is punishable as a Class B felony sex offense by imprisonment of 5–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.50, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(i), 80.00(1).

1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.

New York’s prostitution laws, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.00 (Prostitution) and § 240.37 (Loitering for the purpose of prostitution) do not refer to New York’s human trafficking law when the person engaged in prostitution is a minor. However, N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) (Substitution of petition or finding) refers to the federal trafficking law in establishing “a presumption that the respondent meets the criteria as a victim of a severe form of trafficking as defined in section 7105 of title 22 of the United States Code (Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000).”

1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute trafficking crimes.

N.Y. Penal Law § 460.20 (Enterprise corruption), states in part,

1. A person is guilty of enterprise³⁸ corruption when, having knowledge of the existence of a criminal enterprise and the nature of its activities, and being employed by or associated with such enterprise, he:
 - (a) intentionally conducts or participates in the affairs of an enterprise by participating in a pattern of criminal activity; or
 - (b) intentionally acquires or maintains any interest in or control of an enterprise by participating in a pattern of criminal activity; or ³⁶ See supra note 10.

³⁷ See supra note 10.

(c) participates in a pattern of criminal activity and knowingly invests any proceeds derived from that conduct, or any proceeds derived from the investment or use of those proceeds, in an enterprise.

2. For purposes of this section, a person participates in a pattern of criminal activity when, with intent to participate in or advance the affairs of the criminal enterprise, he engages in conduct constituting, or, is criminally liable for pursuant to section 20.00 of this chapter, at least three of the criminal acts included in the pattern, provided that:

- (a) Two of his acts are felonies other than conspiracy;
- (b) Two of his acts, one of which is a felony, occurred within five years of the commencement of the criminal action; and
- (c) Each of his acts occurred within three years of a prior act.

“Criminal act” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 460.10(1) as “conduct constituting . . . or conspiracy or attempt to commit” violations of, among other things, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25 (Promoting prostitution in the third degree), § 230.30 (Promoting prostitution in the second degree), § 230.32 (Promoting prostitution in the first degree), § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 263.10 (Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child), or § 263.15 (Promoting a sexual performance by a child).

“Pattern of criminal activity” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 460.10(4) as conduct engaged in by persons charged in an enterprise corruption count constituting three or more criminal acts that:

- (a) were committed within ten years of the commencement of the criminal action;
- (b) are neither isolated incidents, nor so closely related and connected in point of time or circumstance of commission as to constitute a criminal offense or criminal transaction, as those terms are defined in section 40.10 of the criminal procedure law; and
- (c) are either: (i) related to one another through a common scheme or plan or (ii) were committed, solicited, requested, importuned or intentionally aided by persons acting with the mental culpability required for the commission thereof and associated with or in the criminal enterprise.

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 460.20 is punishable as a Class B felony by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 460.20, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1).

Those convicted of racketeering may be subject to additional financial penalties including enhanced fines and asset forfeiture. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law §460.30 (Enterprise corruption; forfeiture), “[a]ny person convicted of a violation of section 460.20 of this article through which he derived pecuniary value, or by which he caused personal injury or property damage or other loss, may be sentenced to pay a fine not in excess of three times the gross value he gained or three times the gross loss he caused, whichever is greater. Moneys so collected shall be paid as restitution to victims of the crime for medical expenses actually incurred, loss of earnings or property loss or damage caused thereby. Any excess after restitution shall be paid to the state treasury.”

Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 460.30(1) (Enterprise corruption; forfeiture),

Any person convicted of enterprise corruption may be required pursuant to this section to criminally forfeit to the state:

- (a) any interest in, security of, claim against or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over any enterprise whose affairs he has controlled or in which he has participated in violation of subdivision one of section 460.20 [Enterprise corruption] of this article and for which he was convicted and the use of which interest, security, claim or right by him contributed directly and materially to the crime for which he was convicted unless such forfeiture is disproportionate to the defendant's gain from his association or employment with the enterprise, in which event the jury may recommend forfeiture of a portion thereof;

(b) any interest, including proceeds, he has acquired or maintained in an enterprise in violation of subdivision one of section 460.20 of this article and for which he was convicted unless such forfeiture is disproportionate to the conduct he engaged in and on which the forfeiture is based, in which event the jury may recommend forfeiture of a portion thereof; or

(c) any interest, including proceeds he has derived from an investment of proceeds in an enterprise in violation of subdivision one of section 460.20 of this article and for which he was convicted unless such forfeiture is disproportionate to the conduct he engaged in and on which the forfeiture is based, in which event the jury may recommend forfeiture of a portion thereof.

Legal Components:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to the buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor.
- 2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.
- 2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate buying sex acts with an adult and buying sex acts with a minor under 18.
- 2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.
- 2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.
- 2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.
- 2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.
- 2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.
- 2.9 Buying and possessing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.
- 2.10 Convicted buyers of commercial sex acts with minors and child pornography are required to register as sex offenders.

Legal Analysis:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to the buyers of commercial sex acts a minor.

N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) does not apply to buyers, as the statute only applies to one who “intentionally advances or profits from prostitution.”

- 2.1.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) to make the statute clearly applicable buyers who purchase commercial sex acts with minors.

- 2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.

Buyers of commercial sex with minors can be prosecuted under New York’s CSEC offenses. In addition, New York’s general solicitation laws contain provisions specific to buyers of commercial sex acts with minors, providing heightened penalties when a buyer purchases sex with a minor under fifteen years.

N.Y. Penal Law § 230.05³⁹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree) states in part, “A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree when, being eighteen years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than fifteen years old.” An offense under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.05 is a class E felony.

Similarly, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06⁴⁰ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree) states in part,

A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree when:

1. He or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than eleven years old; or
2. Being eighteen years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than thirteen years old.

³⁹ See supra note 6.

⁴⁰ See supra note 9.

Furthermore, statutes specific to patronizing minors provide protections for minors under New York’s general solicitation laws. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.11⁴¹ (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree) protects minors under 17 years of age, stating,

[a] person is guilty of aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree when, being twenty-one years old or more, he or she patronizes a person for prostitution and the person patronized is less than seventeen years old and the person guilty of patronizing engages in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct, anal sexual conduct, or aggravated sexual conduct as those terms are defined in section 130.00 of this part with the person patronized.

Persons found to have purchased sex acts with minor less than 15 years of age are further subject to criminalization under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.12⁴² (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the second degree). Lastly, offenders who patronize a child less than 13 years of age are subject to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.13⁴³ (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the first degree).

Additionally, buyers who lure children into engaging in commercial sex acts may be offenders under N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 (Luring a child), which is a class E felony. N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 states,

“A person is guilty of luring a child when he or she lures a child into a motor vehicle, aircraft, watercraft, isolated area, building, or part thereof, for the purpose of committing against such child . . . an offense as defined in section 70.02 [Sentence for imprisonment for a violent felony offense] . . . section 230.30 [Promoting prostitution in the second degree], 230.33 [Compelling prostitution], 230.34 [Sex trafficking]”

However, buyers soliciting minors who are 17 years of age for sex acts are not violators of New York CSEC laws. Therefore, such buyers could only be prosecuted under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04⁴⁴ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree), which states in part, “A person is guilty of patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree when he or she patronizes a person for prostitution.” For persons found guilty of violating N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04, the offense is a Class A misdemeanor.

Lastly, persons attempting to patronize a person for prostitution services may be violators of N.Y. Penal Law § 240.37⁴⁵ (Loitering for the purpose of engaging in a prostitution offense), which criminalizes a person who, “remains or wanders in a public place or repeatedly beckons to, or repeatedly stops, or repeatedly attempts to stop, or repeatedly attempts to stop motor vehicles, or repeatedly interferes with the free passage of other persons, for the purpose of patronizing a person for prostitution as defined in section 230.02 [Patronizing a person for prostitution] of this part.” Loitering for purposes of engaging in prostitution is a Class B misdemeanor if the person has a previous conviction under this section or sections 230.04, 230.05, 230.06, or 230.08.

2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate buying sex acts with an adult and buying sex acts with a minor under 18.

New York's solicitation laws differentiate between buying sex with an adult and buying sex with a minor under the age of 17. A conviction for patronizing a person for prostitution is generally punishable as a Class A misdemeanor by imprisonment up to 1 year and a possible fine not to exceed $1,000. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04⁴⁶, 70.15(1), 80.05(1). If the offender is older than 18 years of age and the victim is a minor under the age of 17, however, patronizing a prostitute is punishable as a Class E felony by imprisonment up to 4 years. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.11⁴⁷ (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree). For buyers who solicit a child under the age of 11, or if the offender is older than 18 years old and the victim is less than 13 years old, the offense is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense by imprisonment for 2–7 years, both with a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 230.06⁴⁸, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). New York’s solicitation laws do not, however, differentiate between buying sex with minors aged 15 or older and adults.

2.3.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law N.Y. Penal Law § 230.11 (Aggravated patronizing a minor for prostitution in the third degree) and § 230.05⁴⁹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree) to raise the age to include all minors under 18, making the crime of buying sex with any minor victim distinct from the crime of buying sex with an adult.

2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06⁵⁰ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree), which applies when the victim is under 11, or when the offender is older than 18 years old and the victim is less than 13 years old, is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.06, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1). A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.05⁵¹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree), which applies when the offender is over 18 and the victim is under 15, is punishable as a Class E felony punishable by imprisonment up to 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). A convicted offender of patronizing a person for prostitution in the first or second degree is also subject to a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain for commission of the felony from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 230.06, 80.00(1).

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04 (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree), which applies when the victim is 14 or older, is punishable as a Class A misdemeanor by up to 1 year imprisonment and a possible fine not to exceed $1,000. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04, 70.15(1), 80.05(1).

Several sexual offense laws could also be used to prosecute certain buyers of commercial sex acts with minors, but they do not specifically criminalize the commercial sexual exploitation of a child, nor do they refer to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking).⁵²

⁴⁶ See supra note 44.

⁴⁷ See supra note 16.

⁴⁸ See supra note 9.

⁴⁹ See supra note 6.

⁵⁰ See supra note 9.

⁵¹ See supra note 9.

⁵² See supra Component 1.2 for a full description of the sexual offense laws that may be used to prosecute certain buyers.

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA)⁵³ for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment however, if the buyer has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense⁵⁴ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). To the extent buyers can be prosecuted under other federal CSEC laws,⁵⁵ a conviction is punishable by penalties ranging from a fine not to exceed $250,000 to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000.⁵⁶

2.4.1 Recommendation: Amend the definition of felony sex offense in N.Y. Penal Law § 70.80 (Sentences of imprisonment for conviction of a felony sex offense) to include all CSEC crimes to reflect the seriousness of these offenses.

2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.

New York does not have a separate crime or enhanced penalties for using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit, or purchase commercial sex. However, buyers using the Internet to purchase commercial sex acts with minors may be prosecuted under N.Y. Penal Law § 235.22 (Disseminating indecent material to minors in the first degree), which is violated when a person

1. knowing the character and content of the communication which, in whole or in part, depicts or describes, either in words or images actual or simulated nudity, sexual conduct or sado-masochistic abuse, and which is harmful to minors, . . . intentionally uses any computer communication system allowing the input, output, examination or transfer, of computer data or computer programs from one computer to another, to initiate or engage in such communication with a person who is a minor; and
2. by means of such communication . . . importunes, invites or induces a minor to engage in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct, or sexual contact with him, or to engage in a sexual performance, obscene sexual performance, or sexual conduct for his benefit.

⁵⁴ Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(2), “federal sex offense” is defined as an offense under section 1591 [18 USCS § 1591] (relating to sex trafficking of children), 2241 [18 USCS § 2241] (relating to aggravated sexual abuse), 2242 [18 USCS § 2242] (relating to sexual abuse), 2244(a)(1) [18 USCS § 2244(a)(1)] (relating to abusive sexual contact), 2245 [18 USCS § 2245] (relating to sexual abuse resulting in death), 2251 [18 USCS § 2251] (relating to sexual exploitation of children), 2251A [18 USCS § 2251A] (relating to selling or buying of children), 2422(b) [18 USCS § 2422(b)] (relating to coercion and enticement of a minor into prostitution), or 2423(a) [18 USCS § 2423(a)] (relating to transportation of minors).

⁵⁶ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 30 years to life and a fine), 2251(e) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 15–30 years and a fine), 2423(a) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 10 years to life and a fine), 2422(a) (conviction punishable by a fine, imprisonment up to 20 years, or both), 2252(b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a)(2) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (a)(4) is punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

For purposes of N.Y. Penal Law § 235.22, “minor” means “any person less than seventeen years old.” N.Y. Penal Law § 235.20 (Disseminating indecent material to minors; definitions of terms). A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 235.22, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). If the offender commits this crime “for the purpose, in whole or substantial part, of his or her own direct sexual gratification,” then the offense is sexually motivated, and a conviction is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.91(1), 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1).

2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.

New York permits a mistake of age defense for two of its prostitution statutes. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.07⁵⁷ (Patronizing a person for prostitution; defense), “In any prosecution for patronizing a person for prostitution in the first or second degrees or patronizing a person for prostitution in a school zone, it is a defense that the defendant did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the person was less than the age specified.”

- 2.6.1 Recommendation: Eliminate the age mistake defense allowed in N.Y. Penal Law § 230.07 (Patronizing a prostitute; defense) and expressly prohibit such a defense in all cases involving minors in § 230.05⁵⁸ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree) and § 230.06⁵⁹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree).

2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.

Penalties for convictions under New York’s solicitation laws, including N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04⁶⁰ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree), § 230.05⁶¹ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree), and § 230.06⁶² (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree), vary based on the age of the victim.

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06, which applies when the victim is under 11, or when the offender is older than 18 years old and the victim is less than 13 years old, is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime amount. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.06, 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1).

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.05, which applies when the offender is over 18 and the minor is under 15, is punishable as a Class E felony by imprisonment up to 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime amount.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).

However, the laws do not differentiate between buying sex with 15–17 year-old minors and adults, and under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04, a conviction when the victim is 15 or older is punishable as a Class A misdemeanor by up to 1 year imprisonment and a possible fine not to exceed $1,000. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04, 70.15(1), 80.05(1).

⁵⁷ The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.07 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of the Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

- 2.7.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05 and 230.06 to raise the age of a minor victim to under 18 to ensure protection under the statute for all minors.
- 2.7.2 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04 through 230.06 to eliminate the staggered penalties for minors and provide a sufficiently high base penalty for all minors under the age of 18 or amend N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04 to provide heightened penalties when the offense involves a minor victim.

2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.

Buyers of commercial sex with minors are subject to various fines, restitution, and asset forfeiture. When the victim is under 15, a conviction under either N.Y. Penal Law § 230.06⁶³ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree) or § 230.05⁶⁴ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree) is punishable as a felony by a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain for commission of the felony from the commission of the crime,” which seems unlikely to apply in cases of buyers. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.05, 230.06, 80.00(1). A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.04⁶⁵ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree), which applies when the minor is 15 or older, is punishable as a Class A misdemeanor by a possible fine not to exceed $1,000. N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.04, 80.05(1).

Where a buyer is convicted of the above counts, the court must consider and may order restitution. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(1) (Restitution and reparation),

In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of an offense,⁶⁶ and after providing the district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitution of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss caused thereby

Pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-bb(c)⁶⁷ (Services for victims of human trafficking),

An individual who is a victim of the conduct prohibited by section 230.33, 230.34, 135.35 or 135.37 of the penal law may bring a civil action against the perpetrator or whoever knowingly advances or profits from, or whoever should have known he or she was advancing or profiting from, an act in violation of section 230.33, 230.34, 135.35 or 135.37 of the penal law to recover damages and reasonable attorney’s fees.

Buyers are also subject to civil, discretionary asset forfeiture. N.Y.C.P.L. §1311(1) (Forfeiture actions) states, in relevant part, ⁶³ See supra note 9.

⁶⁴ See supra note 6.

⁶⁵ See supra note 44.

⁶⁶ “Offense” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(4)(a) as “the offense for which a defendant was convicted, as well as any other offense that is part of the same criminal transaction or that is contained in any other accusatory instrument disposed of by any plea of guilty by the defendant to an offense.”

⁶⁷ The text of N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-bb cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority against a criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime or the real property instrumentality of a crime or to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime.

Pursuant to N.Y.C.P.L. § 1311(1)(a), in proceedings following a conviction, a “court may not grant forfeiture until such conviction has occurred.” A “post-conviction forfeiture crime” means “any felony defined in the penal law or any other chapter of the consolidated laws of the state.” N.Y.C.P.L. § 1310(5).

N.Y. C.P.L. §§ 1320, 1321 and 1323 provide civil levy procedures for personal and real property. Disposal of forfeited property is governed by N.Y. C.P.L. § 1349, which states that “[a]ny judgment or order of forfeiture issued pursuant to this article shall include provisions for the disposal of the property found to have been forfeited.” However, if other provisions of law expressly govern the disposition of the property, that law shall be controlling. N.Y.C.P.L. § 1349(2).

2.9 Buying and possessing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Under N.Y. Penal Law § 263.11 (Possessing an obscene sexual performance by a child), “A person is guilty of possessing an obscene sexual performance⁶⁸ by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he knowingly has in his possession or control, or knowingly accesses with intent to view, any obscene performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than sixteen years of age.”

Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 263.16 (Possessing a sexual performance by a child), “A person is guilty of possessing a sexual performance⁶⁹ by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he knowingly has in his possession or control, or knowingly accesses with intent to view, any performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than sixteen years of age.”

A conviction under either N.Y. Penal Law § 263.11 or § 263.16 is punishable as a Class E felony by imprisonment not to exceed 4 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” NY Penal Law §§ 263.11, 263.16, 70.00(2)(e), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).

In comparison, a federal conviction for possession of child pornography⁷⁰ is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.⁷¹ Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.⁷²

⁶⁸ “Obscene sexual performance” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 263.00(2) as “any performance which . . . includes sexual conduct by a child less than sixteen years of age.”

⁶⁹ See supra note 32 for the definition of “sexual performance.”

⁷¹ 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a)(2) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (a)(4) is punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both), 2252A(b)(1) (a conviction is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a) is “subject to the penalties provided in section 2252A(b)(1),” imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (b) is “subject to the penalties provided in section 2252A(b)(2),” imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

⁷² 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years, but if a person has a prior conviction under

2.9.1 Recommendation: Enact a law that criminalizes the purchasing of child pornography.

2.10 Convicted buyers of commercial sex acts with minors and child pornography are required to register as sex offenders.

Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-f(1) (Duty to register and to verify), “Any sex offender shall, (a) at least ten calendar days prior to discharge, parole, release . . . or, (b) at the time sentence is imposed for any sex offender released on probation or discharged . . . , register with the division on a form prepared by the division.” N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(1) (Definitions) defines “sex offender” as “any person who is convicted of any of the offenses set forth in subdivision two or three of this section,” which includes sex offenses and sexually violent offenses.

Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(2)(a)(i)⁷³ (Definitions), sex offenses relevant to buyers include convictions under: N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 (Luring a child), § 130.25 (Rape in the third degree), § 130.30 (Rape in the second degree), § 130.40 (Criminal sexual act in the third degree), § 130.45 (Criminal sexual act in the second degree) § 263.11 (Possessing an obscene sexual performance by a child), § 263.16 (Possessing a sexual performance by a child), § 230.04⁷⁴ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree, where the minor is under 17), § 230.05⁷⁵ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the third degree), § 230.06⁷⁶ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree), § 230-11⁷⁷ (Aggravated patronizing of a minor in the third degree), § 230-12⁷⁸ (Aggravated patronizing of a minor for prostitution in the second degree), § 230.13⁷⁹ (Aggravated patronizing of a minor for prostitution in the first degree), §230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 230.25⁸⁰ (Promoting or compelling prostitution; accomplice), where the person prostituted is less than 17 years of age, § 235.22 (Disseminating indecent material to minors in the first degree), and § 130.55 (Sexual abuse in the third degree, where the minor is under 18). Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(2)(d)(iii), a sex offense also includes a conviction under any of the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 2251 [Sexual exploitation of children], 18 U.S.C. 2251A [Selling or buying of children], 18 U.S.C. 2252 [Certain activities relating to material involving the sexual exploitation of minors], 18 U.S.C. 2252A [Certain activities relating to material constituting or containing child pornography], 18 U.S.C. 2260 [Production of sexually explicit depictions of a minor for importation into the United States], 18 U.S.C. 2422(b) [Sexual abuse], 18 U.S.C. 2423 [Sexual abuse of a minor or ward], or 18 U.S.C. 2425 [Offenses resulting in death], provided that the elements of such crime of conviction are substantially the same as those which are a part of such offense as of the date on which this subparagraph takes effect.

subsection (a)(4), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 10–20 years), 2252A(b)(1) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that the penalty scheme for section 2252A(b) applies); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

Legal Analysis:

- 3.1 Penalties for trafficking a child for sexual exploitation are as high as federal penalties.

Convictions under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 230.33 (Compelling prostitution), and § 230.32 (Promoting prostitution in the first degree) are all punishable as Class B felonies by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.34, 230.33, 230.32, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1). If the offender committed the offense “for the purpose, in whole or substantial part, of his or her own direct sexual gratification,” a conviction under either N.Y. Penal Law § 230.33 or § 230.32 is punishable as a Class B felony sex offense by imprisonment of 5–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.91(1), 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(i), 80.00(1).

A conviction under either N.Y. Penal Law § 230.30(2) (Promoting prostitution in the second degree) or § 263.05 (Use of a child in a sexual performance) is punishable as a Class C felony by imprisonment of 1–15 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.30, 263.05, 70.00(2)(c), (3)(b), 80.00(1). If the offender commits either of these offenses “for the purpose, in whole or substantial part, of his or her own direct sexual gratification,” then the offense is sexually motivated, and a conviction is punishable as a Class C felony sex offense by imprisonment of 3.5–15 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.91(1), 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(ii).

A conviction under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25(2)⁸¹ (Promoting prostitution in the third degree) is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.25, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA)⁸² for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C.

⁸¹ See supra note 28.

⁸² See supra note 53.

§§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense⁸³ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1).

3.2 Creating and distributing child pornography carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

New York has multiple statutes dealing with creating and distributing child pornography. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 263.05 (Use of a child in a sexual performance),

A person is guilty of the use of a child in a sexual performance⁸⁴ if knowing the character and content thereof he employs, authorizes or induces a child less than seventeen years of age to engage in a sexual performance or being a parent, legal guardian or custodian of such child, he consents to the participation by such child in a sexual performance.

A conviction is punishable as a Class C felony by imprisonment of 1–15 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 263.05, 70.00(2)(c), (3)(b), 80.00(1). If the offender commits this crime “for the purpose, in whole or substantial part, of his or her own direct sexual gratification,” the offense is sexually motivated, and a conviction is punishable as a Class C felony sex offense by imprisonment of 3.5–15 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.91(1), 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(ii), 80.00(1).

Similarly, promoting child pornography is a crime under N.Y. Penal Law § 263.10 (Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child) and § 263.15 (Promoting a sexual performance by a child). Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 263.10, “A person is guilty of promoting⁸⁵ an obscene sexual performance⁸⁶ by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he produces, directs or promotes any obscene performance which includes sexual conduct⁸⁷ by a child less than seventeen years of age.”

Under N.Y. Penal Law § 263.15, “A person is guilty of promoting a sexual performance by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he produces, directs or promotes any performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than seventeen years of age.”

A conviction under either statute is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 263.10, 263.15, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). If the trafficker uses a controlled substance, penalties are heightened. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 263.30 (Facilitating a sexual performance by a child with a controlled substance or alcohol), a person is subject to heightened penalties if he knowingly administers a controlled substance⁸⁸ to a minor under 17 with the minor’s consent for the purpose of committing conduct defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 263.05, § 263.10, or § 263.15 if the person actually commits the conduct or attempts to do so. A conviction is punishable as a Class B felony by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 263.30, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1).

⁸³ See supra note 54 for the definition of “federal sex offense.”

⁸⁴ See supra note 32 for the definition of “sexual performance.”

⁸⁵ N.Y. Penal Law § 263.00(5) states, “‘Promote’ means to procure, manufacture, issue, sell, give, provide, lend, mail, deliver, transfer, transmute, publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit or advertise, or to offer or agree to do the same.”

⁸⁶ See supra note 68.

⁸⁷ See supra note 32.

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense⁸⁹ against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). Additionally, a federal conviction for distribution of child pornography⁹⁰ is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.⁹¹ Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.⁹²

3.3 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit or sell commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for traffickers.

New York does not have a separate crime or enhanced penalties for using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit, or sell commercial sex. Traffickers may, however, be prosecuted under N.Y. Penal Law § 235.22 (Disseminating indecent material to minors in the first degree), which is violated when a person

1. knowing the character and content of the communication which, in whole or in part, depicts or describes, either in words or images actual or simulated nudity, sexual conduct or sado-masochistic abuse, and which is harmful to minors, . . . intentionally uses any computer communication system allowing the input, output, examination or transfer, of computer data or computer programs from one computer to another, to initiate or engage in such communication with a person who is a minor; and
2. by means of such communication . . . importunes, invites or induces a minor to engage in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct, or sexual contact with him, or to engage in a sexual performance, obscene sexual performance, or sexual conduct for his benefit.

A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 235.22, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). If the offender commits this crime “for the purpose, in whole or substantial part, of his or her own direct sexual gratification,” then the offense is sexually motivated, and a conviction is punishable as a Class D felony sex offense by imprisonment of 2–7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 130.91(1), 70.80(1)(a), (4)(a)(iii), 80.00(1).

⁹² 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252(b) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(3) or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 2252A(b)(1) (stating if a person has a prior conviction under subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), or a list of other statutes, a conviction is punishable by a fine and imprisonment for 15–40 years), 1466A(a), (b) (stating that the penalty scheme for section 2252A(b) applies); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

3.4 Financial penalties for traffickers, including asset forfeiture, are sufficiently high.

Financial penalties for traffickers include fines, asset forfeiture, and victim restitution. All applicable felonies are subject to possible fines in an amount not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law § 80.00(1).

Traffickers may also be subject to asset forfeiture. Such proceedings are discretionary and civil in nature. Pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 1311(1) (Forfeiture actions),

A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority against a criminal defendant to recover the property⁹³ which constitutes the proceeds of a crime,⁹⁴ the substituted proceeds of a crime,⁹⁵ an instrumentality of a crime⁹⁶ or the real property instrumentality of a crime or to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime.⁹⁷ A civil action may be commenced against a non-criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime provided, however, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three hereof shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the crime. Any action under this article must be commenced within five years of the commission of the crime and shall be civil, remedial, and in personam in nature and shall not be deemed to be a penalty or criminal forfeiture for any purpose

N.Y.C.P.L. §§1320, 1321 and 1323 provide civil levy procedures for personal and real property. Disposal of forfeited property is governed by N.Y. C.P.L. § 1349, which states that “[a]ny judgment or order of forfeiture issued pursuant to this article shall include provisions for the disposal of the property found to have been forfeited.” However, if other provisions of law expressly govern the disposition of the property, that law shall be controlling. N.Y.C.P.L. § 1349(2).

Additionally, traffickers who produce pornography are subject to mandatory criminal forfeiture of the equipment used. Under N.Y. Penal Law § 410.00(1) (Seizure and forfeiture of equipment used in photographing, filming, producing, manufacturing, projecting or distributing pornographic still or motion pictures),

Any peace officer, acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer of this state may seize any equipment used in the photographing, filming, printing, producing, manufacturing or projecting of pornographic still or motion pictures and may seize any vehicle or other means of transportation, other than a vehicle or other means of transportation used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such common carrier, used in the distribution of such obscene prints and

⁹³ “Property” is defined in N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 1310(1) (Definitions) as “real property, personal property, money, negotiable instruments, securities, or anything of value or any interest in a thing of value.”

⁹⁵ “Substituted proceeds of a crime” is defined in N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 1310(3) as “any property obtained by the sale or exchange of proceeds of a crime, and any gain realized by such sale or exchange.”

⁹⁶ “Instrumentality of a crime” is defined in N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 1310(4) as “any property, other than real property and any buildings, fixtures, appurtenances, and improvements thereon, whose use contributes directly and materially to the commission of a crime defined in subdivisions five and six hereof.”

⁹⁷ “Real property instrumentality of a crime” is defined in N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 1310(4-a) as “an interest in real property the use of which contributes directly and materially to the commission of a specified felony offense.”

articles and such equipment or vehicle or other means of transportation shall be subject to forfeiture

Restitution must be considered by the court and may be available, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(1) (Restitution and reparation), which states,

In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of an offense,⁹⁸ and after providing the district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitution of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss caused thereby

3.5 Convicted traffickers are required to register as sex offenders.

Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-f(1) (Duty to register and to verify), “Any sex offender shall, (a) at least ten calendar days prior to discharge, parole, release . . . or, (b) at the time sentence is imposed for any sex offender released on probation or discharged . . . , register with the division on a form prepared by the division.” N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(1) (Definitions) defines “sex offender” as “any person who is convicted of any of the offenses set forth in subdivision two or three of this section,” which includes sex offenses and sexually violent offenses.

Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(2), sex offenses relevant to traffickers include convictions under N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 (Luring a child), § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 263.05–.16 (Crimes involving a sexual performance by a child), § 230.30(2) (Promoting prostitution in the second degree), § 230.32 (Promoting prostitution in the first degree), § 230.33 (Compelling prostitution), or § 235.22 (Disseminating indecent material to minors in the first degree). Pursuant to N.Y. Correct. Law § 168-a(2)(d)(iii), a sex offense also includes a conviction under any of the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 2251 [Sexual exploitation of children], 18 U.S.C. 2251A [Selling or buying of children], 18 U.S.C. 2252 [Certain activities relating to material involving the sexual exploitation of minors], 18 U.S.C. 2252A [Certain activities relating to material constituting or containing child pornography], 18 U.S.C. 2260 [Production of sexually explicit depictions of a minor for importation into the United States], 18 U.S.C. 2422(b) [Sexual abuse], 18 U.S.C. 2423 [Sexual abuse of a minor or ward], or 18 U.S.C. 2425 [Offenses resulting in death], provided that the elements of such crime of conviction are substantially the same as those which are a part of such offense as of the date on which this subparagraph takes effect.

3.6 Laws relating to termination of parental rights for certain offenses include sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses in order to remove the children of traffickers from their control.

New York will terminate parental rights only for certain crimes and convictions. CSEC crimes are not expressly listed as grounds for termination of parental rights. However, pursuant to NY Soc. Serv. Law § 384-b(4)(e),

An order committing the guardianship and custody of a child pursuant to this section shall be granted only upon one or more of the following grounds:

⁹⁸ “Offense” is defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(4)(a) as “the offense for which a defendant was convicted, as well as any other offense that is part of the same criminal transaction or that is contained in any other accusatory instrument disposed of by any plea of guilty by the defendant to an offense.”

(e) The parent or parents, whose consent to the adoption of the child would otherwise be required in accordance with section one hundred eleven of the domestic relations law, severely or repeatedly abused such child. Where a court has determined that reasonable efforts to reunite the child with his or her parent are not required, pursuant to the family court act or this chapter, a petition to terminate parental rights on the ground of severe abuse as set forth in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of this section may be filed immediately upon such determination.

Under NY Soc. Serv. Law § 384-b(8)(a),

(a) For the purposes of this section a child is “severely abused” by his or her parent if

(ii) the child has been found to be an abused child, as defined in paragraph (iii) of subdivision (e) of section ten hundred twelve of the family court act, as a result of such parent’s acts; provided, however, the respondent must have committed or knowingly allowed to be committed a felony sex offense as defined in sections 130.25, 130.30, 130.35, 130.40, 130.45, 130.50, 130.65, 130.67, 130.70, 130.75 and 130.80 of the penal law and, for the purposes of this section the corroboration requirements contained in the penal law shall not apply to proceedings under this section; or

(iii) (A) the parent of such child has been convicted of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27, murder in the second degree as defined in section 125.25, manslaughter in the first degree as defined in section 125.20, or manslaughter in the second degree as defined in section 125.15, and the victim of any such crime was another child of the parent or another child for whose care such parent is or has been legally responsible as defined in subdivision (g) of section one thousand twelve of the family court act, or another parent of the child, unless the convicted parent was a victim of physical, sexual or psychological abuse by the decedent parent and such abuse was a factor in causing the homicide; or has been convicted of an attempt to commit any of the foregoing crimes, and the victim or intended victim was the child or another child of the parent or another child for whose care such parent is or has been legally responsible as defined in subdivision (g) of section one thousand twelve of the family court act, or another parent of the child, unless the convicted parent was a victim of physical, sexual or psychological abuse by the decedent parent and such abuse was a factor in causing the attempted homicide;

(B) the parent of such child has been convicted of criminal solicitation as defined in article one hundred, conspiracy as defined in article one hundred five or criminal facilitation as defined in article one hundred fifteen of the penal law for conspiring, soliciting or facilitating any of the foregoing crimes, and the victim or intended victim was the child or another child of the parent or another child for whose care such parent is or has been legally responsible;

(C) the parent of such child has been convicted of assault in the second degree as defined in section 120.05, assault in the first degree as defined in section 120.10 or aggravated assault upon a person less than eleven years old as defined in section 120.12 of the penal law, and the victim of any such crime was the child or another child of the parent or another child for whose care such parent is or has been legally responsible; or has been convicted of an attempt to commit any of the foregoing crimes, and the victim or intended victim was the child or another child of the parent or another child for whose care such parent is or has been legally responsible; or

(D) the parent of such child has been convicted under the law in any other jurisdiction of an offense which includes all of the essential elements of any crime specified in clause (A), (B) or (C) of this subparagraph; and

(iv) the agency has made diligent efforts to encourage and strengthen the parental relationship, including efforts to rehabilitate the respondent, when such efforts will not be detrimental to the best interests of the child, and such efforts have been unsuccessful and are unlikely to be successful in the foreseeable future. Where a court has previously determined in accordance with this chapter or the family court act that reasonable efforts to make it possible for the child to return safely to his or her home are not required, the agency shall not be required to demonstrate diligent efforts as set forth in this section.

Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(e)(iii),

“Abused child” means a child less than eighteen years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his care

(iii) commits, or allows to be committed an offense against such child defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law; allows, permits or encourages such child to engage in any act described in sections 230.25 [Promoting prostitution in the third degree], 230.30 [Promoting prostitution in the second degree] and 230.32 [Promoting prostitution in the first degree] of the penal law; . . . or allows such child to engage in acts or conduct described in article two hundred sixty-three [Sexual performance by a child] of the penal law provided, however, that (a) the corroboration requirements contained in the penal law and (b) the age requirement for the application of article two hundred sixty-three of such law shall not apply to proceedings under this article.

- 3.6.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 384-b(8) to include convictions under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) when the victim is a minor as grounds for termination of parental rights.

Legal Components:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.
- 4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.
- 4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.
- 4.4 Promoting and selling child pornography is illegal.

Legal Analysis:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.

It is unlikely that N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) could apply to a facilitator and only applies when one “intentionally advances⁹⁹ or profits¹⁰⁰ from prostitution by” various means of force, fraud, or coercion.¹⁰¹ A conviction is punishable as a Class B felony by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.34, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1).

However, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.40¹⁰² (Permitting prostitution), a facilitator could be guilty of permitting prostitution if, “having possession or control of premises or vehicle which he or she knows are being used for prostitution purposes or for the purpose of advancing prostitution, he or she fails to make reasonable effort to halt or abate such use.”

Additionally, a facilitator could commit the offenses of promoting prostitution through advancing or profiting from prostitution. A conviction for promoting prostitution of a minor under 19, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25(2), is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.25, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1). A conviction for promoting prostitution of a minor under 18 years of age, under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.30(2), is punishable as a Class C felony by imprisonment of 1–15 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.30, 70.00(2)(c), (3)(b), 80.00(1). A conviction for promoting prostitution of a minor under 13 years of age, or for promoting prostitution of a minor less than 15 years old when the offender is 21 years old or more, under N.Y. Penal Law § 230.32¹⁰³, is punishable as a Class B felony by imprisonment of 1–25 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.32, 70.00(2)(b), (3)(b), 80.00(1).

¹⁰³ See supra note 30.

4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.

All applicable felonies are subject to fines in an amount not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law § 80.00(1).

Pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-bb(c)¹⁰⁴ (Services for victims of human trafficking),

An individual who is a victim of the conduct prohibited by section 230.33, 230.34, 135.35 or 135.37 of the penal law may bring a civil action against the perpetrator or whoever knowingly advances or profits from, or whoever should have known he or she was advancing or profiting from, an act in violation of section 230.33, 230.34, 135.35 or 135.37 of the penal law to recover damages and reasonable attorney’s fees.

Facilitators are also subject to civil discretionary asset forfeiture. Pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 1311(1) (Forfeiture actions),

A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority against a criminal defendant to recover the property¹⁰⁵ which constitutes the proceeds of a crime,¹⁰⁶ the substituted proceeds of a crime,¹⁰⁷ an instrumentality of a crime¹⁰⁸ or the real property instrumentality of a crime or to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime.¹⁰⁹ A civil action may be commenced against a non-criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime provided, however, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three hereof shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the crime. Any action under this article must be commenced within five years of the commission of the crime and shall be civil, remedial, and in personam in nature and shall not be deemed to be a penalty or criminal forfeiture for any purpose

N.Y. C.P.L. §§1320, 1321 and 1323 provide civil levy procedures for personal and real property. Disposal of forfeited property is governed by N.Y. C.P.L. § 1349, which states that “[a]ny judgment or order of forfeiture issued pursuant to this article shall include provisions for the disposal of the property found to have been forfeited.” However, if other provisions of law expressly govern the disposition of the property, that law shall be controlling. N.Y.C.P.L. § 1349(2).

Additionally, facilitators may be subject to mandatory criminal asset forfeiture of any equipment used to produce pornography. Under N.Y. Penal Law § 410.00(1) (Seizure and forfeiture of equipment used in photographing, filming, producing, manufacturing, projecting or distributing pornographic still or motion pictures),

Any peace officer, acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer of this state may seize any equipment used in the photographing, filming, printing, producing, manufacturing or projecting of pornographic still or motion pictures and may seize any vehicle or other means of transportation, other than a vehicle or other means of transportation used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such common carrier, used in the distribution of such obscene prints and articles and such equipment or vehicle or other means of transportation shall be subject to forfeiture

¹⁰⁷ See supra note 95 for the definition of “substituted proceeds of a crime.”

¹⁰⁸ See supra note 96 for the definition of “instrumentality of a crime.”

¹⁰⁹ See supra note 97 for the definition of “real property instrumentality of a crime.”

Restitution must be considered by the court and may be available to victims, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(1) (Restitution and reparation), which states,

In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of an offense,¹¹⁰ and after providing the district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitution of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss caused thereby

4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.

N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25(1)¹¹¹ (Promoting prostitution in the third degree) includes sex tourism, stating,

A person is guilty of promoting prostitution in the third degree when he or she knowingly:

Advances or profits from prostitution by managing, supervising, controlling or owning, either alone or in association with others, a house of prostitution or a prostitution business or enterprise involving prostitution activity by two or more persons in prostitution, or a business that sells travel-related services knowing that such services include or are intended to facilitate travel for the purpose of patronizing a person for prostitution, including to a foreign jurisdiction and regardless of the legality of prostitution in said foreign jurisdiction

A conviction is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 230.25, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1).

4.3.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 230.25(1) (Promoting prostitution in the third degree) to specifically prohibit selling or offering to sell travel services that include or facilitate travel for the purpose of engaging in commercial sexual exploitation of a minor or prostitution of a minor, if occurring in New York.

4.4 Promoting and selling child pornography is illegal.

Promoting child pornography is a crime under N.Y. Penal Law § 263.10 (Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child) and § 263.15 (Promoting a sexual performance by a child). Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 263.10, “A person is guilty of promoting¹¹² an obscene sexual performance¹¹³ by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he produces, directs or promotes any obscene performance which includes sexual conduct¹¹⁴ by a child less than seventeen years of age.”

Under N.Y. Penal Law § 263.15, “A person is guilty of promoting a sexual performance by a child when, knowing the character and content thereof, he produces, directs or promotes any performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than seventeen years of age.”

¹¹⁰ See supra note 98 for the definition of “offense.”

¹¹¹ See supra note 28.

¹¹² See supra note 85.

¹¹³ See supra note 68.

¹¹⁴ See supra note 32.

A conviction under either statute is punishable as a Class D felony by imprisonment not to exceed 7 years and a possible fine not to exceed the greater of $5,000 or “double the amount of the defendant’s gain from the commission of the crime.” N.Y. Penal Law §§ 263.10, 263.15, 70.00(2)(d), (3)(b), (4), 80.00(1)

- 4.4.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 263.10 (Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child) and § 263.15 (Promoting a sexual performance by a child) to increase the penalty to reflect the seriousness of the offense.

Legal Components:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.
- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.
- 5.3 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.
- 5.4 State law provides a non-punitive avenue to specialized services through one or more points of entry.
- 5.5 Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.
- 5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.
- 5.7 Crime victims’ compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or CSEC.
- 5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.
- 5.9 Expungement or sealing of juvenile delinquency records resulting from arrests or adjudications for prostitution-related offenses committed as a result of, or in the course of, the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor is available within a reasonable time after turning 18.
- 5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.
- 5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened sufficiently to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Legal Analysis:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.¹¹⁵

Not all commercially sexually exploited children are identifiable as child sex trafficking victims under New York’s core sex trafficking offence. Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), the means of force, fraud, or coercion are required regardless of the minor’s status as a child. Additionally, N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) does not apply to buyers; thus, purchasing sex with a minor does not constitute a human trafficking offense. Lastly, a trafficker or third party must be identified for a sexually exploited child to be identified as a victim of sex trafficking. Resultantly, not all commercially sexually exploited children are victims of sex trafficking under New York state law.

- 5.1.1 Recommendation: Amend the definition of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) so that all commercially sexually exploited children are identifiable as victims and eligible for protections pursuant to their victim status.

- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.

New York’s sex trafficking statute does not prohibit a defense to prosecution based on the willingness of a minor to engage in the commercial sex act.

- 5.2.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 230.05¹¹⁶ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the second degree), § 230.06¹¹⁷ (Patronizing a person for prostitution in the first degree), § 230.25(2) (Promoting prostitution in the third degree), § 230.30(2) (Promoting prostitution in the second degree), § 230.32 (Promoting prostitution in the first degree), § 230.33 (Compelling prostitution), and § 263.05 (Use of a child in a sexual performance) to expressly prohibit a defense based upon the victim's willingness to engage in the commercial sex act.

5.3 *State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.*¹¹⁸

Prostitution laws apply to both adults and minors, specifying no difference in the crime based on age. Neither N.Y. Penal Law § 230.00 (Prostitution) nor § 240.37 (Loitering for the purpose of prostitution) protect minors from prosecution for prostitution-related offenses.

However, upon an arrest for prostitution, there is a presumption that a minor under the age of 16 is a victim, and upon first arrest for such an offense, should receive services, if cooperative. Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) (Substitution of petition or finding),

In any proceeding under this article [Juvenile delinquency] based upon an arrest for an act of prostitution, there is a presumption that the respondent meets the criteria as a victim of a severe form of trafficking as defined in section 7105 of title 22 of the United States Code (Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000). Upon the motion of the respondent, without the consent of the presentment agency, a petition alleging that the respondent is in need of supervision shall be substituted for the delinquency petition. If, however, the respondent has been previously adjudicated as a juvenile delinquent under this article for an act which would be a crime pursuant to article two hundred thirty [Prostitution offenses] of the penal law, if the respondent was an adult, or expresses a current unwillingness to cooperate with specialized services for sexually exploited youth, continuing with the delinquency proceeding shall be within the court's discretion

A separate process allows 16 and 17 year old juvenile sex trafficking victims, who are otherwise subject to the adult criminal justice process, to avoid a criminal proceeding and possible conviction for prostitution offenses. N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80 (Proceedings regarding certain prostitution charges; certain persons aged sixteen or seventeen) states,

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at any time at or after arraignment on a charge of prostitution pursuant to section 230.00 of the penal law or loitering for the purposes of prostitution pursuant to subdivision two of section 240.37 of the penal law, provided that the person does not stand charged with loitering for the purpose of patronizing a prostitute, where such offense allegedly occurred when the person was sixteen or seventeen years of age except where, after consultation with counsel, a knowing and voluntary plea of guilty has been entered to such charge, any judge or justice hearing any stage of such case may, upon consent of the defendant after consultation with counsel:

(a) conditionally convert such charge in accordance with subdivision three of this section and retain it as a person in need of supervision proceeding for all purposes, and shall make such proceeding fully subject to the provisions and grant any relief available under article seven of the family court act; and/or

(b) order the provision of any of the specialized services enumerated in title eight-A of article six of the social services law, as may be reasonably available.

¹¹⁶ See supra note 6.

¹¹⁷ See supra note 9.

¹¹⁸ For more information regarding recent federal legislation impacting this component see: <http://go.sharedhope.org/stateimpactmemo>.

2. In the event of a conviction by plea or verdict to such charge or charges of prostitution or loitering for the purposes of prostitution as described in subdivision one of this section, the court must find that the person is a youthful offender for the purpose of such charge and proceed in accordance with article seven hundred twenty of this chapter

3. (a) When a charge of prostitution or loitering for the purposes of prostitution has been conditionally converted to a person in need of supervision proceeding pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the defendant shall be deemed a “sexually exploited child” as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law and therefore shall not be considered an adult for purposes related to the charges in the person in need of supervision proceeding. Sections seven hundred eighty-one, seven hundred eighty-two, seven hundred eighty-two-a, seven hundred eighty-three and seven hundred eighty-four of the family court act shall apply to any proceeding conditionally converted under this section.

(b) The court after hearing from the parties shall state the condition or conditions of such conversion, which may include the individual's participation in specialized services provided pursuant to title eight-A of article six of the social services law and other appropriate services available to persons in need of supervision in accordance with article seven of the family court act.

Additionally, N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.30(4) (Motion to dismiss information, simplified information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint) provides,

After arraignment upon an information, a simplified information, a prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint on a charge of prostitution pursuant to section 230.00 of the penal law or loitering for the purposes of prostitution pursuant to subdivision two of section 240.37 of the penal law, provided that the person does not stand charged with loitering for the purpose of patronizing a prostitute, where such offense allegedly occurred when the person was sixteen or seventeen years of age, the local criminal court may dismiss such charge in its discretion in the interest of justice on the ground that a defendant participated in services provided to him or her.

Furthermore, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 230.0 (Prostitution; affirmative defense), an affirmative defense is available for sex trafficking victims. N.Y. Penal Law § 230.01 states, “[i]n any prosecution under section 230.00, section 230.03 or subdivision two of section 240.37 of this part, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant’s participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of compelling prostitution under section 230.33, a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of this article or a victim of trafficking in persons under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (United States Code, Title 22, Chapter 78).”

5.3.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 230.00 (Prostitution) and § 240.37 (Loitering for the purpose of prostitution) to eliminate criminal liability for these offenses for minors under 18 years of age.

5.4 State law provides a non-punitive avenue to specialized services through one or more points of entry.

Child Welfare Service Responsive Analysis

Referral/Screening

New York state law does not statutorily mandate child welfare services to screen and subsequently provide specialized services to child victims of sexual exploitation or trafficking. However, an administrative directive¹¹⁹ authored and disseminated by New York’s Office of Child and Family Services (OCFS), requires mandatory and automatic screening of all children within OCFS care who are “determined to be a child sex trafficking victim or at risk of being a sex trafficking victim,” to determine active involvement with commercial sex or for a history of commercial sexual exploitation. 15-OCFS-ADM-16.¹²⁰

However, for children not already in the OCFS system, a sexually exploited child may be identified as “abused child” under N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(e)(iii),¹²¹ thus allowing a child to fall within the care of OCFS and receive screening and specialized services for sexual exploitation and human trafficking. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(e)(iii) defines “abused child” as, “a child less than eighteen years of age whose parent or person legally responsible for his care

(iii) commits, or allows to be committed an offense against such child defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law; allows, permits, or encourages such child to engage in any act described in sections 230.25 [Promoting prostitution in the third degree], 230.30 [Promoting prostitution in the second degree] and 230.32 [Promoting prostitution in the first degree] of the penal law; . . . or allows such child to engage in acts or conduct described in article two hundred sixty-three [Sexual performance by a child] of the penal law provided, however, that (a) the corroboration requirements contained in the penal law and (b) the age requirement for the application of article two hundred sixty-three of such law shall not apply to proceedings under this article.

Assessment

- I. Child welfare shall assess through an implementation tool to determine what services are appropriate and necessary.

In addition to provisions focusing on sexually exploited youth, a domestic minor sex trafficking victim may receive services pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-bb (Services for victims of human trafficking),¹²² which states,

- (a) The office of temporary and disability assistance may coordinate with and assist law enforcement agencies and district attorney’s offices to access appropriate services for human trafficking victims.¹²³
- (b) In providing such assistance, the office of temporary and disability assistance may enter into contracts with non-government organizations for providing services to pre-certified victims of human trafficking¹²⁴ as defined in subdivision (b) of section four hundred eighty-three-aa of this article, insofar as funds are available for that purpose. Such services may include, but are not limited to, case management, emergency temporary housing, health care, mental health

¹²⁰ Pursuant to 15-OCFS-16, OCFS’ initial and mandated screening serves as a means of identifying child trafficking victims or those at risk of trafficking, as well as identifying “crisis needs and longer-term needs to assist in stabilizing the child and preventing re-victimization.” Additionally, following the identification of a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation, all local department of social services or voluntary authorize agency staff are required to report such findings to local law enforcement agencies and provide appropriate services.

¹²¹ See infra section 5.5 for a full analysis of the definition of “abuse” as it relates to identification of sexually exploited children.

¹²² This provision was scheduled for repeal on September 1, 2013.

¹²⁴ “Pre-certified victim of human trafficking” is defined in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-aa(b) as “a person who has a pending application for federal certification as a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons as defined in section 7105 of title 22 of the United States Code (Trafficking Victims Protection) but has not yet obtained such certification, or a person who has reported a crime to law enforcement and it reasonably appears to law enforcement that the person is such a victim.”

counseling, drug addiction screening and treatment, language interpretation and translation services, English language instruction, job training and placement assistance, post-employment services for job retention, and services to assist the individual and any of his or her family members to establish a permanent residence in New York state or the United States. Nothing in this section shall preclude the office of temporary and disability assistance, or any local social services district, from providing human trafficking victims who are United States citizens or human trafficking victims who meet the criteria pursuant to section one hundred twenty-two of this chapter with any benefits or services for which they otherwise may be eligible.

Services

New York provides a variety of victim services specifically for sexually exploited children and victims of human trafficking. If the child enters the child protective proceedings as an abused child,¹²⁵ the child may receive one of several different placements. Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1052 (Disposition on adjudication), after a dispositional hearing, the court may, among other things, find alternative placement for the child in accordance with N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1055 (Placement), which states that the court may place the child with a “relative or other suitable person,”¹²⁶ with the local commissioner of social services, or with a suitable authorized association or agency.

Furthermore, under the “Safe Harbour for Exploited Children Act,”¹²⁷ New York establishes some specialized services for domestic minor sex trafficking victims and sexually exploited children,¹²⁸ including placing such children in safe houses with specialized advocates trained to work with sexually exploited children and providing necessary services such as “housing, assessment, case management, medical care, legal, mental health and substance and alcohol abuse services,” and “[w]here appropriate . . . counseling and therapeutic services, educational services including life skills services and planning services to successfully transition residents back to the community.” N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §§ 447-a(4), 447-b(1).

Pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-b(1) (Services for exploited children),

1. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, pursuant to regulations of the office of children and family services, every local social services district shall as a component of the district's multi-year consolidated services child welfare services plan address the child welfare services needs of sexually exploited children and to the extent that funds are available specifically therefor ensure that a short-term safe house¹²⁹ or another short-term safe placement¹³⁰ such as an

¹²⁵ See infra Section 5.6 for the definition of “abused child.”

¹²⁶ In order for a relative or other suitable person who seeks to become a foster parent to gain custody of the child, the local commissioner of social services must investigate the person’s home within 24 hours to ensure that the person is qualified. If not, the commissioner must report this to the court so that it may order alternative placement. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1055(a)(i).

¹²⁷ N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §§ 447-a to -b.

¹²⁸ See supra Section 5.1 for the definition of “sexually exploited child.”

¹²⁹ “Short-term safe house” is defined in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-a(2) as “a residential facility . . . that provides emergency shelter, services and care to sexually exploited children including food, shelter, clothing, medical care, counseling and appropriate crisis intervention services at the time they are taken into custody by law enforcement and for the duration of any legal proceeding or proceedings in which they are either the complaining witness or the subject child.”

¹³⁰ N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-b(5) states in part,

To the extent funds are specifically appropriated therefore, the office of children and family services shall contract with an appropriate not-for-profit agency with experience working with sexually exploited children to operate at least one long-term safe house . . . which shall provide safe and secure long term housing and specialized services for sexually exploited children throughout the state . . .

approved runaway and homeless youth program,¹³¹ approved respite or crisis program providing crisis intervention or respite services or community-based program to serve sexually exploited children is available to children residing in such district

Existing youth programs may also be utilized for this purpose, so long as the staff has received training on child sexual exploitation. N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-b(1).

Juvenile Justice Service Response Analysis

Referral/Screening

A juvenile sex trafficking victim who is arrested for prostitution may be identified as a person in need of services (PINS) and, resultantly, receive specialized services following the filing of a petition and the court's approval. However, a child seeking diversion from a delinquency process into a PINS process faces various hurdles. A child is identifiable as a "person in need of supervision" when the child is "less than eighteen years of age who . . . appears to be a sexually exploited child"; however, such a determination requires consent of the child to file a petition for the determination to be made. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 732(a)–(b) (Originating proceeding to adjudicate need for supervision).

N.Y. Fam Ct. Act § 732(a)–(b) states,

A proceeding to adjudicate a person to be in need of supervision is originated by the filing of a petition, alleging:

- (a) (i) the respondent . . . has been the victim of sexual exploitation as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law,¹³² and specifying the acts on which the allegations are based and the time and place they allegedly occurred
- (ii) the respondent was under eighteen years of age at the time of the specified acts;
- (iii) the respondent requires supervision or treatment; and
- (iv) the petitioner has complied with the provisions of section seven hundred thirty-five of this article [Preliminary procedure; diversion services]; or
- (b) the respondent appears to be a sexually exploited child as defined in paragraph (a), (c) or (d) of subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law but only if the child consents to the filing of a petition under this article.

In addition to the requirement that a child consents to the filing of the PINS petition under N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 732(a)–(b), pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) (Substitution for petition or finding), a substitution of the petition requires that the child make a motion on their own behalf. Furthermore, N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) prohibits a delinquency petition from being substituted for a PINS petition when a child has previous prostitution offenses or for children who do cooperate with specialized services. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) states in parts,

In any proceeding under this article [Juvenile delinquency] based upon an arrest for an act of prostitution, there is a presumption that the respondent meets the criteria as a victim of a severe form of trafficking as defined in section 7105 of title 22 of the United States Code (Trafficking

¹³¹ "Approved runaway program" is defined in N.Y. Exec. Law § 532-a(4) (Definitions) in part as a program "established and operated to provide services to runaway and homeless youth in accordance with the regulations of the office of temporary and disability assistance and the office of children and family services. Such programs may also provide non-residential crisis intervention and residential respite services . . ." Residential facilities for homeless or runaway youth that operate as "transitional independent living support programs" are directed to provide shelter, assist in the provision of necessities, and "provide practical assistance in achieving independence." N.Y. Exec. Law § 532-d.

Victims Protection Act of 2000). Upon the motion of the respondent, without the consent of the presentment agency, a petition alleging that the respondent is in need of supervision shall be substituted for the delinquency petition. If, however, the respondent has been previously adjudicated as a juvenile delinquent under this article for an act which would be a crime pursuant to article two hundred thirty [Prostitution offenses] of the penal law, if the respondent was an adult, or expresses a current unwillingness to cooperate with specialized services for sexually exploited youth, continuing with the delinquency proceeding shall be within the court's discretion

Furthermore, under N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80 (Proceedings regarding certain prostitution charges; certain teenagers), in order for older minors arrested for a prostitution offense to be directed away from criminal prosecution and into PINS proceedings, the minor must comply with mandatory services. If a minor does not comply with services or enters a voluntary plea of guilty to the original prostitution charge, the minor is considered a "youthful offender" for purposes of youthful offender proceedings. N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80(2). N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80 provides,

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at any time at or after arraignment on a charge of prostitution pursuant to section 230.00 of the penal law or loitering for the purposes of prostitution pursuant to subdivision two of section 240.37 of the penal law . . . where such offense allegedly occurred when the person was sixteen or seventeen years of age except where, after consultation with counsel, a knowing and voluntary plea of guilty has been entered to such charge, any judge or justice hearing any stage of such case may, upon consent of the defendant after consultation with counsel:

(a) conditionally convert such charge in accordance with subdivision three of this section and retain it as a person in need of supervision proceeding for all purposes, and shall make such proceeding fully subject to the provisions and grant any relief available under article seven of the family court act; and/or

(b) order the provision of any of the specialized services enumerated in title eight-A of article six of the social services law, as may be reasonably available.

(2) In the event of a conviction by plea or verdict to such charge or charges of prostitution or loitering for the purposes of prostitution as described in subdivision one of this section, the court must find that the person is a youthful offender for the purpose of such charge and proceed in accordance with article seven hundred twenty of this chapter, provided, however, that the available sentence shall be the sentence that may be imposed for a violation as defined in subdivision three of section 10.00 of the penal law

(3)(a) When a charge of prostitution or loitering for the purposes of prostitution has been conditionally converted to a person in need of supervision proceeding pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the defendant shall be deemed a "sexually exploited child" as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law and therefore shall not be considered an adult for purposes related to the charges in the person in need of supervision proceeding. Sections seven hundred eighty-one, seven hundred eighty-two, seven hundred eighty-two-a, seven hundred eighty-three and seven hundred eighty-four of the family court act shall apply to any proceeding conditionally converted under this section.

(b) The court after hearing from the parties shall state the condition or conditions of such conversion, which may include the individual's participation in specialized services provided pursuant to title eight-A of article six of the social services law and other appropriate services available to persons in need of supervision in accordance with article seven of the family court act.

(c) (i) The court may, upon written application by the people at any time during the pendency of the person in need of supervision proceeding or during any disposition thereof, but in no event later than the individual's eighteenth birthday, restore the accusatory instrument if the court is satisfied by competent proof that the individual, without just cause, is not in substantial compliance with the condition or conditions of the conversion.

(ii) Notice of such an application to restore an accusatory instrument shall be served on the person and his or her counsel by the court. The notice shall include a statement setting forth a reasonable description of why the person is not in substantial compliance with the condition or conditions of the conversion and a date upon which such person shall appear before the court. The court shall afford the person the right to counsel and the right to be heard. Upon such appearance, the court must advise the person of the contents of the notice and the consequences of a finding of failure to substantially comply with the conditions of conversion. At the time of such appearance the court must ask the person whether he or she wishes to make any statement with respect to such alleged failure to substantially comply. In determining whether such person has failed to substantially comply with the terms of the conversion, the court shall conduct a hearing at which time such person may cross-examine witnesses and present evidence on his or her own behalf. Any findings the court shall make, shall be made on the court record. If the court finds that such person did not substantially comply, it may restore the accusatory instrument pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, modify the terms of conversion in accordance with this section or otherwise continue such terms as in its discretion it deems just and proper.

(iii) If such accusatory instrument is restored pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the proceeding shall continue in accordance with subdivision two of this section. If the individual does not comply with services or does not return to court, the individual shall be returned in accordance with the provisions of article seven of the family court act.

In addition, there may be a variety of responses with the PINS process depending on the age of the child. If a determination is made under N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 732(a)–(b) that the child is indeed in need of supervision, the child may be directed into the “person in need of supervision” process if the minor is 16 or 17 years old under N.Y. Criminal Procedural Law § 170.80 (Proceedings) or under N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) (Substitution of petition or finding) if the minor is less than 16 years of age.

If the minor is adjudicated in need of supervision, the minor may be discharged with a warning, have the judgment suspended, placed on probation, placed in his/her home, placed in the custody of a relative, placed in the custody of an “other suitable private person or a commissioner of social services,” or, under certain circumstances, may be ordered to complete an “education reform program.” N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act §§ 754(1), 756(a)(i).

After a criminal procedures probable cause hearing, a fact-finding hearing, and a dispositional hearing, pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 352.2(2) (Order of disposition), the court must “consider the needs and best interests of the respondent as well as the need for protection of the community” and decide whether to, among other things, conditionally discharge the juvenile, place the child on probation, or continue with the proceedings and place the child as specified in N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 353.3 (Placement), which states,

1. In accordance with section 352.2 of this part, the court may place the respondent in his or her own home or in the custody of a suitable relative or other suitable private person or the commissioner of the local social services district or the office of children and family services
2. Where the respondent is placed with the commissioner of the local social services district, the court may
 - (i) In a social services district operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative pursuant to section four hundred four of the social services law [Juvenile justice services close to home initiative] direct the commissioner to provide services necessary to meet the needs of the respondent, provided that such services are authorized or required to be made available pursuant to the approved plan to implement a Juvenile Justice Close to Home Initiative then in effect . . . ; or

(ii) In a social services district that is not operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative . . . , direct the commissioner to place him or her with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies; and if the court finds that the respondent placed with a social services district pursuant to this subdivision is a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law [Safe harbour for exploited children act], the court may place such respondent in an available long-term safe house¹³³

2-A. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law to the contrary, and pursuant to subdivision two of this section in a district operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative . . . :

(A) Beginning on the effective date of the District’s approved plan that only covers juvenile delinquents placed in non-secure settings, the court may only place the respondent:

(I) In the custody of the commissioner of the local social services district for placement in a non-secure level of care; or

(II) In the custody of the commissioner of the Office of Children and Family Services for placement in a limited secure or secure level of care; and

(B) Beginning on the effective date of the district’s approved plan to implement programs for youth placed in limited secure settings, the court may only place the respondent:

(I) In the custody of the commissioner of the local social services district for placement in:

(A) A non-secure level of care;

(B) A limited secure level of care; or

(C) Either a non-secure or limited secure level of care, as determined by such commissioner; or

(II) In the custody of the commissioner of the Officer of Children and Family Services for placement in a secure level of care.

3. Where the respondent is placed with the office of children and family services, the court shall, unless it directs the office to place him or her with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child . . . , authorize the office to do one of the following:

(a) place the respondent in a secure facility without a further hearing at any time or from time to time during the first sixty days of residency in office of children and family services facilities. Notwithstanding the discretion of the office to place the respondent in a secure facility at any time during the first sixty days of residency in a[n] office of children and

a residential facility operated by an authorized agency as defined in subdivision ten of section three hundred seventy-one of this article including a residential facility operating as part of an approved runaway program as defined in subdivision four of section five hundred thirty-two-a of the executive law or a not-for-profit agency with experience in providing services to sexually exploited youth and approved in accordance with the regulations of the office of children and family services that provides shelter for sexually exploited children. A safe house serving sexually exploited children as defined in this title shall provide or assist in securing necessary services for such sexually exploited children either through direct provision of services, or through written agreements with other community and public agencies for the provision of services including but not limited to housing, assessment, case management, medical care, legal, mental health and substance and alcohol abuse services. Where appropriate such safe house in accordance with a service plan for such sexually exploited child may also provide counseling and therapeutic services, educational services including life skills services and planning services to successfully transition residents back to the community

- family services facility, the respondent may be placed in a non-secure facility. In the event that the office desires to transfer a respondent to a secure facility at any time after the first sixty days of residency in office facilities, a hearing shall be held . . . ; or
- (b) place the respondent in a limited secure facility. The respondent may be transferred by the office to a secure facility after a hearing is held . . . ; provided, however, that during the first twenty days of residency in office facilities, the respondent shall not be transferred to a secure facility unless the respondent has committed an act or acts which are exceptionally dangerous to the respondent or to others; or
- (c) place the respondent in a non-secure facility. No respondent placed pursuant to this paragraph may be transferred by the office of children and family services to a secure facility.
4. Where the respondent is placed with the office of children and family services, the court may direct the office to place the respondent with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including, if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child . . . , an available long-term safe house, and in the event the office is unable to so place the respondent or, discontinues the placement with the authorized agency, the respondent shall be deemed to have been placed with the office pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision three of this section

Furthermore, under N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc(a)¹³⁴ (Confirmation as a victim of human trafficking),

- (a) As soon as practicable after a first encounter with a person who reasonably appears to a law enforcement agency, district attorney's office, or an established provider of social or legal services designated by the office of temporary and disability assistance, the office for the prevention of domestic violence or the office of victim services to be a human trafficking victim, that law enforcement agency or district attorney's office shall notify the office of temporary and disability assistance and the division of criminal justice services that such person may be eligible for services under this article or, in the case of an established provider of social or legal services, shall notify the office of temporary and disability assistance and the division of criminal justice services if such victim consents to seeking services pursuant to this article.

After the initial identification as a possible victim, N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc (Confirmation as a victim of human trafficking) requires the division of criminal justice services to initiate an investigation to assess the child's status as a victim. N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc(b) (Confirmation as a victim of human trafficking) states,

- (b) Upon receipt of such a notification, the division of criminal justice services, in consultation with the office of temporary and disability assistance and the referring agency or office, shall make a preliminary assessment of whether such victim or possible victim appears to meet the criteria for certification as a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons as defined in section 7105 of title 22 of the United States Code (Trafficking Victims Protection)¹³⁵ or appears to be ¹³⁴ The text of N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2015 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

¹³⁵ However, reference to the federal definition of "severe forms of trafficking" in 22 U.S.C. § 7105, combined with the term "certification" in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc could prove problematic in application of this presumption. 22 U.S.C § 7105(b)(1)(C), which applies to victims in the U.S., provides a definition of victim of a severe form of trafficking to include a person "subjected to an act or practice" defined in 22 U.S.C. § 7102(8) who is a minor or subject to certification under (E). Subsection (E) requires the person to be willing to assist in the investigation and prosecution of the trafficker and to have made an application for a T visa that has not been denied or be "a person whose continued presence in the United States the Secretary of Homeland Security is ensuring in order to effectuate prosecution of traffickers in persons." Clarification that "certification" is not required by amending N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 483-cc to refer solely to domestic minors as victims of severe forms of trafficking is needed.

otherwise eligible for any federal, state or local benefits and services. If it is determined that the victim appears to meet such criteria, the office of temporary and disability assistance shall report the finding to the victim, and to the referring law enforcement agency or district attorney's office, and may assist that agency or office in having such victim receive services from a case management provider who may be under contract with the office of temporary and disability assistance, or from any other available source. If the victim or possible victim is under the age of eighteen, the office of temporary and disability assistance also shall notify the local department of social services in the county where the child was found.

Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 739 (Release or detention after filing of petition and prior to order of disposition),

- (a) After the filing of a petition under section seven hundred thirty-two of this part, the court in its discretion may release the respondent or direct his or her detention. If the respondent may be a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, the court may direct the respondent to an available short-term safe house as an alternative to detention. However, the court shall not direct detention unless it finds and states the facts and reasons for so finding that unless the respondent is detained there is a substantial probability that the respondent will not appear in court on the return date and all available alternatives to detention have been exhausted.
- (b) Unless the respondent waives a determination that probable cause exists to believe that he is a person in need of supervision, no detention under this section may last more than three days
 - (i) unless the court finds, pursuant to the evidentiary standards applicable to a hearing on a felony complaint in a criminal court, that such probable cause exists, or
 - (ii) unless special circumstances exist, in which cases such detention may be extended not more than an additional three days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.
- (c) Upon a finding of facts and reasons which support a detention order pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, the court shall also determine and state in any order directing detention:
 - (i) whether continuation of the respondent in the respondent's home would be contrary to the best interests of the respondent based upon, and limited to, the facts and circumstance available to the court at the time of the court's determination in accordance with this section; and
 - (ii) where appropriate, whether reasonable efforts were made prior to the date of the court order directing detention in accordance with this section, to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the respondent from his or her home or, if the respondent had been removed from his or her home prior to the court appearance pursuant to this section, where appropriate, whether reasonable efforts were made to make it possible for the respondent to safely return home.

Services

A child identified as a person in need of supervision pursuant to either N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80 or N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 311.4(3) may receive an optional referral to specialized services. Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 720(5)(c) (Detention), a child under the age of 16 years who is suspected of being “a sexually exploited child as defined under subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, the court may direct the respondent to an available short-term safe house as defined in subdivision two of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law as an alternative to detention.”

Additionally, pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 756(a)(ii),

(ii) Where the child is placed with the commissioner of the local social services district, the court may direct the commissioner to place the child with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including, if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, an available long-term safe house

A child taken into custody as a child in need of supervision, pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 720 (Detention), “shall not be directed under any of the provisions of this article,’ but shall be instead placed in a foster care program, a family boarding program, or a non-secure detention facility. In order to be held in detention, the court shall first determine that there “is no substantial likelihood that the youth and his or her family will continue to benefit from diversion services and that all available alternatives to detention have been exhausted,” and if the child is 16 or older, the court must demonstrate the existence of exigent circumstances in order to detain the child. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 720(5). Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 720(5)(c), “If the respondent may be a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law, the court may direct the respondent to an available short-term safe house as defined in subdivision two of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law as an alternative to detention.”

Additionally, for all commercially sexually exploited children who enter the juvenile justice system, following a probable cause hearing, a fact-finding hearing, and a dispositional hearing, the court must “consider the needs and best interests of the respondent as well as the need for protection of the community” when determining where to place the child. N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 352.2(2) (Order of disposition). Under N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 352.2(2) (Order of disposition), a court decides whether to, among other things, conditionally discharge the juvenile, place the child on probation, or continue with the proceedings and place the child as specified in N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 353.3 (Placement), which states,

1. In accordance with section 352.2 of this part, the court may place the respondent in his or her own home or in the custody of a suitable relative or other suitable private person or the commissioner of the local social services district or the office of children and family services
2. Where the respondent is placed with the commissioner of the local social services district, the court may
 - (i) In a social services district operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative pursuant to section four hundred four of the social services law [Juvenile justice services close to home initiative] direct the commissioner to provide services necessary to meet the needs of the respondent, provided that such services are authorized or required to be made available pursuant to the approved plan to implement a Juvenile Justice Close to Home Initiative then in effect . . . ; or
 - (ii) In a social services district that is not operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative . . . , direct the commissioner to place him or her with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies; and if the court finds that the respondent placed with a social services district pursuant to this subdivision is a sexually exploited child as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred forty-seven-a of the social services law [Safe harbour for exploited children act], the court may place such respondent in an available long-term safe house¹³⁶

¹³⁶ “Safe house” is defined in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-a(4) as

a residential facility operated by an authorized agency as defined in subdivision ten of section three hundred seventy-one of this article including a residential facility operating as part of an approved runaway program as defined in subdivision four of section five hundred thirty-two-a of the executive law or a not-for-profit agency with experience in providing services to sexually exploited youth and approved in accordance with the regulations of the office of children and family services that provides shelter for

2-A. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law to the contrary, and pursuant to subdivision two of this section in a district operating an approved Juvenile Justice Services Close to Home Initiative . . . :

(A) Beginning on the effective date of the District’s approved plan that only covers juvenile delinquents placed in non-secure settings, the court may only place the respondent:

(I) In the custody of the commissioner of the local social services district for placement in a non-secure level of care; or

(II) In the custody of the commissioner of the Office of Children and Family Services for placement in a limited secure or secure level of care; and

(B) Beginning on the effective date of the district’s approved plan to implement programs for youth placed in limited secure settings, the court may only place the respondent:

(I) In the custody of the commissioner of the local social services district for placement in:

(A) A non-secure level of care;

(B) A limited secure level of care; or

(C) Either a non-secure or limited secure level of care, as determined by such commissioner; or

(II) In the custody of the commissioner of the Officer of Children and Family Services for placement in a secure level of care.

3. Where the respondent is placed with the office of children and family services, the court shall, unless it directs the office to place him or her with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child . . . , authorize the office to do one of the following:

(a) place the respondent in a secure facility without a further hearing at any time or from time to time during the first sixty days of residency in office of children and family services facilities. Notwithstanding the discretion of the office to place the respondent in a secure facility at any time during the first sixty days of residency in a[n] office of children and family services facility, the respondent may be placed in a non-secure facility. In the event that the office desires to transfer a respondent to a secure facility at any time after the first sixty days of residency in office facilities, a hearing shall be held . . . ; or

(b) place the respondent in a limited secure facility. The respondent may be transferred by the office to a secure facility after a hearing is held . . . ; provided, however, that during the first twenty days of residency in office facilities, the respondent shall not be transferred to a secure facility unless the respondent has committed an act or acts which are exceptionally dangerous to the respondent or to others; or

(c) place the respondent in a non-secure facility. No respondent placed pursuant to this paragraph may be transferred by the office of children and family services to a secure facility.

4. Where the respondent is placed with the office of children and family services, the court may direct the office to place the respondent with an authorized agency or class of authorized agencies, including, if the court finds that the respondent is a sexually exploited child . . . , an available long-term safe house, and in the event the office is unable to so place the respondent or, discontinues the placement with the authorized agency, the respondent shall be deemed to have been placed with the office pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision three of this section sexually exploited children. A safe house serving sexually exploited children as defined in this title shall provide or assist in securing necessary services for such sexually exploited children either through direct provision of services, or through written agreements with other community and public agencies for the provision of services including but not limited to housing, assessment, case management, medical care, legal, mental health and substance and alcohol abuse services. Where appropriate such safe house in accordance with a service plan for such sexually exploited child may also provide counseling and therapeutic services, educational services including life skills services and planning services to successfully transition residents back to the community

Summary

Commercially sexually exploited children may receive specialized services through several, non-punitive avenues; however, New York does have mandatory referral and diversion to specialized services for all children suspected of committing prostitution offenses. While sexually exploited or trafficked children having previously opened cases with the Office of Child and Family Services (OCFS) will receive automatic screening and access to specialized services pursuant to an administrative directive, OCFS is not statutorily required to conduct such screenings and provide access to services. Furthermore, the administrative directive only covers children already within OCFS care and protection.

Additionally, children who enter the juvenile justice system for suspected commercial sexual activity may receive diversion to specialized services in lieu of delinquency proceedings, however, such a diversion is not automatic and requires the juvenile to meet and maintain compliance with numerous conditions of the person in need of services (PINS) process. Furthermore, older minors must voluntarily plead guilty to the prostitution offense and motion the court to have a pending delinquency petition converted to a PINS petition.

5.4.1 Recommendation: Enact a mandatory protective response for juvenile sex trafficking victims that provides an avenue to specialized services outside detention.

5.5 *Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.*¹³⁷

“Abused child” is defined in N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(e) (Definitions) as a child less than eighteen years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his care

(iii) commits, or allows to be committed an offense against such child defined in article one hundred thirty [Sexual offenses] of the penal law; allows, permits or encourages such child to engage in any act described in sections 230.25 [Promoting prostitution in the third degree], 230.30 [Promoting prostitution in the second degree] and 230.32 [Promoting prostitution in the first degree] of the penal law; . . . or allows such child to engage in acts or conduct described in article two hundred sixty-three [Sexual performance by a child] of the penal law provided, however, that (a) the corroboration requirements contained in the penal law and (b) the age requirement for the application of article two hundred sixty-three of such law shall not apply to proceedings under this article.

However, for purposes of the section on “care and protection of children” in the Social Services Laws, child sex trafficking is not expressly included in the definitions of abuse or neglect. “Abused child” is defined in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 371(4-b)(iii) (Definitions) as “a child less than eighteen years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his care . . . commits, or allows to be committed, an act of sexual abuse against such child as defined in the penal law.”

5.5.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 371(4-b)(iii) (Definitions) and N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(e)(iii) (Definitions) to clarify that sex trafficking in violation of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) constitutes a form of abuse.¹³⁸

¹³⁷ For more information regarding recent federal legislation impacting this component see: <http://go.sharedhope.org/stateimpactmemo>.

¹³⁸ The recommendation in this component is predicated upon the recommendation in 5.1 being simultaneously or previously enacted.

5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.

New York utilizes the term “person legally responsible” in the Family Court Act and defines it as “the child’s custodian, guardian, or any other person responsible for the child’s care at the relevant time.” N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(g). Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(g), a “personal responsible for the child’s care” may include any person continually or at regular intervals found in the same household as the child when the conduct of such person causes or contributes to the abuse or neglect of the child.”

Resultantly, a child victim who is sexually exploited or trafficked by a non-familial offender or person not regularly within the same household as the child would not fall within the care and services of child welfare.

5.6.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 1012(g) (Definitions) to allow child welfare protection for juvenile sex trafficking victims irrespective of the perpetrator of the abuse.

5.7 Crime victims’ compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or CSEC.

For the purposes of crime victims’ compensation, victims of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) are expressly eligible for compensation and other victims may be eligible. N.Y. Exec. Law § 621(5)(b)(5). “Victim” is defined in N.Y. Exec. Law § 621(5) (Definitions) as “(a) a person who suffers personal physical injury as a direct result of a crime; (b) a person who is the victim of . . . sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law.”

Additionally, “child victim” is defined in N.Y. Exec. Law § 621(11) as “a person less than eighteen years of age who suffers physical, mental or emotional injury, or loss or damage, as a direct result of a crime or as a result of witnessing a crime.”

However, a domestic minor sex trafficking victim who is determined to be “criminally responsible” or “an accomplice of such person” is ineligible to receive an award. N.Y. Exec. Law § 624(2). Also, N.Y. Exec. Law § 631(1) (Awards) states, in part,

No award shall be made unless the office finds that (a) a crime was committed, (b) such crime directly resulted in personal physical injury to or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition, or death of, the victim, and (c) criminal justice agency records show that such crime was promptly reported to the proper authorities; and in no case may an award be made where the criminal justice agency¹³⁹ records show that such report was made more than one week after the occurrence of such crime unless the office, for good cause shown, finds the delay to have been justified; provided, however, in cases involving an alleged sex offense as contained in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or . . . sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law . . . , the criminal justice agency report need only be made within a reasonable time considering all the circumstances, including the victim’s physical, emotional and mental condition and family situation

Additionally, child victims receive special protections, and pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law § 631(17),

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, where a child victim has not been physically injured as a direct result of a crime, or has witnessed a crime in which no physical injury occurred, the claimant shall only be eligible for an award that includes the unreimbursed cost of repair or replacement of essential personal property of the child victim that has been lost, damaged or destroyed as a direct result of a crime, transportation expenses incurred by the claimant for necessary court appearances of the child victim in connection with the prosecution of such crimes, and, if counseling is commenced within one year from the date of the incident or its discovery, (1) the unreimbursed cost of counseling provided to the child victim on account of mental or emotional stress resulting from the incident in which the crime occurred, and/or (2) the unreimbursed cost of counseling provided to the claimant eligible under paragraph (h) of subdivision one of section six hundred twenty-four of this article and resulting from the incident in which the crime occurred.

5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.

New York has created several procedures and practices specifically designed to protect child crime victims. Children under 14 who are “vulnerable child witnesses” may be able to testify via a closed circuit television; however, this definition is limited to certain crimes. “Child witness” is defined in N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 65.00(1) (Definitions)¹⁴⁰ as “a person fourteen years old or less who is or will be called to testify in a criminal proceeding, other than a grand jury proceeding, concerning an offense defined in article one hundred thirty [Sex offenses] of the penal law or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 [Incest in the first, second, and third degrees] of such law which is the subject of such criminal proceeding.”

Under N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 65.10 (Closed-circuit television; general rule; declaration of vulnerability),¹⁴¹

1. A child witness shall be declared vulnerable when the court, in accordance with the provisions of section 65.20,¹⁴² determines by clear and convincing evidence that it is likely that such child witness will suffer serious mental or emotional harm if required to testify at a criminal proceeding without the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television and that the use of such live, two-way closed-circuit television will diminish the likelihood or extent of, such harm.
2. When the court declares a child witness to be vulnerable, it shall, except as provided in subdivision four of section 65.30 [Closed-circuit television; special testimonial procedures], authorize the taking of the testimony of the vulnerable child witness from the testimonial room by means of live, two-way closed-circuit television. Under no circumstances shall the provisions of this article be construed to authorize a closed-circuit television system by which events in the courtroom are not transmitted to the testimonial room during the testimony of the vulnerable child witness.

¹⁴⁰ This provision is scheduled to expire and to be repealed on September 1, 2017.

¹⁴¹ This provision is scheduled to expire and to be repealed on September 1, 2017.

¹⁴² N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 65.20(1)–(4) (Closed-circuit television) states,

1. Prior to the commencement of a criminal proceeding; other than a grand jury proceeding, either party may apply to the court for an order declaring that a child witness is vulnerable.
2. A child witness should be declared vulnerable when the court, in accordance with the provisions of this section, determines by clear and convincing evidence that the child witness would suffer serious mental or emotional harm that would substantially impair the child witness' ability to communicate with the finder of fact without the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television.
3. A motion pursuant to subdivision one of this section must be made in writing at least eight days before the commencement of trial or other criminal proceeding upon reasonable notice to the other party and with an opportunity to be heard.
4. The motion papers must state the basis for the motion and must contain sworn allegations of fact which, if true, would support a determination by the court that the child witness is vulnerable. Such allegations may be based upon the personal knowledge of the deponent or upon information and belief, provided that, in the latter event, the sources of such information and the grounds for such belief are stated.

For the purpose of grand jury proceedings, some child witnesses are also able to testify via videotaped examination. Pursuant to N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 190.32(1)(a) (Videotaped examination; definitions, application, order and procedure), the definition of “child witness” is defined as “a person twelve years old or less whom the people intend to call as witness in a grand jury proceeding to give evidence concerning any crime defined in article one hundred thirty or two hundred sixty or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law of which the person was a victim.” N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 190.32(2) states, “In lieu of requiring a witness who is a child witness to appear in person and give evidence in a grand jury proceeding, the district attorney may cause the examination of such witness to be videotaped in accordance with the provisions of subdivision five of this section.”

Pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law § 642-a (Fair treatment of child victims as witnesses),

To the extent permitted by law, criminal justice agencies, crime victim-related agencies, social services agencies and the courts shall comply with the following guidelines in their treatment of child victims:

1. To minimize the number of times a child victim is called upon to recite the events of the case and to foster a feeling of trust and confidence in the child victim, whenever practicable and where one exists, a multi-disciplinary team as established pursuant to subdivision six of section four hundred twenty-three [Child protective service responsibilities and organization; purchase of service and reimbursement of cost; local plan] of the social services law and/or a child advocacy center shall be used for the investigation and prosecution of child abuse cases involving abuse of a child,¹⁴³ as described in paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section one thousand twelve [Definitions] of the family court act, sexual abuse of a child or the death of a child.
2. Whenever practicable, the same prosecutor should handle all aspects of a case involving an alleged child victim.
3. To minimize the time during which a child victim must endure the stress of his involvement in the proceedings, the court should take appropriate action to ensure a speedy trial in all proceedings involving an alleged child victim. In ruling on any motion or request for a delay or continuance of a proceeding involving an alleged child victim, the court should consider and give weight to any potential adverse impact the delay or continuance may have on the well-being of the child.
4. The judge presiding should be sensitive to the psychological and emotional stress a child witness may undergo when testifying.
6. In accordance with the provisions of section 190.32 [Videotaped examination; definitions, application, order and procedure] of the criminal procedure law, a person supportive of the “child witness” or “special witness” as defined in such section should be permitted to be present and accessible to a child witness at all times during his testimony, although the person supportive of the child witness should not be permitted to influence the child’s testimony.
7. A child witness should be permitted in the discretion of the court to use anatomically correct dolls and drawings during his testimony.

Additionally, child victims seeking an order of protection against their trafficker may receive additional protections in relevant court proceedings. Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 153-c(1)(b)¹⁴⁴ (Temporary order of protection), victims petition for an order of protection may partake in an authorized pilot program which shall allow for the “filing of petitions for temporary orders of protection by electronic means . . .” when “attendance at court to file for, or obtain, emergency relief would constitute undue hardship . . .” N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 153-c(1)(b)(3)(i) specifies that undue hardship to a petitioner includes the “risk of harm to the petitioner.”

¹⁴³ See supra Component 5.6 for the definition of “abused child.”

¹⁴⁴ The text of N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 153-c cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 6262 and Senate Bill 6 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective April 1, 2016).

New York's rape shield law does not expressly apply to child victims of sexual exploitation, and moreover, allows for the admission of evidence related to prostitution-related offenses. Pursuant to N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 60.42 (Rules of evidence; admissibility of evidence of victim's sexual conduct in sex offense cases),

Evidence of a victim's sexual conduct shall not be admissible in a prosecution for an offense or an attempt to commit an offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law unless such evidence:

1. proves or tends to prove specific instances of the victim's prior sexual conduct with the accused; or
2. proves or tends to prove that the victim has been convicted of an offense under section 230.00 [Prostitution] of the penal law within three years prior to the sex offense which is the subject of the prosecution; or
3. rebuts evidence introduced by the people of the victim's failure to engage in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct, anal sexual conduct or sexual contact during a given period of time; or
4. rebuts evidence introduced by the people which proves or tends to prove that the accused is the cause of pregnancy or disease of the victim, or the source of semen found in the victim; or
5. is determined by the court after an offer of proof by the accused outside the hearing of the jury, or such hearing as the court may require, and a statement by the court of its findings of fact essential to its determination, to be relevant and admissible in the interests of justice.

Lastly, child victims of CSEC offenses and general sexual offenses are eligible to receive additional psychosocial and advocacy support services. Under N.Y. Pub. Health § 207(1)(k),¹⁴⁵ "The availability of individual, family, and group counseling programs, education programs, and advocacy services provided at no cost by governmental agencies and not-for-profit organizations for victims of any sexual offense which constitutes a crime and for victims of child pornography promotion or possession."

- 5.8.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 60.42 (Rules of evidence; admissibility of evidence of victim's sexual conduct in sex offense cases) to apply to domestic minor sex trafficking victims under the age of 18 and to limit the ability to introduce evidence of offenses under N.Y. Penal Law Article 230 (Prostitution) in such cases.¹⁴⁶

- 5.9 Expungement or sealing of juvenile delinquency records resulting from arrests or adjudications for prostitution-related offenses committed as a result of, or in the course of, the commercial sexual exploitation of a minor is available within a reasonable time after turning 18.

Pursuant to N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 375.2 (Motion to seal after a finding),

1. If an action has resulted in a finding of delinquency pursuant to subdivision one of section 352.1 [Findings], other than a finding that the respondent committed a designated felony act, the court may, in the interest of justice and upon motion of the respondent, order the sealing of appropriate records pursuant to subdivision one of section 375.1 [Order upon termination of a delinquency action in favor of the respondent].
2. Such motion must be in writing and may be filed at any time subsequent to the entering of such finding
3. The court shall state on the record its reasons for granting or denying the motion.

¹⁴⁵ The text of N.Y. Pub. Health § 207(1)(k) cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 86 and Senate Bill 3486 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective November 20, 2015).

¹⁴⁶ The recommendation in this component is predicated upon the recommendation in 5.1 being simultaneously or previously enacted.

4. If such motion is denied, it may not be renewed for a period of one year, unless the order of denial permits renewal at an earlier time.
5. The court shall not order the sealing of any record except as prescribed by this section or section 375.1.
6. Such a motion cannot be filed until the respondent's sixteenth birthday.

N.Y. Criminal Procedure Law § 170.80(4) (Proceedings regarding certain prostitution charges; certain persons aged sixteen or seventeen) establishes expungement for older minors whose prostitution charge has been converted to a PINS proceeding under § 170.80(1)(a), stating, "At the conclusion of a person in need of supervision proceeding pursuant to this section, all records of the investigation and proceedings relating to such proceedings, including records created before the charge was conditionally converted, shall be sealed in accordance with section 720.35 of this chapter."

Expungement is also available when a victim pleads guilty to prostitution charges as a youthful offender pursuant to § 170.80(2) which states, "In the event of a conviction by plea or verdict to such charge or charges of prostitution or loitering for the purposes of prostitution as described in subdivision one of this section, the court must find that the person is a youthful offender for the purpose of such charge and proceed in accordance with article seven hundred twenty of this chapter In such case, the records of the investigation and proceedings relating to such charge shall be sealed in accordance with section 720.35 of this chapter."

N.Y. Fam. Ct. Act § 375.3 (Expungement of court records) states, "Nothing contained in this article shall preclude the court's use of its inherent power to order the expungement of court records."

Additionally, under N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 440.10(1)(i)¹⁴⁷ (Motion to vacate judgment),

1. At any time after the entry of a judgment, the court in which it was entered may, upon motion of the defendant, vacate such judgment upon the ground that:

. . . .

(i) The judgment is a conviction where the arresting charge was under section 240.37 (loitering for the purpose of engaging in a prostitution offense, provided that the defendant was not alleged to be loitering for the purpose of patronizing a person for prostitution or promoting prostitution) or 230.00 (prostitution) or 230.03 (prostitution in a school zone) of the penal law, and the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of the penal law, . . . compelling prostitution under section 230.33 of the penal law, or trafficking in persons under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (United States Code, title 22, chapter 78); provided that

- (i) a motion under this paragraph shall be made with due diligence, after the defendant has ceased to be a victim of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime or has sought services for victims of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime, subject to reasonable concerns for the safety of the defendant, family members of the defendant, or other victims of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime that may be jeopardized by the bringing of such motion, or for other reasons consistent with the purpose of this paragraph; and
- (ii) official documentation of the defendant's status as a victim of trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons at the time of the offense from a federal, state or local government agency shall create a presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons, but shall not be required for granting a motion under this paragraph.

¹⁴⁷ The text of N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 440.10 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.

The court must consider and may authorize restitution to the victim under N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(1) (Restitution and reparation), which states, in part,

In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of an offense,¹⁴⁸ and after providing the district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitution of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss caused thereby In that event, or when the victim impact statement reports that the victim seeks restitution or reparation, the court shall require, unless the interests of justice dictate otherwise, in addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article that the defendant make restitution of the fruits of the offense and reparation for the actual out-of-pocket loss In the event that restitution or reparation are not ordered, the court shall clearly state its reasons on the record. Adverse action as used in this subdivision shall mean and include actual loss incurred by the victim, including an amount equal to the value of the time reasonably spent by the victim attempting to remediate the harm incurred by the victim from the offense, and the consequential financial losses from such action.

Additionally, under N.Y. Exec. Law § 632-a(3) (Crime victims),

Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of the estates, powers and trusts law or the civil practice law and rules with respect to the timely bringing of an action, any crime victim shall have the right to bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover money damages from a person convicted of a crime of which the crime victim is a victim, or the representative of that convicted person, within three years of the discovery of any profits from a crime¹⁴⁹ or funds of a convicted person

Where a victim of trafficking is also a victim of a racketeering crime, restitution is available. N.Y. Penal Law § 460.30(5) (Enterprise corruption; forfeiture) states, in part,

Any person convicted of a violation of section 460.20 of this article through which he derived pecuniary value, or by which he caused personal injury or property damage or other loss, may be sentenced to pay a fine not in excess of three times the gross value he gained or three times the gross loss he caused, whichever is greater. Moneys so collected shall be paid as restitution to victims of the crime for medical expenses actually incurred, loss of earnings or property loss or damage caused thereby.

¹⁴⁸ See supra note 98 for the definition of “offense.”

¹⁴⁹ Pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law § 632-a(1)(b),

“Profits from a crime” means (i) any property obtained through or income generated from the commission of a crime of which the defendant was convicted; (ii) any property obtained by or income generated from the sale, conversion or exchange of proceeds of a crime, including any gain realized by such sale, conversion or exchange; and (iii) any property which the defendant obtained or income generated as a result of having committed the crime, including any assets obtained through the use of unique knowledge obtained during the commission of, or in preparation for the commission of, a crime, as well as any property obtained by or income generated from the sale, conversion or exchange of such property and any gain realized by such sale, conversion or exchange.

Additionally, “Any payment made as restitution to victims pursuant to this section shall not limit, preclude or impair any liability for damages in any civil action or proceeding for an amount in excess of such payment.” N.Y. Penal Law § 460.30(8).

5.10.1 Recommendation: N.Y. Penal Law § 60.27(1) (Restitution and reparation) to ensure that restitution is a mandatory component in all CSEC and trafficking sentences.

5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened sufficiently to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Victims of sex trafficking under N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 230.34 (Sex trafficking) and N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 230.33 (Compelling prostitution) are afforded an extended statute of limitations for civil and criminal actions.

Pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. § 483-bb(c)¹⁵⁰ (Services for victims of human trafficking), a victim of “conduct prohibited by section 230.33 [Compelling prostitution], [and] 230.34 [Sex trafficking] . . . of the penal law may bring a civil cause of action against the perpetrator or whoever knowingly advances or profits from, or whoever should have known he or she was advancing or profiting from, an act in violation of section 230.33, 230.43 . . . of the penal law to recover damages and reasonable attorney’s fees.” Additionally, under N.Y. Soc. Serv. § 483-bb(e),¹⁵¹ “An action by a victim of sex trafficking, compelling prostitution . . . brought pursuant to subdivision (c) of section 483-bb of the social services law, may be commenced within ten years after such victimization occurs provided, however, that such ten year period shall not begin to run or shall be tolled during any period in which the victim is or remains subject to such conduct.”

Contrarily, pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. Law § 213-b (Action by a victim of a criminal offense), a 7-year statute of limitations applies for actions arising under convictions for crimes in general, and a 10-year statute of limitations applies for actions arising under convictions for a “specified crime.”¹⁵² However, pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law Article 130 (Sex offenses), unless the offense has longer limitation under subsection (2)(a), or N.Y. Penal Law § 263.05 (Use of a child in a sexual performance), the statute of limitations is tolled until either the child reaches the age of 18 or the crime is reported to law enforcement or a child abuse register, whichever occurs first.

For criminal prosecutions, N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 30.10(3)(f) (Timeliness of prosecutions; periods of limitations) provides,

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two, the periods of limitation for the commencement of criminal actions are extended as follows in the indicated circumstances:

. . . .

(f) For purposes of a prosecution involving a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law [Sex offenses], other than a sexual offense delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section, committed against a child less than eighteen years of age . . . or use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 [Use of a child in a sexual performance] of the penal law, the period of limitation shall not begin to run until the child has reached the age of eighteen or the offense is reported to a law enforcement agency or statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment, whichever occurs earlier.

¹⁵¹ See supra note 150.

¹⁵² “Specified crime” is defined in N.Y. Exec. Law § 632-a(1)(e) as including Class B felonies and violent felony offenses as defined in N.Y. Penal Law § 70.02(1), which includes sex trafficking and certain sex offenses listed in Articles 230 and 130, respectively. The text of N.Y. Penal Law § 70.02 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 506 and Senate Bill 7 during the 2015-2016 Regular Session of the New York Legislature (effective January 19, 2016).

In contrast, for criminal actions, pursuant to N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 30.10(2) (Timeliness of prosecutions; periods of limitation), a 5-year statute of limitations exists for most felony prosecutions, and a 2-year statute of limitations exists for misdemeanors.

Legal Components:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.
- 6.2 Single party consent to audio-taping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.
- 6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking.
- 6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate buying or selling of commercial sex acts is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.
- 6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.
- 6.6 Law enforcement are mandated to promptly report missing and recovered children.

Legal Analysis:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.

New York does not legislatively mandate training, but training is mentioned in N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-b(g) (Services for exploited children) as an option for certain localities. Additionally, pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law § 214-d¹⁵³ (Human trafficking awareness), the law enforcement superintendent is mandated to create and disseminate information to all state police officers regarding human trafficking policies and procedures.

Specifically, under N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 447-b(6),

The local social services commissioner may, to the extent that funds are available, in conjunction with the division of criminal justice services and local law enforcement officials, contract with an appropriate not-for-profit agency with experience working with sexually exploited children to train law enforcement officials who are likely to encounter sexually exploited children in the course of their law enforcement duties on the provisions of this section and how to identify and obtain appropriate services for sexually exploited children. Local social services districts may work cooperatively to provide such training and such training may be provided on a regional basis. The division of criminal justice services shall assist local social services districts in obtaining any available funds for the purposes of conducting law enforcement training from the federal justice department and the office of juvenile justice and delinquency prevention.

N.Y. Exec. Law § 214-d states,

The superintendent, in consultation with the office of temporary and disability assistance and the division of criminal justice services, shall: (1) develop, maintain and disseminate to all members of the state police, including new and veteran officers, written policies, procedures and educational materials relating to human trafficking victims, including services available for victims of human trafficking, as referenced in section four hundred eighty-three-bb of the social services law; and (2) establish and implement written procedures and policies in the event a member of the division of state police encounters an individual believed to be a victim of human trafficking, which shall include, but not be limited to, the provision of information and/or referral to an appropriate provider of social and legal services to human trafficking victims, in accordance with such section four hundred eighty-three-bb.

6.2 Single party consent to audio-taping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.

New York allows for single party consent to audio-taping. N.Y. Penal Law § 250.05 (Eavesdropping) states, “A person is guilty of eavesdropping when he unlawfully engages in wiretapping, mechanical overhearing of a conversation, or intercepting or accessing of an electronic communication.” Pursuant to N.Y. Penal Law § 250.00 (Eavesdropping; definition of terms),

1. "Wiretapping" means the intentional overhearing or recording of a telephonic or telegraphic communication by a person other than a sender or receiver thereof, without the consent of either the sender or receiver, by means of any instrument, device or equipment.
2. "Mechanical overhearing of a conversation" means the intentional overhearing or recording of a conversation or discussion, without the consent of at least one party thereto, by a person not present thereat, by means of any instrument, device or equipment.
- ...
6. "Intercepting or accessing of an electronic communication" and "intentionally intercepted or accessed" mean the intentional acquiring, receiving, collecting, overhearing, or recording of an electronic communication, without the consent of the sender or intended receiver thereof, by means of any instrument, device or equipment, except when used by a telephone company in the ordinary course of its business or when necessary to protect the rights or property of such company.

6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking.

N.Y. Penal Law § 250.05 (Eavesdropping) states, “A person is guilty of eavesdropping when he unlawfully engages in wiretapping, mechanical overhearing of a conversation, or intercepting or accessing of an electronic communication.” N.Y. Penal Law § 250.00(1) (Eavesdropping; definitions of terms) defines “wiretapping” as “the intentional overhearing or recording of a telephonic or telegraphic communication by a person other than a sender or receiver thereof, without the consent of either the sender or receiver, by means of any instrument, device or equipment.”

Pursuant to N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 700.10(1), “Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a justice may issue an eavesdropping warrant or a video surveillance warrant upon ex parte application of an applicant who is authorized by law to investigate, prosecute or participate in the prosecution of the particular designated offense which is the subject of the application.” “Designated offense” is defined in N.Y. Crim. Proc. Law § 700.05(8)(h)¹⁵⁴ as including § 230.34 (Sex trafficking), § 230.32 (Promoting prostitution in the first degree), § 230.30 (Promoting prostitution in the second degree), or § 230.25¹⁵⁵ (Promoting prostitution in the third degree).

6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate buying or selling of commercial sex acts is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.

New York trafficking and CSEC laws do not prohibit a defendant from raising a defense as to the use of law enforcement decoy posing as a minor in an investigation of domestic minor sex trafficking. Thus, the defense is likely available for all buyer-applicable offenses, and charges brought against buyers through reverse sting operations are the most likely situations in which a defendant would try to use such a defense. N.Y. Penal Law

¹⁵⁵ See supra note 28.

§ 120.70 (Luring a child) is one such buyer-applicable CSEC offense¹⁵⁶ which does not prohibit the defense, meaning, buyers charged for luring a child for the purposes of commercial sex acts would not be prohibited from raising the defense.

6.4.1 Recommendation: Enact a law specifically preventing a defense as to the use of a law enforcement decoy in investigating violations of N.Y. Penal Law § 230.34 (Sex Trafficking).¹⁵⁷

6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.

New York has also not codified the permissibility of the use of the Internet or electronic communications as an investigative technique for sex trafficking.

6.5.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Penal Law § 235.22 (Disseminating indecent material to a minor) to state that it is not a defense that the person solicited was in fact an undercover officer posing as a minor.

6.6 Law enforcement are mandated to promptly report missing and recovered children.

New York has established a statewide central register for missing children; however, law enforcement personnel are not required to report cases of missing or recovered children to the register. N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-e (Statewide central register for missing children) establishes “through electronic data processing and related procedures, a statewide central register for missing children which shall be compatible with the national crime information center register maintained pursuant to the federal missing children act of nineteen hundred eighty-two”

Additionally, while law enforcement agents not required to report cases of missing children to the register created by N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-e, pursuant to N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-m (Reporting duties of law enforcement departments with respect to missing children), law enforcement must report cases of missing children that have been closed. N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-m states,

The chief of every police department, each county sheriff and the superintendent of state police shall report, at least semi-annually, to the division with respect to specified cases of missing children that are closed. Such reports shall be in the form and manner prescribed by the division and shall contain such information as the division deems necessary including, but not limited to, information regarding recovered children who were arrested, children who were the victims of criminal activity or exploitation and children who were found deceased and information regarding the alleged abductor or killer of such children.

6.6.1 Recommendation: Amend N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-m (Reporting duties of law enforcement departments with respect to missing children) to require law enforcement to report all cases of missing and recovered children to the register created by N.Y. Exec. Law § 837-e (Statewide central register for missing children).

¹⁵⁶ See supra Component 2.2 for more information about N.Y. Penal Law § 120.70 and other buyer-applicable CSEC provisions.

¹⁵⁷ The recommendation in this component is predicated upon the recommendation in 2.1 being simultaneously or previously enacted.
