- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.

Michigan’s human trafficking laws, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.462a (Definitions)–750.462h (Relevancy of resistance or lack of resistance), criminalize sex trafficking of minors without requiring proof of the use of force, fraud, or coercion. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e(a) (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) states that “[a] person shall not do any of the following, regardless of whether the person knows the age of the minor: (a) [r]ecruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain by any means a minor<sup>2</sup> for commercial sexual activity.”<sup>3</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e(b), which makes it a crime to

- 1 or more of the following for which anything of value is given or received by any person:
  - (i) An act of sexual penetration or sexual contact as those terms are defined in section 520a [Definitions].
  - (ii) Any conduct prohibited under section 145c [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties].
  - (iii) Any sexually explicit performance as that term is defined in section 3 of 1978 PA 33, MCL 722.673

“[r]ecruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain by any means a minor for forced labor or services,” may also apply to domestic minor sex trafficking offenses since the definition of “services” under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462a(1) (Definitions) includes “commercial sexual activity and sexually explicit performances.” However, proof of force, fraud or coercion would be required in a prosecution under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e(b).<sup>4</sup>

A violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine of up to $20,000, or both.<sup>5</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(2). Additionally, pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(3) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution), “A person who attempts, conspires, or solicits another to violate this chapter is subject to the same penalty as a person who commits a violation of this chapter.”

1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.

The following laws make CSEC a crime in Michigan:

1. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.13 (Taking or enticing away minor under sixteen years; violation as felony; penalty) states,

A person who takes or entices away a minor under the age of 16 years from the minor’s father, mother, guardian, or other person having the legal charge of the minor, without their consent, for the purpose of prostitution, concubinage, sexual intercourse, or marriage is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years.

2. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2), (3) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) states,

(2) A person who persuades, induces, entices, coerces, causes, or knowingly allows a child<sup>6</sup> to engage in a child sexually abusive activity for the purpose of producing any child sexually abusive material,<sup>7</sup> or a person who arranges for, produces, makes, copies, reproduces, or finances, or a person who attempts or prepares or conspires to arrange for, produce, make, copy, reproduce, or finance any child sexually abusive activity or child sexually abusive material for personal, distributional, or other purposes is [Definitions].

<sup>4</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462a(g) (Definitions) defines “forced labor or services” as “labor or services that are obtained or maintained by force, fraud, or coercion.”

<sup>6</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(1)(b) defines “child” as “a person who is less than 18 years of age, subject to the affirmative defense created in subsection (6) regarding persons emancipated by operation of law.”

any depiction, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, including a developed or undeveloped photograph, picture, film, slide, video, electronic visual image, computer diskette, computer or computer-generated image, or picture, or sound recording which is of a child or appears to include a child engaging in a listed sexual act; a book, magazine, computer, computer storage device, or other visual or print or printable medium containing such a photograph, picture, film, slide, video, electronic visual image, computer, or computer-generated image, or picture, or sound recording; or any reproduction, copy, or print of such a photograph, picture, film, slide, video, electronic visual image, book, magazine, computer, or computer-generated image, or picture, other visual or print or printable medium, or sound recording.

guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment for not more than 20 years, or a fine of not more than $100,000.00, or both, if that person knows, has reason to know, or should reasonably be expected to know that the child is a child or that the child sexually abusive material includes a child or that the depiction constituting the child sexually abusive material appears to include a child, or that person has not taken reasonable precautions to determine the age of the child.

(3) A person who distributes or promotes, or finances the distribution or promotion of, or receives for the purpose of distributing or promoting, or conspires, attempts, or prepares to distribute, receive, finance, or promote any child sexually abusive material or child sexually abusive activity is guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment for not more than 7 years, or a fine of not more than $50,000.00, or both, if that person knows, has reason to know, or should reasonably be expected to know that the child is a child or that the child sexually abusive material includes a child or that the depiction constituting the child sexually abusive material appears to include a child, or that person has not taken reasonable precautions to determine the age of the child . . . .

3. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty) states,

A person who engages or offers to engage the services of another person, who is less than 18 years of age and who is not his or her spouse, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, by the payment in money or other forms of consideration, is guilty of a crime punishable as provided in section 451.

Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(4) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; "prior conviction" defined.), "A person convicted of violating section 449a(2) is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 5 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or both."

4. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(2) (Transporting person for prostitution; sale of travel services for purposes of prostitution or human trafficking; conduct against minor; felony; "travel services" defined) states,

A person shall not knowingly sell or offer to sell travel services<sup>8</sup> that include or facilitate travel for the purpose of engaging in what would be a violation of this chapter, concerning prostitution, or of chapter LXVIIA, concerning human trafficking, if the violation occurred in this state. Except as provided in subsection (3), a person who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 5 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(3) enhances the penalty if the victim is a minor, stating, "If a person violates subsection (2) and the violation involves conduct against a minor, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than $15,000.00, or both."

The following laws may also apply to commercial sexual exploitation of children crimes in Michigan, although they do not refer specifically to commercial transactions:

1. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145a (Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose) states,

<sup>8</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(5) defines "travel services" as "transportation by air, sea, or ground, hotel or other lodging accommodations, package tours, or the provision of vouchers or coupons to be redeemed for future travel, or accommodations for a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration."

A person who accosts, entices, or solicits a child less than 16 years of age, regardless of whether the person knows the individual is a child or knows the actual age of the child, or an individual whom he or she believes is a child less than 16 years of age with the intent to induce or force that child or individual to commit an immoral act, to submit to an act of sexual intercourse or an act of gross indecency, or to any other act of depravity or delinquency, or who encourages a child less than 16 years of age, regardless of whether the person knows the individual is a child or knows the actual age of the child, or an individual whom he or she believes is a child less than 16 years of age to engage in any of those acts is guilty of a felony . . . .

A first conviction for violating this statute is punishable by imprisonment up to 4 years, a fine up to $4,000, or both. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145a. Subsequent convictions are punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine up to $10,000, or both. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145b(1).

2. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(1) (Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree; felony) provides that “[a] person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree if he or she engages in sexual penetration with,” among others, a victim “under 13 years of age,” or “under circumstances involving the commission of any other felony.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(1)(a), (c). A conviction under this statute is generally punishable by “imprisonment for life or for any term of years.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(2)(a). However, if the defendant is at least 17 and the victim is less than 13, the minimum sentence is imprisonment for 25 years. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(2)(b). In addition to penalties under subsections (2)(a) and (2)(b), “the court shall sentence the defendant to lifetime electronic monitoring under section 520n.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(2)(d). If the offender is 17 or older and the victim is less than 13 and “if the person was previously convicted of a violation of this section or section 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree], 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree], 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree], or 520g [Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct],” a violation is punishable by life imprisonment without parole. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520b(2)(c). An additional mandatory minimum of at least 5 years is imposed for all violations under the statute for subsequent offenders of first, second, or third degree criminal sexual conduct. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520f(1).
3. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520c(1) (Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree; felony) states that “[a] person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree if the person engages in sexual contact with,” among others, a victim “under 13 years of age,” or “under circumstances involving the commission of any other felony.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520c(1)(a), (c). A conviction for violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520c(1) is punishable as a felony by a maximum imprisonment of 15 years and lifetime electronic monitoring if committed by a person at least 17 against a child under 13 for a first offense, enhanced by a mandatory minimum sentence of at least 5 years for subsequent offenses. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.520c(2)(a), (b), 750.520f(1).
4. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520d(1) (Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree; felony) states that “[a] person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree if the person engages in sexual penetration with,” among others, a victim aged 13–15. A conviction under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520d(1) is punishable as a felony by imprisonment up to 15 years for a first offense and a mandatory minimum of at least 5 years for subsequent offenses. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.520d(2), 750.520f(1).
5. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520e(1) (Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree; misdemeanor) makes it a crime to, among other things, engage in sexual contact with a child aged 13–15 when the offender is at least 5 years older than the victim. A conviction under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520e(1) is punishable as a misdemeanor by imprisonment up to 2 years, a fine up to $500, or both. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520e(2).

1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.

Michigan’s prostitution law, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.448 (Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime) does not refer to the state human trafficking laws, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.462a (Definitions)–750.462h (Relevancy of resistance or lack of resistance) to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization. However, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451 (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; "prior conviction" defined), which sets out the penalties for violations of § 750.448 and other related offenses, refers to the human trafficking law to establish a presumption that commercially sexually exploited minors are victims of human trafficking. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6) states,

In any prosecution of a person under 18 years of age for an offense punishable under this section or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to an offense punishable under this section, it shall be presumed that the person under 18 years of age was coerced into child sexually abusive activity or commercial sexual activity in violation of section 462e or otherwise forced or coerced into committing that offense by another person engaged in human trafficking in violation of sections 462a to 462h . . . .

1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute child sex trafficking crimes.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159i (Prohibited conduct) states,

- (1) A person employed by, or associated with, an enterprise shall not knowingly conduct or participate in the affairs of the enterprise directly or indirectly through a pattern of racketeering activity.
- (2) A person shall not knowingly acquire or maintain an interest in or control of an enterprise or real or personal property used or intended for use in the operation of an enterprise, directly or indirectly, through a pattern of racketeering activity.
- (3) A person who has knowingly received any proceeds derived directly or indirectly from a pattern of racketeering activity shall not directly or indirectly use or invest any part of those proceeds, or any proceeds derived from the use or investment of any of those proceeds, in the establishment or operation of an enterprise, or the acquisition of any title to, or a right, interest, or equity in, real or personal property used or intended for use in the operation of an enterprise.
- (4) A person shall not conspire or attempt to violate subsection (1), (2), or (3).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159g (Racketeering) defines “racketeering” to include, among other things, committing, attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or aiding or abetting, soliciting, coercing, or intimidating a person to commit an offense for financial gain, involving any of the following:

. . . .

- (q) A violation of section 145c, concerning child sexually abusive activity or material.
- (r) A violation of section 145d, concerning internet or computer crimes.

- (ii) A violation of section 452 [House of ill-fame; keeping, maintaining or operating], 455 [Pandering; felony], 457 [Earnings of prostitute, accepting], 458 [Detaining female in house of prostitution for debt], or 459 [Transporting female for prostitution; felony], concerning prostitution.
- (jj) A violation of chapter LXVIIA, concerning human trafficking.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159f(c) (Definitions generally) defines a “pattern of racketeering activity” as not less than 2 incidents of racketeering to which all of the following characteristics apply:

- (i) The incidents have the same or a substantially similar purpose, result, participant, victim, or method of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics and are not isolated acts.
- (ii) The incidents amount to or pose a threat of continued criminal activity.
- (iii) At least 1 of the incidents occurred within this state on or after the effective date of the amendatory act that added this section, and the last of the incidents occurred within 10 years after the commission of any prior incident, excluding any period of imprisonment served by a person engaging in the racketeering activity.

A conviction for violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159i is punishable as a felony by imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine up to $100,000, or both, and asset forfeiture. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159j(1) (Violation as felony; penalties; imposition of costs, order to criminally forfeit property; additional authority of court; conditions for entering order of criminal forfeiture; attorney fees; determination of extent of property; property not reachable; retention of property by law enforcement agency; disposition of money seized; seizure; other criminal or civil remedies not precluded). Asset forfeiture under this statute is both mandatory and criminal. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159j(4) states,

The court shall order a person convicted of a violation of section 159i to criminally forfeit to the state any real, personal, or intangible property in which he or she has an interest and that was used in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through conduct in violation of section 159i, including any property constituting an interest in, means of control over, or influence over the enterprise involved in the violation and any property constituting proceeds derived from the violation.

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159j(12) “[a]n order of criminal forfeiture entered under this section shall authorize an appropriate law enforcement agency to seize the property declared criminally forfeited under this section . . . .” Disbursement of the property is governed by Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159r (Sale of seized property by unit of government; disposal of received money; order of priority; appointment, compensation, and duties of receiver), which states that upon forfeiture, the property may be sold and disbursed to in the following order of priority: to pay an outstanding security interest, to satisfy an order of restitution, to pay the claim of each person who shows that he is a victim of the crime, to the extent that the claim is not covered by an order of restitution, to pay any outstanding lien against the property that has been imposed by a governmental unit, and to pay the proper expenses of proceedings for forfeiture and sale. The remaining balance shall be distributed to the units of government substantially involved in effecting the forfeiture.

Legal Analysis:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor.

Michigan’s sex trafficking law applies to buyers following federal precedent<sup>9</sup> through use of the word “obtain.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) makes it a crime to “knowingly recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain by any means a minor for commercial sexual activity.”

- 2.1.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) to clarify that buyer conduct is included as a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e.

<sup>9</sup> See United States v. Jungers, 702 F.3d 1066 (8th Cir. 2013). In this case, the Eighth Circuit held that the federal sex trafficking law, 18 U.S.C. § 1591 (Sex trafficking of children or by force, fraud, or coercion) applies to buyers of sex with minors. Reversing a District of South Dakota ruling that Congress did not intend the string of verbs constituting criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 1591(a)(1) (“recruits, entices, harbors, transports, provides, obtains, or maintains”) to reach the conduct of buyers (United States v. Jungers, 834 F. Supp. 2d 930, 931 (D.S.D. 2011)), the Eighth Circuit concluded that 18 U.S.C. § 1591 does not contain “a latent exemption for purchasers” because buyers can “engage in at least some of the prohibited conduct.” Jungers, 702 F. 3d 1066, 1072. Congress codified Jungers clarifying that the federal sex trafficking law is intended to apply to buyers in the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act (JVTA) of 2015 Pub. L. No. 114-22, 129 Stat 227), enacted on May 29, 2015. The JVTA adds the terms “patronize” and “solicit” to the list of prohibited conduct and expressly states, “section 108 of this title amends section 1591 of title 18, United States Code, to add the words ‘solicits or patronizes’ to the sex trafficking statute making absolutely clear for judges, juries, prosecutors, and law enforcement officials that criminals who purchase sexual acts from human trafficking victims may be arrested, prosecuted, and convicted as sex trafficking offenders when this is merited by the facts of a particular case.” Id. at Sec. 109. The Eighth Circuit decision in United States v. Jungers and the federal sex trafficking law as amended by the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act establish persuasive authority when state courts interpret the string of verbs constituting prohibited conduct in state sex trafficking laws (in particular the term “obtains”) to the extent such interpretation does not conflict with state case law.

2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), “A person who engages or offers to engage the services of another person, who is less than 18 years of age and who is not his or her spouse, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, by the payment in money or other forms of consideration, is guilty of a crime punishable as provided in section 451.” Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(4) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined.), “A person convicted of violating section 449a(2) is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 5 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or both.”

2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate between soliciting sex acts with an adult and soliciting sex acts with a minor under 18.

Michigan’s distinguishes between soliciting or purchasing sex with an adult and soliciting or purchasing sex with a minor under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), which makes it a felony when a person “engages or offers to engage the services of another person, who is less than 18 years of age and who is not his or her spouse, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, by the payment in money or other forms of consideration.”

Otherwise, buyers convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a will be punished for a misdemeanor in accordance with the provisions of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451 (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined) and receive up to 93 days’ imprisonment, a fine up to $500, or both, for a first conviction; or up to 1 year imprisonment, a fine up to $1,000, or both, if the person has 1 prior conviction.<sup>10</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.449a, 750.451(1)–(3). If the person has 2 or more prior convictions, however, he or she will be guilty of a felony and receive a punishment of imprisonment up to 2 years, a fine up to $2,000, or both. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.449a, 750.451(1)–(3).

2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.

Buyers convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) face up to 20 years imprisonment and a possible fine of up to $20,000. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(2) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution). If convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), a buyer would be guilty of a felony punishable by up to 5 years imprisonment, a fine of up to $10,000.00, or both.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(4) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined).

<sup>10</sup> Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451 (5), “prior conviction” is defined as “a violation of section 448, 449, 449a, 450, or 462 or a violation of a law of another state or of a political subdivision of this state or another state substantially corresponding to section 448, 449, 449a, 450, or 462.”

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the buyer has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense<sup>11</sup> against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). To the extent buyers can be prosecuted under other federal CSEC laws,<sup>12</sup> a conviction is punishable by penalties ranging from a fine not to exceed $250,000 to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>13</sup>

2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.

Michigan does not expressly criminalize the use of the Internet to purchase commercial sex acts with a minor; however, using the Internet to communicate with a minor with the intent to commit, or attempt to commit, a violation of specified sexual offense laws is illegal under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) (Use of internet or computer system; prohibited communication). Specifically, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) states, an offense under section 1591 [18 USCS § 1591] (relating to sex trafficking of children), 2241 [18 USCS § 2241] (relating to aggravated sexual abuse), 2242 [18 USCS § 2242] (relating to sexual abuse), 2244(a)(1) [18 USCS § 2244(a)(1)] (relating to abusive sexual contact), 2245 [18 USCS § 2245] (relating to sexual abuse resulting in death), 2251 [18 USCS § 2251] (relating to sexual exploitation of children), 2251A [18 USCS § 2251A] (relating to selling or buying of children), 2422(b) [18 USCS § 2422(b)] (relating to coercion and enticement of a minor into prostitution), or 2423(a) [18 USCS § 2423(a)] (relating to transportation of minors).

A person shall not use the internet or a computer,<sup>14</sup> computer program,<sup>15</sup> computer network,<sup>16</sup> or computer system<sup>17</sup> to communicate with any person for the purpose of doing any of the following:

<sup>12</sup> 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (Selling or buying of children), 2251(a) (Sexual exploitation of children), 2423(a) (Transportation of a minor with intent for minor to engage in criminal sexual activity), 2422(a) (Coercion and enticement), 2252(a)(2), (a)(4) (Certain activities relating to material involving the sexual exploitation of minors).

<sup>13</sup> 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (Conviction punishable by imprisonment for 30 years to life and a fine), 2251(e) (Conviction punishable by imprisonment for 15–30 years and a fine), 2423(a) (Conviction punishable by imprisonment for 10 years to life and a fine), 2422(a) (Conviction punishable by a fine, imprisonment up to 20 years, or both), 2252(b) (Stating that a conviction under subsection (a)(2) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (a)(4) is punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (Classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

<sup>14</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(9)(a) defines “computer” as “any connected, directly interoperable or interactive device, equipment, or facility that uses a computer program or other instructions to perform specific operations including logical, arithmetic, or memory functions with or on computer data or a computer program and that can store, retrieve, alter, or communicate the results of the operations to a person, computer program, computer, computer system, or computer network.”

<sup>15</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(9)(c) defines “computer program” as “a series of internal or external instructions communicated in a form acceptable to a computer that directs the functioning of a computer, computer system, or computer network in a manner designed to provide or produce products or results from the computer, computer system, or computer network.”

<sup>16</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(9)(b) defines “computer network” as “the interconnection of hardwire or wireless communication lines with a computer through remote terminals, or a complex consisting of 2 or more interconnected computers.”

<sup>17</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(9)(d) defines “computer system” as “a set of related, connected or unconnected, computer equipment, devices, software, or hardware.”

(a) Committing, attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or soliciting another person to commit conduct proscribed under section 145a [Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose], . . . 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree; felony; consecutive terms], 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree; felony], 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree; felony], 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree; misdemeanor], or 520g [Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct; felony] . . . in which the victim or intended victim is a minor or is believed by that person to be a minor.

The penalty for violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) depends on the penalty applicable to the underlying offense for purposes of which the defendant solicited a minor.<sup>18</sup>

2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) expressly states that, “[a] person shall not do any of the following, regardless of whether the person knows the age of the minor: (a) Recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain by any means a minor for commercial sexual activity. (b) Recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain by any means a minor for forced labor or services.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), however, does not specifically prohibit a mistake of age defense.

2.6.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty) to expressly prohibit the use of a mistake of age defense in relation to this crime.

2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.

Michigan’s buyer-applicable trafficking law does not stagger penalties based on a minor’s age and provides sufficiently high penalties. A violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services;

<sup>18</sup> A conviction under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) is subject to the following penalty scheme pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(2):

- (a) If the underlying crime is a misdemeanor or a felony with a maximum term of imprisonment of less than 1 year, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 1 year or a fine of not more than $5,000.00, or both.
- (b) If the underlying crime is a misdemeanor or a felony with a maximum term of imprisonment of 1 year or more but less than 2 years, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 2 years or a fine of not more than $5,000.00, or both.
- (c) If the underlying crime is a misdemeanor or a felony with a maximum term of imprisonment of 2 years or more but less than 4 years, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 4 years or a fine of not more than $5,000.00, or both.
- (d) If the underlying crime is a felony with a maximum term of imprisonment of 4 years or more but less than 10 years, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than $5,000.00, or both.
- (e) If the underlying crime is a felony punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more but less than 15 years, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 15 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both.
- (f) If the underlying crime is a felony punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of 15 years or more or for life, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 20 years or a fine of not more than $20,000.00, or both.

prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) is punishable by up to 20 years imprisonment regardless of the minor's age. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(2) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution).

Similarly, Michigan's buyer-applicable CSEC law does not stagger penalties based on a minor's age; however, buyers face minimal penalty under this provision. A violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty) is only punishable by up to 5 years imprisonment. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(4) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior conviction; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services' "prior conviction" defined).

2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.

Buyers of sex with minors may face fines in the following amounts: $20,000 for a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor), $10,000 for a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a(2) (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), $500 for a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520e (Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree; misdemeanor) and $5,000–$20,000 for a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d (Use of internet or computer system; prohibited communication), depending on the underlying crime. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.462f(2), 750.451(4), 750.520e(2), 750.145d(2)(a)–(f). Buyers convicted of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a may be required to pay fines up to $500 for a first conviction, up to $1,000 if they have 1 prior conviction, and up to $2,000 if they have 2 prior convictions. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.449a, 750.451. A buyer convicted of violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145a (Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose) may be ordered to pay a fine of up to $4,000 for a first offense and up to $10,000 for each subsequent offense. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.145a, 750.145b(1).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766b (Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution) requires buyers to pay restitution to their victims. It states,

When sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense described in chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan penal code [Human trafficking] . . . the court shall order restitution for the full amount of loss suffered by the victim. In addition to restitution ordered under section 16 [§ 780.766],<sup>19</sup> the court may order the defendant to pay all of the following:

- (a) Lost income, calculated by whichever of the following methods results in the largest amount:
  - (i) The gross amount received by the defendant from or the value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services.
  - (ii) The value of the victim's labor or services as calculated under the minimum wage law of 1964, 1964 PA 154, MCL 408.381 to 408.398 [repealed], or the federal minimum wage, whichever results in the largest value.
  - (iii) Income loss as determined under section 16(4)(c).
- (b) The cost of transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense.
- (c) Attorney fees and other costs and expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense, including, but not limited to, costs and expenses relating to assisting the investigation of the offense and for attendance at related court proceedings as follows:

<sup>19</sup> See below in this section for discussion of restitution required under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766 ("Victim" defined; restitution; order; condition of probation, parole, or sentence; revocation of probation or parole; petition to modify payment method; lien; enforcement; failure to pay restitution; payment by parent of juvenile; definitions; review; report or petition; compliance; copy of order to department of corrections; disposition of unclaimed restitution; amendment of order; effect of bankruptcy; victim as minor).

- (i) Wages lost.
  - (ii) Child care.
  - (iii) Transportation.
  - (iv) Parking.
- (d) Any other loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense.

Convicted buyers are also required to pay mandatory restitution under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(2) (“Victim” defined; order of restitution generally), which states in part,

Except as provided in subsection (8),<sup>20</sup> when sentencing a defendant convicted of a crime, the court shall order, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty authorized by law or in addition to any other penalty required by law, that the defendant make full restitution to any victim of the defendant’s course of conduct that gives rise to the conviction or to the victim’s estate . . . .

In addition, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(6) states,

In addition to any mandatory restitution applicable under section 16 of the William Van Regenmorter crime victim's rights act, 1985 PA 87, MCL 780.766 [“Victim” defined; order of restitution generally], the court may order a person convicted of violating this section to pay restitution to the victim in the manner provided in section 16b of the William Van Regenmorter crime victim's rights act, 1985 PA 87, MCL 780.766b, and to reimburse any governmental entity for its expenses incurred in relation to the violation in the same manner that expenses may be ordered to be reimbursed under section 1f of chapter IX of the code of criminal procedure, 1927 PA 175, MCL 769.1f.

Convicted buyers may face asset forfeiture under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.4702(1) (Property subject to seizure and forfeiture; exception; encumbrances; substituted proceeds of crime), which states,

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the following property is subject to seizure by, and forfeiture to, a local unit of government or this state under this chapter:

- (a) All personal property that is the proceeds of a crime,<sup>21</sup> the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.

The court shall order restitution to the crime victim services commission or to any individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, governmental entities, or other legal entities that have compensated the victim or the victim’s estate for a loss incurred by the victim to the extent of the compensation paid for that loss. The court shall also order restitution for the costs of services provided to persons or entities that have provided services to the victim as a result of the crime. Services that are subject to restitution under this subsection include, but are not limited to, shelter, food, clothing, and transportation. However, an order of restitution shall require that all restitution to a victim or victim’s estate under the order be made before any restitution to any other person or entity under that order is made. The court shall not order restitution to be paid to a victim or victim’s estate if the victim or victim’s estate has received or is to receive compensation for that loss, and the court shall state on the record with specificity the reasons for its action.

Additionally, under subsection (9), “[a]ny amount paid to a victim or victim’s estate under an order of restitution shall be set off against any amount later recovered as compensatory damages by the victim or the victim’s estate in any federal or state civil proceeding and shall reduce the amount payable to a victim or a victim’s estate by an award from the crime victim services commission made after an order of restitution under this section.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(9).

<sup>21</sup> Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.4701(a)(viii)(B) (Property subject to seizure and forfeiture; exception; encumbrances; substituted proceeds of crime), “[c]rime” is defined to include “a violation of . . . Chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan penal code [Human trafficking].”

(b) All real property that is the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime, except real property that is the primary residence of the spouse or a dependent child of the owner, unless that spouse or dependent child had prior knowledge of, and consented to the commission of, the crime.

(c) In the case of a crime that is a violation . . . Michigan penal code . . . 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking] . . . all property described in subdivisions (a) and (b), and all real property or personal property that performed 1 of the following functions:

(i) Contributed directly and materially to the commission of the crime.

(ii) Was used to conceal the crime.

(iii) Was used to escape from the scene of the crime.

(iv) Was used to conceal the identity of 1 or more of the individuals who committed the crime.

Additionally, buyers may be subject to asset forfeiture under the nuisance law. Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3801 (Nuisance; injunction; abatement; guilt; “controlled substance” defined),

(1) A building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place is a nuisance if 1 or more of the following apply:

(a) It is used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, or gambling.

(b) It is used by, or kept for the use of, prostitutes or other disorderly persons.

(f) It is used for conduct prohibited by chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan Penal Code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking].

(2) All furniture, fixtures, and contents of a building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place described in subsection (1) and all intoxicating liquors in the building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place are also declared a nuisance.

(4) A person, or a servant, agent, or employee of the person, who owns, leases, conducts, or maintains a building, vehicle, or place described in subsection (1) is guilty of a nuisance.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3830(2) (Removal and sale of property; fees; closing of building; loss of property exemptions; liability of officers) states,

Any person found guilty of maintaining a nuisance under the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the benefit of all property exemptions, so far as the satisfaction of the order or judgment of the court requires the same, and the taking and disposing of any property of the defendant or defendants by virtue of such order or judgment by any officer directed to execute the same is not a trespass, nor shall such officer be liable either civilly or criminally therefor, if a proper return of such order or judgment and accounting for such property is made to the court within 10 days after the order or judgment is executed.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3825 (Order of abatement; execution of court order; duties of officer; use of building or place ordered closed; contempt; determination of amount due victim) further directs that “[i]f the court in an action under this chapter declares property to be a nuisance under section 3801(1)(f), the officer executing the order of the court shall first pay from the proceeds any amount determined by the court to be due to the victim . . . For purposes of determining the amount due to a victim under this subsection, the court shall consider the loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the conduct and may use as guidance the items of loss enumerated in . . . MCL 780.766b [Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution].

2.9 Buying and possessing images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(4) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) states, with certain exceptions,

A person who knowingly possesses or knowingly seeks and accesses any child sexually abusive material is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 4 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both, if that person knows, has reason to know, or should reasonably be expected to know the child is a child or that the child sexually abusive material includes a child or that the depiction constituting the child sexually abusive material appears to include a child, or that person has not taken reasonable precautions to determine the age of the child . . . .

In comparison, a federal conviction for possession of images of child sexual exploitation (ICSE)<sup>22</sup> is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>23</sup> Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>24</sup>

2.9.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(4) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) to impose more substantial penalties that reflect the seriousness of the offense.

2.10 Convicted buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are required to register as sex offenders.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.723 (Individuals required to be registered) provides that, among others, persons convicted of a listed offense “who are domiciled or temporarily reside in this state or who work with or without compensation or are students in this state are required to be registered under this act.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.723(1). “Listed offense” is defined as “a tier I, tier II, or tier III offense.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.722(j) (Definitions). Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.722(s), a “Tier I offense” is defined as,

1 or more of the following:

(i) A violation of section 145c(4) [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties] of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.145c.

(iv) A violation of section 449a(2) of the Michigan Penal Code, 18 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.449A [Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty]

1 or more of the following:

- (iv) A violation of section 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree; felony], [or] 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree; felony] . . . of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.520b, 750.520d . . . . This subparagraph does not apply if the court determines that the victim consented to the conduct constituting the violation, that the victim was at least 13 years of age but less than 16 years of age at the time of the offense, and that the individual is not more than 4 years older than the victim.
- (v) A violation of section 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree; felony] . . . of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.520c . . . committed against an individual less than 13 years of age.

Legal Components:

- 3.1 Penalties for trafficking a child for sexual exploitation are as high as federal penalties.
- 3.2 Creating and distributing images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.
- 3.3 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit or sell commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for traffickers.
- 3.4 Financial penalties for traffickers, including asset forfeiture, are sufficiently high.
- 3.5 Convicted traffickers are required to register as sex offenders.
- 3.6 Laws relating to parental custody and termination of parental rights include sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as grounds for sole custody or termination in order to prevent traffickers from exploiting their parental rights as a form of control.

Legal Analysis:

- 3.1 Penalties for trafficking a child for sexual exploitation are as high as federal penalties.

Michigan’s human trafficking laws applicable to traffickers carry significant penalties. A violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) is a felony punishable by a sentence of imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine of up to $20,000, or both.<sup>25</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(2) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution). To the extent that a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e “involves kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap,” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(d) provides that a trafficker may receive a sentence of imprisonment “for life or any term of years.”

Traffickers also may be prosecuted under Michigan’s CSEC laws. A trafficker convicted of violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.13 (Taking or enticing away minor under sixteen years; violation as felony; penalty) is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years.<sup>26</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.13.

A trafficker convicted of violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) will receive a sentence of imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine up to $100,000, or both.<sup>27</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2).

A trafficker could be charged with money laundering under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411k (Proceeds of criminal offense), which states,

- (1) A person shall not knowingly receive or acquire a monetary instrument or other property that constitutes the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a specified criminal offense with prior actual knowledge of both of the following:
  - (a) The monetary instrument or other property represents the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a criminal offense.
  - (b) The receipt or acquisition of the proceeds or substituted proceeds meets 1 or more of the following criteria:

- (i) It will aid that person or another person in promoting or carrying on the criminal offense from which the proceeds or substituted proceeds were derived or any other criminal offense.
  - (ii) It is designed, in whole or in part, to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense or to avoid a transaction reporting requirement under state or federal law.
- (2) A person shall not knowingly conduct, attempt to conduct, or participate in conducting or attempting to conduct a financial transaction involving a monetary instrument or other property that constitutes the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a specified criminal offense with prior actual knowledge of both of the following:
- (a) The monetary instrument or other property represents the proceeds or substituted proceeds of a criminal offense.
  - (b) The financial transaction meets 1 or more of the following criteria:
    - (i) It will aid that person or another person in promoting or carrying on the criminal offense from which the proceeds or substituted proceeds were derived or any other criminal offense.
    - (ii) It is designed, in whole or in part, to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense, or to avoid a transaction reporting requirement under state or federal law.

First-degree money laundering is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine up to $500,000 “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” or both imprisonment and a fine. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411o(2) (First-degree money laundering). First-degree money laundering occurs, pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411o(1), if all of the following circumstances exist:

- (a) The value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation is $10,000.00 or more.<sup>28</sup>
- (b) The specified criminal offense involved in the violation is a controlled substance offense, or an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit a controlled substance offense.
- (c) The violation is committed with the intent to do 1 or more of the following:
  - (i) Promote the commission of the criminal offense from which the proceeds or substituted proceeds were derived or any other criminal offense.
  - (ii) Conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense or avoid a transaction reporting requirement under state or federal law.

Second-degree money laundering is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine up to $100,000 “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” or both imprisonment and a fine. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411n(2) (Second-degree money laundering). Second-degree money laundering occurs, pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411n(1), if the amount involved is greater than $10,000 and one of the following circumstances exists:

- (a) The specified criminal offense involved in the violation is a controlled substance offense, or an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit a controlled substance offense.
- (b) The violation is committed with the intent to do 1 or more of the following:
  - (i) Promote the commission of the criminal offense from which the proceeds or substituted proceeds were derived or any other criminal offense.
  - (ii) Conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense or avoid a transaction reporting requirement under state or federal law.

Third-degree money laundering is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 5 years, a fine up to $50,000 “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” or both imprisonment and a fine. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411m(2) (Third-degree money laundering). Third-degree money laundering occurs, pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411m(1), if one of the following circumstances exists:

- (a) The value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation is $10,000.00 or more.
- (b) The specified criminal offense involved in the violation is a controlled substance offense, or an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit a controlled substance offense.
- (c) The violation is committed with the intent to do 1 or more of the following:
  - (i) Promote the commission of the criminal offense from which the proceeds or substituted proceeds were derived or any other criminal offense.
  - (ii) Conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense or avoid a transaction reporting requirement under state or federal law.

Fourth-degree money laundering is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment up to 2 years, a fine up to $10,000 “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” or both imprisonment and a fine. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411l (Fourth-degree money laundering).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense<sup>29</sup> against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1).

3.2 Creating and distributing images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2), (3) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) prohibits the creation and distribution of images of child sexual exploitation (ICSE).<sup>30</sup> A trafficker who is convicted of violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2) for creating ICSE may receive imprisonment up to 20 years, a fine up to $100,000, or both, if the trafficker “knows, has reason to know, or should reasonably be expected to know that the child is a child or that the child sexually abusive material includes a child or that the depiction constituting the child sexually abusive material appears to include a child, or that person has not taken reasonable precautions to determine the age of the child.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(2). A trafficker convicted of violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(3) for distributing ICSE is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 7 years, a fine not to exceed $50,000, or both. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(3).

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the trafficker has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense<sup>31</sup> against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). Additionally, a federal conviction for distribution of ICSE<sup>32</sup> is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>33</sup> Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>34</sup>

3.3 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, recruit or sell commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for traffickers.

Michigan does not expressly criminalize the use of the Internet to lure, entice, recruit, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor; however, the use of the Internet to communicate with a minor while intending to commit, or attempting to commit, a violation of specified sexual offense laws is illegal under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) (Use of Internet or computer system; prohibited communication), which states,

A person shall not use the internet or a computer,<sup>35</sup> computer program,<sup>36</sup> computer network,<sup>37</sup> or computer system<sup>38</sup> to communicate with any person for the purpose of doing any of the following:
(a) Committing, attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or soliciting another person to commit conduct proscribed under section 145a [Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose], 145c [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties] . . . 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree; felony], 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree; felony], 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree; felony], [or] 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree; misdemeanor] . . . in which the victim or intended victim is a minor or is believed by that person to be a minor.

The penalty for violating Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) depends on the penalty applicable to the underlying offense, the purpose for which the defendant solicited the minor. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(2).<sup>39</sup>

3.4 Financial penalties for traffickers, including asset forfeiture, are sufficiently high.

Traffickers may receive fines in the following amounts: up to $4,000 for a first violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145a (Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose), up to $10,000 for a second

Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.145a, 750.145b(1), 750.145c(2), 750.145c(3), 750.159j(1). Additionally, traffickers may receive fines up to $5,000–$20,000 for violations of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d (Use of internet or computer system; prohibited communication), and up to $20,000 for violations of Mich. Comp. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766b (Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution) provides for mandatory restitution and states,

When sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense described in chapter LXVIIA [Human trafficking] . . . the court shall order restitution for the full amount of loss suffered by the victim. In addition to restitution ordered under section 16 [§ 780.766],<sup>40</sup> the court may order the defendant to pay all of the following:

- (a) Lost income, calculated by whichever of the following methods results in the largest amount:
  - (i) The gross amount received by the defendant from or the value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services.
  - (ii) The value of the victim's labor or services as calculated under the minimum wage law of 1964, 1964 PA 154, MCL 408.381 to 408.398 [repealed], or the federal minimum wage, whichever results in the largest value.
  - (iii) Income loss as determined under section 16(4)(c).
- (b) The cost of transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense.
- (c) Attorney fees and other costs and expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense, including, but not limited to, costs and expenses relating to assisting the investigation of the offense and for attendance at related court proceedings as follows:
  - (i) Wages lost.
  - (ii) Child care.
  - (iii) Transportation.
  - (iv) Parking.
- (d) Any other loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(6) further provides that “the court may order a person convicted of violating this section to pay restitution to the victim in the manner provided in section 16b of the William Van Regenmorter Crime Victim's Rights Act, 1985 PA 87, MCL 780.766b . . . .”

Traffickers are generally subject to mandatory restitution orders pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766 (“Victim” defined; order of restitution generally; order of restitution as condition of probation or parole). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(2) states,

Except as provided in subsection (8),<sup>41</sup> when sentencing a defendant convicted of a crime, the court shall order, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty authorized by law or in addition to any other penalty required by law, that the defendant make full restitution to any victim of the defendant’s course of conduct that gives rise to the conviction or to the victim’s estate . . . .

<sup>40</sup> See infra for discussion of restitution pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(2) (“Victim” defined; restitution; order; condition of probation, parole, or sentence; revocation of probation or parole; petition to modify payment method; lien; enforcement; failure to pay restitution; payment by parent of juvenile; definitions; review; report or petition; compliance; copy of order to department of corrections; disposition of unclaimed restitution; amendment of order; effect of bankruptcy; victim as minor).

Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(24),

If the victim is a minor, the order of restitution shall require the defendant to pay to a parent of the victim an amount that is determined to be reasonable for any of the following that are actually incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the parent as a result of the crime:

- (a) Homemaking and child care expenses.
- (b) Income loss not ordered to be paid under subsection (4)(h).
- (c) Mileage.
- (d) Lodging or housing.
- (e) Meals.
- (f) Any other cost incurred in exercising the rights of the victim or a parent under this act.”

Convicted traffickers face asset forfeiture under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.4702(1) (Property subject to seizure and forfeiture; exception; encumbrances; substituted proceeds of crime), which states,

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the following property is subject to seizure by, and forfeiture to, a local unit of government or this state under this chapter:

- (a) All personal property that is the proceeds of a crime,<sup>42</sup> the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.
- (b) All real property that is the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime, except real property that is the primary residence of the spouse or a dependent child of the owner, unless that spouse or dependent child had prior knowledge of, and consented to the commission of, the crime.
- (c) In the case of a crime that is a violation . . . Michigan penal code . . . 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking] . . . all property described in subdivisions (a) and (b), and all real property or personal property that performed 1 of the following functions:

  - (ii) Was used to conceal the crime.
  - (iii) Was used to escape from the scene of the crime.
  - (iv) Was used to conceal the identity of 1 or more of the individuals who committed the crime.

Additionally, traffickers may be subject to asset forfeiture under the nuisance law. Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3801 (Nuisance; injunction; abatement; guilt; "controlled substance" defined),

- (1) A building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place is a nuisance if 1 or more of the following apply:
  - (a) It is used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, or gambling.
  - (b) It is used by, or kept for the use of, prostitutes or other disorderly persons.
  - . . . .
  - (f) It is used for conduct prohibited by chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan Penal Code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking].
- (2) All furniture, fixtures, and contents of a building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place described in subsection (1) and all intoxicating liquors in the building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place are also declared a nuisance.
- . . . .

Any person found guilty of maintaining a nuisance under the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the benefit of all property exemptions, so far as the satisfaction of the order or judgment of the court requires the same, and the taking and disposing of any property of the defendant or defendants by virtue of such order or judgment by any officer directed to execute the same is not a trespass, nor shall such officer be liable either civilly or criminally therefor, if a proper return of such order or judgment and accounting for such property is made to the court within 10 days after the order or judgment is executed.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3825 (Order of abatement; execution of court order; duties of officer; use of building or place ordered closed; contempt; determination of amount due victim) further directs,

[i]f the court in an action under this chapter declares property to be a nuisance under section 3801(1)(f), the officer executing the order of the court shall first pay from the proceeds any amount determined by the court to be due to the victim . . . . For purposes of determining the amount due to a victim under this subsection, the court shall consider the loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the conduct and may use as guidance the items of loss enumerated in . . . MCL 780.766b [Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution].

Asset forfeiture may also be available under Michigan’s law related to criminal enterprises. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159j(4) states,

The court shall order a person convicted of a violation of section 159i [Prohibited conduct] to criminally forfeit to the state any real, personal, or intangible property in which he or she has an interest and that was used in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through conduct in violation of section 159i, including any property constituting an interest in, means of control over, or influence over the enterprise involved in the violation and any property constituting proceeds derived from the violation . . . .

A conviction for money laundering under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.411k (Proceeds of criminal offense; receipt; acquisition; financial transaction) can result in fines from up to $10,000–$500,000, “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” depending on the degree of the violation.<sup>43</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.411l, 750.411m(2), 750.411n(2), 750.411o(2).

3.5 Convicted traffickers are required to register as sex offenders.

A trafficker convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct with regard to age of minor) and certain CSEC laws will be required to register as a sex offender pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.723 (Individuals required to be registered). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.723 requires registration when an offender is convicted of violating a “listed offense” which is defined as “a tier I, tier II, or tier III offense.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 28.723(1)(a), 28.722(j) (Definitions). Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.722(s), a “Tier I offense” is defined as,

1 or more of the following:

(i) A violation of section 145c(4) [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties] of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.145c.

- (ix) An offense substantially similar to an offense described in subparagraphs (i) to (viii) under a law of the United States that is specifically enumerated in 42 USC 16911, under a law of any state or any country, or under tribal or military law.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.722(u) provides that Tier II offenses include,

3.6 Laws relating to parental custody and termination of parental rights include sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as grounds for sole custody or termination in order to prevent traffickers from exploiting their parental rights as a form of control.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.19b(3)<sup>44</sup> (Termination of parental rights to child) does not include a violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct with regard to age of minor) or any of Michigan’s CSEC laws as grounds for terminating parental rights. Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.19b(3), however, the court may terminate parental rights based on a conviction for certain other offenses or for subjecting a child to sexual abuse. Specifically, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.19b(3) states,

The court may terminate a parent’s parental rights to a child if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 1 or more of the following:

- .....
- (b) The child or a sibling of the child has suffered physical injury or physical or sexual abuse under 1 or more of the following circumstances:
  - (i) The parent’s act caused the physical injury or physical or sexual abuse and the court finds

(ii) The parent who had the opportunity to prevent the physical injury or physical or sexual abuse failed to do so and the court finds that there is a reasonable likelihood that the child will suffer injury or abuse in the foreseeable future if placed in the parent's home.

(k) The parent abused the child or a sibling of the child, the abuse included 1 or more of the following, and there is a reasonable likelihood that the child will be harmed if returned to the care of the parent:

(ii) Criminal sexual conduct involving penetration, attempted penetration, or assault with intent to penetrate.

(m) The parent is convicted of 1 or more of the following, and the court determines that termination is in the child's best interests because continuing the parent-child relationship with the parent would be harmful to the child:

(ii) A violation of a criminal statute that includes as an element the use of force or the threat of force and that subjects the parent to sentencing under section 10, 11, or 12 of chapter IX of the code of criminal procedure, 1927 PA 175, MCL 769.10 [Punishment for subsequent felony], 769.11 [Punishment for subsequent felony following conviction of 2 or more felonies], and 769.12 [Punishment for subsequent felony following conviction of 3 or more felonies].

Legal Components:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.
- 4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.
- 4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.
- 4.4 Promoting and selling images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Legal Analysis:

- 4.1 The acts of assisting, enabling, or financially benefitting from child sex trafficking are included as criminal offenses in the state sex trafficking statute.

Facilitators face criminal liability for benefitting financially from sex trafficking under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462d (Prohibited conduct) which states,

A person shall not do either of the following:

- (a) Knowingly recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain an individual by any means, knowing that individual will be subjected to forced labor or services or debt bondage.
- (b) Knowingly benefit financially or receive anything of value from participation in an enterprise, as that term is defined in section 159f<sup>45</sup>, if the enterprise has engaged in an act proscribed under this chapter.

A conviction is punishable by up to 10 years imprisonment, a possible fine of up to $10,000, or both. However, “[i]f the violation results in . . . an individual being engaged in commercial sexual activity, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 15 years or a fine of not more than $15,000, or both.” The penalty will be further enhanced to 20 years imprisonment, a possible fine of up to $20,000, or both if serious bodily injury results or to life imprisonment, a possible fine of $50,000, or both if the violation involves “kidnapping or attempted kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or attempted criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, or an attempt to kill or the death of an individual.”<sup>46</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(1)(a)–(d) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of the same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution).

A facilitator could also be prosecuted under Michigan’s money laundering statutes and face punishments from imprisonment up to 2–20 imprisonment, fines from up to $10,000–$500,000, “or twice the value of the proceeds or substituted proceeds of the specified criminal offense involved in the violation, whichever is greater,” or imprisonment and a fine, depending on the degree of the violation.<sup>47</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.411l, 750.411m(2), 750.411n(2), 750.411o(2).

<sup>45</sup> Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.159f(a), an “[e]nterprise” includes an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust, union, association, governmental unit, or other legal entity or a group of persons associated in fact although not a legal entity. Enterprise includes illicit as well as licit enterprises.”

4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.

Facilitators face a maximum fine of $50,000 for the promotion and distribution of images of child sexual exploitation (ICSE) under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(3) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties). Facilitators convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462d (Prohibited conduct) face fines ranging from of up to $10,000, enhanced to $15,000 when bodily injury occurs or results in the individual being engaged in commercial sexual activity, $20,000 when serious bodily injury occurs, and to life in prison if the violation involves “kidnapping or attempted kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or attempted criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, or an attempt to kill or the death of an individual.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(1)(a)–(d) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766b (Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution) provides for mandatory restitution and states, “When sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense described in chapter LXVIIA [Human trafficking] . . . the court shall order restitution for the full amount of loss suffered by the victim.”<sup>48</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(6) also provides that restitution is available under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766b for victims of facilitators convicted under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462d.<sup>49</sup>

Convicted facilitators may be subject to asset forfeiture under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.4702(1) (Property subject to seizure and forfeiture’ exception’ encumbrances’ substituted proceeds of crime), which states,

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the following property is subject to seizure by, and forfeiture to, a local unit of government or this state under this chapter:

- (a) All personal property that is the proceeds of a crime,<sup>50</sup> the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime.
- (b) All real property that is the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, or an instrumentality of a crime, except real property that is the primary residence of the spouse or a dependent child of the owner, unless that spouse or dependent child had prior knowledge of, and consented to the commission of, the crime.
- (c) In the case of a crime that is a violation . . . Michigan penal code . . . 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking] . . . all property described in subdivisions (a) and (b), and all real property or personal property that performed 1 of the following functions:
  - (i) Contributed directly and materially to the commission of the crime.
  - (ii) Was used to conceal the crime.
  - (iii) Was used to escape from the scene of the crime.
  - (iv) Was used to conceal the identity of 1 or more of the individuals who committed the crime.

Additionally, facilitators may be subject to asset forfeiture under the nuisance law. Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3801 (Nuisance; injunction; abatement; guilt; "controlled substance" defined),

- (1) A building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place is a nuisance if 1 or more of the following apply:
  - (a) It is used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, or gambling.
  - (b) It is used by, or kept for the use of, prostitutes or other disorderly persons.

<sup>49</sup> Facilitators are generally required to make restitution pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(2) (“Victim” defined; order of restitution generally; order of restitution as condition of probation or parole). See infra Component 5.10 for a full discussion of restitution calculation.

(f) It is used for conduct prohibited by chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan Penal Code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking].

(2) All furniture, fixtures, and contents of a building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place described in subsection (1) and all intoxicating liquors in the building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or place are also declared a nuisance.

(4) A person, or a servant, agent, or employee of the person, who owns, leases, conducts, or maintains a building, vehicle, or place described in subsection (1) is guilty of a nuisance.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3830(2) (Removal and sale of property; fees; closing of building; loss of property exemptions; liability of officers) states,

Any person found guilty of maintaining a nuisance under the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the benefit of all property exemptions, so far as the satisfaction of the order or judgment of the court requires the same, and the taking and disposing of any property of the defendant or defendants by virtue of such order or judgment by any officer directed to execute the same is not a trespass, nor shall such officer be liable either civilly or criminally therefor, if a proper return of such order or judgment and accounting for such property is made to the court within 10 days after the order or judgment is executed.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.3825 (Order of abatement; execution of court order; duties of officer; use of building or place ordered closed; contempt; determination of amount due victim) further directs that “[i]f the court in an action under this chapter declares property to be a nuisance under section 3801(1)(f), the officer executing the order of the court shall first pay from the proceeds any amount determined by the court to be due to the victim . . . . For purposes of determining the amount due to a victim under this subsection, the court shall consider the loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the conduct and may use as guidance the items of loss enumerated in . . . MCL 780.766b [Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution].”

4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.

Child sex tourism is criminalized under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(2) (Transporting person for prostitution; sale of travel services for purposes of prostitution or human trafficking; conduct against minor; felony; “travel services” defined), which states,

A person shall not knowingly sell or offer to sell travel services<sup>51</sup> that include or facilitate travel for the purpose of engaging in what would be a violation of this chapter, concerning prostitution, or of chapter LXVIIA, concerning human trafficking, if the violation occurred in this state. Except as provided in subsection (3), a person who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 5 years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(3) enhances the penalty if the victim is a minor, stating, “If a person violates subsection (2) and the violation involves conduct against a minor, the person is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 10 years or a fine of not more than $15,000.00, or both.”

<sup>51</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.459(5) defines “travel services” as “transportation by air, sea, or ground, hotel or other lodging accommodations, package tours, or the provision of vouchers or coupons to be redeemed for future travel, or accommodations for a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration.”

4.4 Promoting and selling images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(3) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties) makes the distribution and promotion of images of child sexual exploitation (ICSE) a felony.<sup>52</sup> A violation of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c(3) is punishable by imprisonment up to 7 years, a fine up to $50,000, or both, where the facilitator “knows, has reason to know, or should reasonably be expected to know that the child is a child or that the child sexually abusive material includes a child or that the depiction constituting the child sexually abusive material appears to include a child, or that person has not taken reasonable precautions to determine the age of the child.”

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the TVPA for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the facilitator has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense<sup>53</sup> against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). Additionally, a federal conviction for distribution of ICSE<sup>54</sup> is generally punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>55</sup> Subsequent convictions, however, are punishable by imprisonment up to 40 years and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>56</sup>

Legal Components:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.
- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.
- 5.3 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses
- 5.4 State law provides a non-punitive avenue to specialized services through one or more points of entry.
- 5.5 Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.
- 5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.
- 5.7 Crime victims’ compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).
- 5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.
- 5.9 Child sex trafficking victims may vacate delinquency adjudications and expunge related records for prostitution and other offenses arising from trafficking victimization, without a waiting period.
- 5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.
- 5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Legal Analysis:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.<sup>57</sup>

Michigan’s human trafficking offense includes all commercial sexual exploitation of minors. Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.462e(a) (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor), when the victim is a minor, means of force, fraud, or coercion are not required.<sup>58</sup> In addition, the human trafficking law applies to buyers through the term “obtain,” regardless of third party control; thus, buying commercial sex with a person who is under the age of eighteen constitutes human trafficking.<sup>59</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e(a). Consequently, Michigan’s human trafficking offense includes any child who is bought for sex, regardless of whether force, fraud, or coercion is used, regardless of whether a buyer exploited the youth without a trafficker’s involvement, and regardless of whether the victim identifies a trafficker. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e.

- 5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.

Although Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) does not expressly prohibit a defense based on the willingness of the minor to engage in the commercial sex act, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462h (Relevancy of resistance or lack of resistance) states, “In a prosecution under this chapter, the victim’s resistance or lack of resistance to the actor is not relevant.”

<sup>57</sup> See generally Shared Hope International, “Eliminating the Third Party Control Barrier to Identifying Juvenile Sex Trafficking Victims,” JuST Response Policy Paper (2015), http://sharedhope.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Policy-Paper\_Eliminating-Third-Party-Control\_Final1.pdf (discussing need to include all commercially sexually exploited children within sex trafficking definitions and corresponding need to include buyer conduct in core sex trafficking offenses regardless of whether victim is under control of a third party).

Accordingly, a defendant would be prohibited from asserting such a defense in a prosecution for human trafficking.

5.3 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.<sup>60</sup>

Michigan’s prostitution laws eliminate liability for prostitution offenses for some, but not all, minors. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.448 (Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act) makes it a crime for “[a] person 16 years of age or older who accosts, solicits, or invites another person in a public place or in or from a building or vehicle, by word, gesture, or any other means, to commit prostitution or to do any other lewd or immoral act . . . .”

Criminal liability is not eliminated for juvenile sex trafficking victims aged 16 or 17. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined) establishes a rebuttable presumption that a “person under 18 years of age” who is prosecuted for “an offense punishable under this section [§ 750.451]<sup>61</sup> . . . was coerced into child sexually abusive activity or commercial sexual activity in violation of section 462e [Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor] or otherwise forced or coerced into committing that offense by another person engaged in human trafficking in violation of sections 462a to 462h [Human trafficking].” However, minors who are 16–17 remain subject to arrest and conviction or adjudication for prostitution if that presumption is rebutted or they are unwilling or unable to participate in court-ordered services. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.448, 750.451(6). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6) provides,

In any prosecution of a person under 18 years of age for an offense punishable under this section or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to an offense punishable under this section, it shall be presumed that the person under 18 years of age was coerced into child sexually abusive activity or commercial sexual activity in violation of section 462e or otherwise forced or coerced into committing that offense by another person engaged in human trafficking in violation of sections 462a to 462h. The prosecution may overcome this presumption by proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the person was not forced or coerced into committing the offense. The state may petition the court to find the person under 18 years of age to be dependent and in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm under section 2(b)(3) of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2.<sup>62</sup> A person under 18 years of age who fails to substantially comply with court-ordered services under section 2(b)(3) of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2, is not eligible for the presumption under this section.

5.3.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.448 (Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime) to ensure that all minors are protected from

<sup>61</sup> Offenses punishable under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451 include, among other prostitution-related offenses, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 448 (Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime), 449 (Admitting to place for purpose of prostitution; crime), 449a (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; engaging services with person less than 18 years of age for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty), 750.450 (Aiding, assisting, or abetting; penalty), or 750.462 (Female 16 years of age or less in house of prostitution; crime).

<sup>62</sup> While a 17 year old who commits a criminal offense would generally be directed into the adult criminal justice process rather than the delinquency process, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.2(b)(3) (Authority and jurisdiction of court) extends original jurisdiction of the family division to include juveniles under 18 who are “dependent and . . . in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm,” which includes a juvenile “alleged to have committed a commercial sexual activity as that term is defined in section 462a of the Michigan penal code [Human trafficking] or a delinquent act that is the result of force, fraud, coercion, or manipulation exercised by a parent or other adult.”

Upon encountering a child engaged in prostitution or related conduct, law enforcement must report the case to the department of health and human services (DHHS) as a suspected human trafficking violation. Laws Ann. § 750.451(7) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined) provides,

Excluding any reasonable period of detention for investigation purposes, a law enforcement officer who encounters a person under 18 years of age engaging in any conduct that would be a violation of section 448 [Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime], 449 [Admitting to place for purpose of prostitution; crime], 450 [Aiding, assisting, or abetting; penalty], or 462 [Female 16 years of age or less in house of prostitution; crime], or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to section 448, 449, 450, or 462, if engaged in by a person 16 years of age or over shall immediately report to the department of health and human services a suspected violation of human trafficking involving a person under 18 years of age in violation of sections 462a to 462h [Human trafficking].

In turn, DHHS shall launch an investigation within 24 hours. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(8). “The investigation shall include a determination as to whether the person under 18 years of age is dependent and in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm under section 2(b)(3) of . . . MCL 712A.2 [Authority and jurisdiction of court].” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(8).

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.14(3) (Officers or county agent authorized to take child into custody; notice; detention facility; release of child; preliminary hearing; order; placement of child; foster care home services), placement options pending investigation and adjudication include:

- (a) In the home of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian.
- (b) If a child is within the court's jurisdiction under section 2(a) of this chapter, in a suitable foster care home subject to the court's supervision. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5), if a child is within the court's jurisdiction under section 2(b) of this chapter, the court shall not place a child in a foster care home subject to the court's supervision.
- (c) In a child care institution or child placing agency licensed by the department of human services to receive for care children within the jurisdiction of the court.
- (d) In a suitable place of detention.

Child serving agencies must consider a child’s status as a human trafficking victim in making placement decisions and must ensure access to specialized services. Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.954e (Child as victim of human trafficking; placement in setting providing mental health services, counseling, or other specialized services),

Before determining placement of a child in its care, a supervising agency shall give special

II. Services through juvenile justice

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.448 (Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act) prohibits the criminalization of minors under 16 for prostitution offenses, and Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6) (Violation of MCL 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a(1), 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; prosecution of person under 18 years of age; presumption; report; investigation by department of human services; “prior conviction” defined) provides all minors with a rebuttable presumption of coercion, stating, “it shall be presumed that the person under 18 years of age was coerced into child sexually abusive activity or commercial sexual activity . . . .”<sup>64</sup>

Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6) further provides, that “[t]he state may petition the court to find the person under 18 years of age to be dependent and in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm under section 2(b)(3) of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2.”

If the case proceeds, the family division of the circuit court typically only has jurisdiction in proceedings concerning juveniles under 17 years of age, but Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.2(b)(3)(C) (Authority and jurisdiction of court) makes an exception if the juvenile was engaged in commercial sexual activity.<sup>65</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.2(b)(3)(C) states,

The court has the following authority and jurisdiction:

(b) Jurisdiction in proceedings concerning a juvenile under 18 years of age found within the county:

(3) If the juvenile is dependent and is in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm. The juvenile may be found to be dependent when any of the following occurs:

(C) The juvenile is alleged to have committed a commercial sexual activity as that term is defined in section 462a of the Michigan penal code . . . [Human trafficking] or a delinquent act that is the result of force, fraud, coercion, or manipulation exercised by a parent or other adult.

The court may order a number of dispositional alternatives under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18 (Orders of disposition) and § 712A.11 (Preliminary inquiry; petition), including participation in a voluntary program under the Juvenile Diversion Act, codified at Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.821 to § 722.831. In making certain placement decisions, however, the child’s status as a human trafficking victim should be considered. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.954e.

<sup>64</sup> However, “[a] person under 18 years of age who fails to substantially comply with court-ordered services under section 2(b)(3) of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.2, is not eligible for the presumption under this section.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451(6). See supra Component 5.3 for a full discussion of provisions related to the non-criminalization of minors for prostitution offenses.

<sup>65</sup> To the extent that juvenile sex trafficking victims who are 17 years old are directed into the adult criminal justice process rather than the delinquency process, they may be able to avoid a prostitution conviction by participating in the deferred sentencing process established under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451c (Individual as victim of human trafficking violation; applicability of subsection (2); deferred proceedings; duties of court; violation of term or condition of probation; adjudication of guilt; circumstances; discharge and dismissal; proceedings open to public; record; nonpublic record; “human trafficking violation” defined), which allows victims of sex trafficking to have their proceedings deferred and permits them to successfully complete probation in lieu of conviction. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.451c(1)–(2), (6).

Summary

Michigan law mandates referral to and provision of specialized services by DHHS. However, only minors under 16 years of age are protected from delinquency proceedings based on current non-criminalization laws.

5.5 Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.<sup>66</sup>

Child sex trafficking is not identified as a type of abuse and neglect within Michigan’s child protection statutes; however, some types of commercial sexual exploitation are expressly identified as a type of abuse and neglect. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(g) (Definitions) defines “child abuse” to include “harm or threatened harm to a child’s health or welfare that occurs through nonaccidental physical or mental injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, or maltreatment, by a parent, a legal guardian, or any other person responsible for the child’s health or welfare or by a teacher, a teacher’s aide, or a member of the clergy.”

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(z) defines “sexual abuse” as “engaging in sexual contact or sexual penetration as those terms are defined in section 520a of the Michigan penal code . . . with a child,” and Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(aa) defines “sexual exploitation” as “allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution, or allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the photographing, filming, or depicting of a child engaged in a listed sexual act as defined in section 145c of the Michigan penal code [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties] . . . .”

However, conduct criminalized under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) and § 750.13 (Taking or enticing away minor under sixteen years; violation as felony; penalty) is not expressly identified as a type of child abuse.

5.5.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(g) (Definitions) to include human trafficking in the definition of “child abuse.”

5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.

The definition of caregiver does not limit a juvenile sex trafficking victim’s access to services through child welfare<sup>67</sup> because a child who has been commercially sexually exploited may be deemed “dependent” under

<sup>67</sup> However, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(x) (Definitions) defines “person responsible for the child’s health or welfare” in part as “a parent, legal guardian, person 18 years of age or older who resides for any length of time in the same home in which the child resides, or . . . nonparent adult . . . .” Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(v) defines “nonparent adult” as a person who is 18 years of age or older and who, regardless of the person’s domicile, meets all of the following criteria in relation to a child:

- (i) Has substantial and regular contact with the child.
- (ii) Has a close personal relationship with the child’s parent or with a person responsible for the child’s health or welfare.
- (iii) Is not the child’s parent or a person otherwise related to the child by blood or affinity to the third degree.

Because the definition of abuse under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 722.622(g) requires fault “by a parent, a legal guardian, or any other person responsible for the child’s health or welfare” and because the definitions of “person responsible for the child’s health or welfare” and “nonparent” require legal custody or a close connection to the child’s family,” child protective services may be unable to intervene and provide services in some cases involving a minor trafficked by a non-family member.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.2(b)(3) (Authority and jurisdiction of court), which states,

The court has the following authority and jurisdiction:

(b) Jurisdiction in proceedings concerning a juvenile under 18 years of age found within the county:

.....
(3) If the juvenile is dependent and is in danger of substantial physical or psychological harm. The juvenile may be found to be dependent when any of the following occurs:

.....
(C) The juvenile is alleged to have committed a commercial sexual activity as that term is defined in section 462a of the Michigan penal code [Human trafficking] . . . or a delinquent act that is the result of force, fraud, coercion, or manipulation exercised by a parent or other adult.

5.7 Crime victims' compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(1)(a) (Eligibility for awards; limitations; waiver) of the Crime Victims Compensation Board Act<sup>68</sup> provides that a victim<sup>69</sup> of a crime is entitled to an award, unless the limitations in Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(2) apply. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(2) provides that “[a] person is not eligible to receive an award if the person is either of the following: (a) Criminally responsible for the crime. (b) An accomplice to the crime.” To the extent that a domestic minor sex trafficking victim can be considered criminally responsible or an accomplice to the relevant crime because of his or her participation in a commercial sex act, the provisions of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(2) could prevent some domestic minor sex trafficking victims from being eligible to receive an award.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(3) also requires that “the claimant has incurred a minimum out-of-pocket loss<sup>70</sup> of $200.00 or has lost at least 2 continuous weeks’ earnings or support”; however, “[i]f the claimant is a victim of criminal sexual conduct in the first, second, or third degree, the commission may waive the limitations of this subsection.”

Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.355(2), (3) (Claim; filing; notice) states,

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), a claim shall be filed by the claimant not later than 1 year after the occurrence of the crime upon which the claim is based, except as follows:

(a) If police records show that a victim of criminal sexual conduct in the first, second, or third degree was less than 18 years of age at the time of the occurrence and that the victim reported the crime before attaining 19 years of age, a claim based on that crime may be filed by [the victim or others eligible for awards] not later than 1 year after the crime was reported.

(3) Upon petition by the claimant and for good cause shown, the commission may extend the period in which a claim may be filed under subsection (2).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.355 does not clarify what constitutes “good cause” under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.355(3) for a claimant’s failure to file within the time limits imposed under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.355(2).

<sup>70</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.351(e) defines “out-of-pocket loss” as “the unreimbursed and unreimbursable expenses or indebtedness reasonably incurred for medical care, psychological counseling, replacement services, any nonmedical remedial treatment rendered in accordance with a recognized religious method of healing, or other services necessary as a result of the injury upon which a claim is based.”

- 5.7.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354 (Eligibility for awards; limitations; waiver) to make the ineligibility factors in Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.354(2) and (3) and the time restrictions on filing in Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.355(2) (Claim; filing; notice) inapplicable to minor victims of sex trafficking.
- 5.7.2 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 18.351(1)(f) (Definitions) to include psychological and emotional trauma in the definition of “personal physical injury” to ensure that sexually abused minors are considered victims.

5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.

The William Van Regenmorter Crime Victim’s Rights Act<sup>71</sup> provides several protections to victims of felony offenses or offenses punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, including, but not limited to, victims of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462b (Forced labor or services; prohibited) –§ 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.752(1)(b), (1)(m)(i).<sup>72</sup> For example, under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.757 (Waiting area for victim or other safeguards), “The court shall provide a waiting area for the victim separate from the defendant, defendant’s relatives, and defense witnesses,” or, “[i]f a separate waiting area is not available or practical, the court shall provide other safeguards to minimize the victim’s contact with defendant, defendant’s relatives, and defense witnesses during court proceedings.” Victims of certain sexual offenses have the right to a speedy trial pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.759(1) (Speedy trial; requirements; hearing; notice; time of trial). Victims may also be protected from having to testify about personal identifying information under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.758(1) (Motion not to compel testimony of victim or other witness; hearing).

Pursuant to Michigan Rules of Evidence Rule 803A (Hearsay exception; child’s statement about sexual act), Michigan also provides a hearsay exception in criminal and delinquency proceedings for child witnesses testifying about a sexual act, which states in part,

A statement describing an incident that included a sexual act performed with or on the declarant by the defendant or an accomplice is admissible to the extent that it corroborates testimony given by the declarant during the same proceeding, provided:

- (1) the declarant was under the age of ten when the statement was made;
- (2) the statement is shown to have been spontaneous and without indication of manufacture;
- (3) either the declarant made the statement immediately after the incident or any delay is excusable as having been caused by fear or other equally effective [sic] circumstance; and
- (4) the statement is introduced through the testimony of someone other than the declarant.

If the declarant made more than one corroborative statement about the incident, only the first is admissible under this rule.

A statement may not be admitted under this rule unless the proponent of the statement makes known to the adverse party the intent to offer the statement, and the particulars of the statement, sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet the statement.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462g (Testimony) contains special provisions regarding testimony in a

<sup>72</sup> However, “[a]n individual who is charged with a crime arising out of the same transaction from which the charge against the defendant arose is not eligible to exercise the privileges and rights established for victims under this article,” and “[a]n individual who is incarcerated is not eligible to exercise the privileges and rights established for victims under this article except that he or she may submit a written statement to the court for consideration at sentencing.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.752(3), (4).

trafficking prosecution, stating,

(1) The testimony of a victim is not required in a prosecution under this chapter [Human Trafficking]. However, if a victim testifies, that testimony need not be corroborated.

(2) Expert testimony as to the behavioral patterns of human trafficking victims and the manner in which a human trafficking victim's behavior may deviate from societal expectations is admissible as evidence in court in a prosecution under this chapter if the expert testimony is otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence and laws of this state.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520j (Evidence of victim's sexual conduct) and § 750.520h (Corroboration of victim's testimony not required)<sup>73</sup> provide protections to testifying victims of sexual offenses, but not to victims of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e, or Michigan's CSEC laws. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520j(1) states,

Evidence of specific instances of the victim's sexual conduct, opinion evidence of the victim's sexual conduct, and reputation evidence of the victim's sexual conduct shall not be admitted under sections 520b to 520g unless and only to the extent that the judge finds that the following proposed evidence is material to a fact at issue in the case and that its inflammatory or prejudicial nature does not outweigh its probative value:

(a) Evidence of the victim's past sexual conduct with the actor.

(b) Evidence of specific instances of sexual activity showing the source or origin of semen, pregnancy, or disease.

Additional witness protections specific to child victims under the age of 16 of specified sex offenses are available under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a<sup>74</sup> (Definitions; prosecutions and proceedings to which section applicable; use of dolls or mannequins; support person; notice; videorecorded statement; special arrangements to protect welfare of witness; videotape deposition). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(2) states that the protections of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a are limited to "prosecutions and proceedings under section 136b [Definitions; child abuse], 145c [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material], 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree] to 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree], or 520g [Criminal sexual conduct]." Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(3), "If pertinent, the court must permit the witness to use dolls or mannequins, including, but not limited to, anatomically correct dolls or mannequins, to assist the witness in testifying on direct and cross-examination." Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(4) further provides that "The court must permit a witness who is called upon to testify to have a support person sit with, accompany, or be in close proximity to the witness during his or her testimony" and allows for the use of a support dog. Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(7) states,

A custodian of the videorecorded statement<sup>75</sup> may take a witness's videorecorded statement before the normally scheduled date for the defendant's preliminary examination. The videorecorded statement must state the date and time that the statement was taken; must identify the persons present in the room and state whether they were present for the entire videorecording or only a portion of the videorecording; and must show a time clock that is running during the taking of the videorecorded statement.

<sup>74</sup> The text of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House Bill 5645 during the 2018 Regular Session of the 99th Legislature of the State of Michigan (effective September 27, 2018).

<sup>75</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(1)(b) defines "custodian of the videorecorded statement" as "the department of health and human services, investigating law enforcement agency, prosecuting attorney, or department of attorney general or another person designated under the county protocols established as required by section 8 of the child protection law, 1975 PA 238,

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(8) sets out the following purposes for which a “videorecorded statement” can be introduced:

- (a) It may be admitted as evidence at all pretrial proceedings, except that it cannot be introduced at the preliminary examination instead of the live testimony of the witness.
- (b) It may be admitted for impeachment purposes.
- (c) It may be considered by the court in determining the sentence.
- (d) It may be used as a factual basis for a no contest plea or to supplement a guilty plea.

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(14), “A videorecorded statement that becomes part of the court record is subject to a protective order of the court for the purpose of protecting the privacy of the witness.” Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.2163a(17) states,

If the court determines on the record that it is necessary to protect the welfare of the witness and grants the motion made under subsection (16),<sup>76</sup> the court must order both of the following:

- (a) That all persons not necessary to the proceeding must be excluded during the witness’s testimony from the courtroom where the preliminary examination is held. Upon request by any person and the payment of the appropriate fees, a transcript of the witness’s testimony must be made available.
- (b) That the courtroom be arranged so that the defendant is seated as far from the witness stand as is reasonable and not directly in front of the witness stand in order to protect the witness from directly viewing the defendant. The defendant’s position must be located so as to allow the defendant to hear and see the witness and be able to communicate with his or her attorney.

5.9 Child sex trafficking victims may vacate delinquency adjudications and expunge related records for prostitution and other offenses arising from trafficking victimization, without a waiting period.

Michigan law allows child sex trafficking victims to vacate delinquency adjudications, but mandates a minimum 1 year waiting period. Related juvenile records are effectively sealed once an adjudication has been set aside.

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18e(10)(b) (Application for entry of order setting aside adjudication; filing), an adjudication may be set aside if:

The person was adjudicated for an offense that if committed by an adult would be a violation or an attempted violation of section 448 [Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime], 449 [Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, offer to engage; penalty], or 450 [Aiding, assisting, or abetting; penalties] of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.448, 750.449, and 750.450, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to section

If, upon the motion of a party made before the preliminary examination, the court finds on the record that the special arrangements specified in subsection (17) are necessary to protect the welfare of the witness, the court must order those special arrangements. In determining whether it is necessary to protect the welfare of the witness, the court must consider all of the following:

- (a) The age of the witness.
- (b) The nature of the offense or offenses.
- (c) The desire of the witness or the witness’s family or guardian to have the testimony taken in a room closed to the public.
- (d) The physical condition of the witness.

448, 449, or 450 of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.448, 750.449, and 750.450, and he or she committed the offense as a direct result of his or her being a victim of a human trafficking violation.

Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18e(10)(b), however, child sex trafficking victims only have the right to vacate adjudications for prostitution-related offenses. Vacatur of other offenses is a conditional privilege. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18e(9).

Additionally, relief may be barred based on the number and type of adjudications. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18e(1) states in part,

A person may have only 1 adjudication for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and not more than 2 adjudications for an offense that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult or if there is no adjudication for a felony if committed by an adult, not more than 3 adjudications for an offense that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult set aside under this section . . . .

Further, Mich. Comp. Laws § 712A.18e(3) only allows an adjudication to be vacated after a minimum 1 year waiting period, stating,

An application under this section shall not be filed until the expiration of 1 year following imposition of the disposition for the adjudication that the applicant seeks to set aside, or 1 year following completion of any term of detention for that adjudication, or when the person becomes 18 years of age, whichever occurs later.

Once an adjudication has been vacated, related records are made nonpublic.<sup>77</sup> Although the department of state police retain these records, records shall only be made available to certain individuals, courts, and agencies for limited purposes. Mich. Comp. Laws § 712A.18e(13). In fact, “[e]xcept as provided in subsection (13), a person, other than the applicant, who knows or should have known that an adjudication was set aside under this section, who divulges, uses, or publishes information concerning an adjudication set aside under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.” Mich. Comp. Laws § 712A.18e(16).

To the extent that a child sex trafficking victim is or has been prosecuted as an adult for a prostitution-related offense, he or she can seek to have the conviction set aside under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.621 (Application for order setting aside conviction; misdemeanor conviction; setting aside of certain convictions prohibited; victim of human trafficking violation; time and contents of application; submitting application and fingerprints to department of state police; report; application fee; contest of application by attorney general or prosecuting attorney; notice to victim; affidavits and proofs; court order; definitions), which states,

(4) A person who is convicted of a violation of section 448 [Soliciting, accosting, or inviting to commit prostitution or immoral act; crime], 449 [Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, offer to engage; penalty], or 450 [Aiding, assisting, or abetting; penalties] of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.448, 750.449, and 750.450, or a local ordinance substantially

<sup>77</sup> Ordinarily, juvenile records are open to the general public. Mich. Comp. Laws § 712A.28(2) (Case records; opening records; order in respect to payments by parent; copy; publicizing action taken against parents or adults; administration of court; reports; form; copies; definition) states,

Beginning June 1, 1988, the court shall maintain records of all cases brought before it and as provided in the juvenile diversion act. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, records of a case brought before the court shall be open to the general public . . . . [unless the hearing was closed in which case] the records of that hearing shall be open only by court order to persons having a legitimate interest.

corresponding to section 448, 449, or 450 of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.448, 750.449, and 750.450, may apply to have that conviction set aside if he or she committed the offense as a direct result of his or her being a victim of a human trafficking violation.

(7) An application under subsection (4) may be filed at any time following the date of the conviction to be set aside. A person may apply to have more than 1 conviction set aside under subsection (4).

Although Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.621 allows a victim of human trafficking to vacate a conviction at any time, relief is limited to prostitution-related convictions, foreclosing the law's applicability to other offenses related to trafficking victimization.

5.9.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 712A.18e (Application for entry of order setting aside adjudication; filing) to allow child sex trafficking victims to vacate adjudications and expunge related records for other offenses arising from trafficking victimization without mandating a waiting period.

5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.

Restitution is mandatory for juvenile victims of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct with regard to age of minor). Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766b (Conviction of offense described in MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; restitution) states,

When sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense described in chapter LXVIIA [Human trafficking] of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking], the court shall order restitution for the full amount of loss suffered by the victim. In addition to restitution ordered under section 16 [Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766], the court may order the defendant to pay all of the following:

- (a) Lost income, calculated by whichever of the following methods results in the largest amount:
  - (i) The gross amount received by the defendant from or the value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services.
  - (ii) The value of the victim's labor or services as calculated under the minimum wage law of 1964, 1964 PA 154, MCL 408.381 to 408.398 [repealed], or the federal minimum wage, whichever results in the largest value.
  - (iii) Income loss as determined under section 16(4)(c).
- (b) The cost of transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense.
- (c) Attorney fees and other costs and expenses incurred by the victim because of the offense, including, but not limited to, costs and expenses relating to assisting the investigation of the offense and for attendance at related court proceedings as follows:
  - (i) Wages lost.
  - (ii) Child care.
  - (iii) Transportation.
  - (iv) Parking.
- (d) Any other loss suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense.

Restitution is also provided under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(6) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution) which states,

In addition to any mandatory restitution applicable under section 16 of the William Van Regenmorter crime victim's rights act, 1985 PA 87, MCL 780.766 ["Victim" defined; order of restitution generally], the court may order a person convicted of violating this section to pay restitution to the victim in the manner provided in section 16b of the William Van Regenmorter crime victim's rights act, 1985 PA 87, MCL 780.766b, and to reimburse any governmental entity for its expenses incurred in relation to the violation in the same manner that expenses may be ordered to be reimbursed under section 1f of chapter IX of the code of criminal procedure, 1927 PA 175, MCL 769.1f.

Restitution also is mandatory under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(2) (“Victim” defined; order of restitution generally; order of restitution as condition of probation or parole), which states,

Except as provided in subsection (8),<sup>78</sup> when sentencing a defendant convicted of a crime, the court shall order, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty authorized by law or in addition to any other penalty required by law, that the defendant make full restitution to any victim<sup>79</sup> of the defendant’s course of conduct that gives rise to the conviction or to the victim’s estate . . . .

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(4) states,

If a crime results in physical or psychological injury to a victim, the order of restitution shall require that the defendant do 1 or more of the following, as applicable:

- (a) Pay an amount equal to the reasonably determined cost of medical and related professional services and devices actually incurred and reasonably expected to be incurred relating to physical and psychological care.
- (b) Pay an amount equal to the reasonably determined cost of physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation actually incurred and reasonably expected to be incurred.
- (c) Reimburse the victim or the victim’s estate for after-tax income loss suffered by the victim as a result of the crime.
- (d) Pay an amount equal to the reasonably determined cost of psychological and medical treatment for members of the victim’s family actually incurred and reasonably expected to be incurred as a result of the crime.
- (e) Pay an amount equal to the reasonably determined costs of homemaking and child care expenses actually incurred and reasonably expected to be incurred as a result of the crime or, if homemaking or child care is provided without compensation by a relative, friend, or any other person, an amount equal to the costs that would reasonably be incurred as a result of the crime for that homemaking and child care, based on the rates in the area for comparable services.
. . . .
- (h) Pay an amount equal to income actually lost by the spouse, parent, sibling, child, or grandparent of the victim because the family member left his or her employment, temporarily or permanently, to care for the victim because of the injury.

In addition, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(24) states,

If the victim is a minor, the order of restitution shall require the defendant to pay to a parent of the victim an amount that is determined to be reasonable for any of the following that are actually incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the parent as a result of the crime:

- (a) Homemaking and child care expenses.
- (b) Income loss not ordered to be paid under subsection (4)(h).
- (c) Mileage.
- (d) Lodging or housing.
- (e) Meals.
- (f) Any other cost incurred in exercising the rights of the victim or a parent under this act.

<sup>79</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 780.766(1) states in part, “As used in this section only, ‘victim’ means an individual who suffers direct or threatened physical, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of a crime . . . .”

Civil remedies are provided for human trafficking victims under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 752.983 (Violation of MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; liability to victim; damages), which states,

(1) A person who violates chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking], is liable to the victim<sup>80</sup> of the violation for economic and noneconomic damages that result from the violation, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (a) Physical pain and suffering.
  - (b) Mental anguish.
  - (c) Fright and shock.
  - (d) Denial of social pleasure and enjoyments.
  - (e) Embarrassment, humiliation, or mortification.
  - (f) Disability.
  - (g) Disfigurement.
  - (h) Aggravation of a preexisting ailment or condition.
  - (i) Reasonable expenses of necessary medical or psychological care, treatment, and services.
  - (j) Loss of earnings or earning capacity.
  - (k) Damage to property.
  - (l) Any other necessary and reasonable expense incurred as a result of the violation.
- (2) A victim is entitled to damages under subsection (1) to the extent the victim has sustained the damages, regardless of whether the victim suffered any physical injury as a result of the violation.
- (3) A victim is entitled to damages under subsection (1) regardless of whether the damages sustained were foreseeable to the violator.
- (4) A victim is entitled to damages under subsection (1) regardless of whether the violator was charged with or convicted of a violation of chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h.

5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 767.24(1)(c) (Indictments; crimes; subsection (2) to be known as “Theresa Flores's Law”; subsection (4) to be known as Brandon D'Annunzio's law; findings and filing; limitations; extension or tolling), criminal prosecutions under Chapter 750 (Human trafficking) may be brought at any time if the crime would be punishable by life imprisonment; however, this does not include offenses under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as it relates to age of minor), which specifically criminalize juvenile sex trafficking.<sup>81</sup> Prosecutions under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as it relates to age of minor) and § 750.13 (Taking or enticing away minor under sixteen years; violation as felony; penalty) must be commenced within 25 years. <sup>80</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 752.982 (“Victim” defined) states, “As used in this act, ‘victim’ means a victim of a violation of chapter LXVIIA of the Michigan penal code, 1931 PA 5 328, MCL 750.462a to 750.462h [Human trafficking].”

<sup>81</sup> Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(1)(d) (Violation of MCL 750.462b, 750.462c, and 750.462d; violation of MCL 750.462e; attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to violate chapter; violation of law arising out of same transaction; consecutive terms; restitution), violations of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.462b, 750.462c, or 750.462d are punishable by life imprisonment “[i]f the violation involves kidnapping or attempted kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or attempted criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, or an attempt to kill or the death of an individual” or by up to 15 years imprisonment and a fine up to $15,000 “[i]f the violation results in . . . an individual being engaged in commercial sexual activity.” The offenses specific to juvenile sex trafficking under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e are punishable under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462f(2) by not more than 20 years imprisonment.

Prosecutions under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145c (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material), § 750.520e (Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree), and § 750.520g (Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct) generally must be commenced within “10 years after the offense is committed or by the alleged victim’s twenty-first birthday, whichever is later.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 767.24(3)(a).<sup>82</sup> Further, when the victim is a minor, prosecutions under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.520c (Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree) and § 750.520d (Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree) generally must be commenced within “15 years after the offense is committed or by the alleged victim’s twenty-eighth birthday, whichever is later.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 767.24(4)(a).

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 752.983 (Violation of MCL 750.462a to 750.462h; liability to victim; damages), civil actions based on a trafficking offense “must be filed within 3 years after the last violation that is the subject of the action occurred.” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 752.984 (Action to recover damages; statute of limitations). Under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 600.5851b(1)<sup>83</sup> (Action by minor victim of criminal sexual conduct), civil actions based on criminal sexual conduct involving a minor victim must be filed before the later of “(a) the individual reach[ing] the age of 28 years [or] (b) three years after the date the individual discovers, or . . . should have discovered, both the individual’s injury and the causal relationship between the injury and the criminal sexual conduct.” For purposes of Mich. Comp. Laws § 600.5851b, “criminal sexual conduct” is defined as “conduct prohibited under section 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree], 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree], 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree], 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree], or 520g [Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct] of the Michigan penal code . . . .” Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 600.5851b(5)(b), 600.5805(16)(b).<sup>84</sup>

Otherwise, the general statute of limitations for commencing a civil action for personal injury must be commenced within 3 years “after the claim first accrued.” Mich. Comp. Laws § 600.5805(1), (2) (Injuries to persons or property; period of limitations; “dating relationship” defined).

- 5.11.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 767.24 (Indictments; finding and filing; limitations) to eliminate the statute of limitations for prosecutions involving violations of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct with regard to age of minor) and § 750.13 (Taking or enticing away minor under sixteen years; violation as felony; penalty).

Legal Components:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.
- 6.2 Single party consent to audiotaping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.
- 6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

- 6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.

Legal Analysis:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.221 (Training school for peace officers; creation, location, subjects) requires the Michigan Department of Public Safety to provide law enforcement with training in specified subjects, which include issues related to human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking.

According to the Basic Training Curriculum and Training Objectives manual published in 2010 by the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES), police officers receive special training in the area of child abuse and neglect investigations.<sup>85</sup> Section I.G.1.2.(c) of the manual, entitled “Recognize Suspected Cases of Child Abuse While Responding to Complaints Related to and Not Related to Child Abuse,” includes training on “indicators of sexual abuse or criminal sexual conduct (e.g., incest, molestation, pornography).”<sup>86</sup> Section I.H.2.2.(a)(24), entitled “Demonstrate an Understanding of Substantive Criminal Law as It Relates to Domestic Violence,” includes human trafficking among the “crimes likely to be committed in a domestic violence incident.”<sup>87</sup>

Additionally, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 752.974(c) (Commission; duties) tasks the Michigan Human Trafficking Commission with “[p]rovid[ing] information and training regarding human trafficking to police officers, prosecutors, court personnel, health care providers, social services personnel, and other individuals the commission considers appropriate.”

- 6.2 Single party consent to audiotaping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.

Single party consent to audiotaping is generally not permitted under Michigan law. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.539c (Eavesdropping upon private conversation), which provides that “[a]ny person who is present or who is not present during a private conversation and who willfully uses any device to eavesdrop<sup>88</sup> upon the conversation without the consent of all parties thereto, or who knowingly aids, employs or procures another person to do the same . . . is guilty of a felony.” However, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.539g(a) (Exceptions) specifically excepts “[e]avesdropping or surveillance not otherwise prohibited by law by a peace officer of this state or of the federal government, or the officer’s agent, while in the performance of the officer’s duties,” from the prohibitions in Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. §§ 750.539a–750.539f.

6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.539g(a) (Exceptions) provides that the prohibitions on intercepting communications in “[s]ections 539a to 539f do not prohibit . . . [e]avesdropping or surveillance not otherwise prohibited by law by a peace officer of this state or of the federal government, or the officer’s agent, while in the performance of the officer’s duties.” As no other statutes appear to limit law enforcement’s ability to intercept communications in the course of investigations, law enforcement officers and their agents should be able to utilize wiretapping in trafficking investigations.<sup>89</sup>

6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy to investigate buying or selling commercial sex is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct as relates to age of minor) and the CSEC laws are silent as to a defendant’s ability to raise a defense to prosecution based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor; thus, a defendant may be able to assert a defense to charges brought through reverse sting operations, which are the most likely situations in which a defendant would try to assert such a defense.

- 6.4.1 Recommendation: Amend Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.462e (Forced labor or services; prohibited conduct with regard to age of minor) and Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.449a (Engaging services for purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation; penalty) to prohibit a defense to prosecution based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor.

6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.

Although Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d (Use of internet or computer system; prohibited communication) does not expressly permit the use of the Internet to investigate the buying or selling of sex with minors, it does indicate that an offender who believes the victim to be a minor is in violation of the statute. Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d(1)(a) makes it illegal for a defendant to use the internet or a computer . . . for the purpose of doing any of the following:

- (a) Committing, attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or soliciting another person to commit conduct proscribed under section 145a [Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose], 145c [Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties] . . . 520b [Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree], 520c [Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree], 520d [Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree], 520e [Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth

<sup>88</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.539a(2) (Definitions) provides in part, “‘Eavesdrop’ or ‘eavesdropping’ means to overhear, record, amplify or transmit any part of the private discourse of others without the permission of all persons engaged in the discourse.”

<sup>89</sup> The Michigan Supreme Court has determined that law enforcement officers do not need to obtain a warrant in “participant monitoring” situations. People v. Collins, 475 N.W. 2d 684, 698 (Mich. 1991). “Participant monitoring” refers “only to the electronic monitoring (whether or not recorded) by a law enforcement agent of a conversation where one of the parties to the conversation has previously consented to the activity.” Id. at 684, n. 1.

degree], or 520g [Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct] . . . in which the victim or intended victim is . . . believed by that person to be a minor.

The use of the language, “believed by that person to be a minor,” suggests that the use of the Internet to investigate buyers and traffickers under Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d is permissible. Additionally, case law involving prosecutions for violations of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d indicates that law enforcement currently uses the Internet to investigate violations of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 750.145d.

6.6 State law requires reporting of missing children and located missing children.

Pursuant to Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.258(2)<sup>90</sup> (Definitions; certain persons reported missing),

If an individual who is any of the following is reported missing, the law enforcement agency receiving the report, after conducting a preliminary investigation, shall immediately enter the information described in subsection (3) regarding that individual into the LEIN,<sup>91</sup> the national crime information center, the national missing and unidentified persons system, and, if the individual is a child,<sup>92</sup> the clearinghouse:

. . . .

- (b) An individual who was in the company of another individual under circumstances indicating that the individual’s physical safety may be in danger.
- (c) An individual who disappeared under circumstances indicating that the disappearance was not voluntary.
- (d) A child not described in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (f).
- (e) An individual not described in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (f), who is believed to be incapable of returning to his or her residence without assistance.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.258(3) states,

The information to be entered into the LEIN, the national crime information center, the national missing and unidentified persons system, and the clearinghouse under subsection (2) must include all of the following, if available:

- (a) The name and address of the individual.
- (b) The vital statistics of the individual, including a physical description, and if the missing individual is a child, the child’s date of birth, state of birth, and if possible, mother’s maiden name.
- (c) The date the individual was missing and, if the missing individual is a child under subsection (2)(d), the date the child becomes 17 years of age.
- (d) Any other information that may assist in the location of the individual and any other information required to be entered into the national missing and unidentified persons system, as determined by the department and the LEIN policy council.

Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.259(1), (2) (Missing children information clearinghouse) establishes “[a] missing children information clearinghouse,” which shall do all of the following:

- (a) Record each report on a missing child received under section 8.

<sup>90</sup> The text of Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.258 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House Bill 4633 during the 2018 Regular Session of the 99th Legislature of the State of Michigan (effective April 2, 2018).

<sup>91</sup> Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.258(1)(e) defines “LEIN” as a “law enforcement information network regulated under the C.J.I.S. policy council act, 1974 PA 163, MCL 28.211 to 28.215.”

<sup>92</sup> “Child” is defined in Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.258(1)(a) as “an individual less than 17 years of age.”

- (b) Accept and record a report about a missing child from a law enforcement agency.
- (c) Exchange information on children suspected of interstate travel with the national crime information center.
- (d) Establish a policy regarding the compilation of a record of the reasons children become missing.

After a missing child has been found, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 28.259(3) requires that “the originating law enforcement agency . . . remove the missing child from the clearinghouse record by means of the LEIN. If the originating law enforcement agency has new information about the missing child’s location, that agency shall report the information to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction in the area in which the missing child may be located.”

APPENDIX A: MICHIGAN SENTENCING GUIDELINES

1. Statutory Sentencing Guidelines

Michigan has codified sentencing guidelines and imposes minimum sentences based on a person's prior criminal record and specified offense variables. Mich. Comp. Laws § 777.21 (Minimum sentence range; determination), which establishes the procedure for calculating appropriate minimum sentences, states,

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, for an offense enumerated in part 2 [Included felonies] of [Chapter XVII (Sentencing Guidelines)],<sup>93</sup> determine the recommended minimum sentence range as follows:
  - (a) Find the offense category for the offense from part 2 of this chapter. From section 22 [Offense variables; scoring] of this chapter, determine the offense variables to be scored for that offense category and score only those offense variables for the offender as provided in part 4 [Offense variables] of this chapter. Total those points to determine the offender's offense variable level.
  - (b) Score all prior record variables for the offender as provided in part 5 [Prior record variables] of this chapter. Total those points to determine the offender's prior record variable level.
  - (c) Find the offense class for the offense from part 2 of this chapter. Using the sentencing grid for that offense class in part 6 [Sentencing grids] of this chapter, determine the recommended minimum sentence range from the intersection of the offender's offense variable level and prior record variable level. The recommended minimum sentence within a sentencing grid is shown as a range of months or life.
- (2) If the defendant was convicted of multiple offenses, subject to section 14 of chapter XI,<sup>94</sup> score each offense as provided in this part.
- (3) If the offender is being sentenced under section 10,<sup>95</sup> 11,<sup>96</sup> or 12<sup>97</sup> of chapter IX, determine <sup>93</sup> Offenses in the chapter include the following: Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.145a (Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.145b (Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose; prior conviction; penalty), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.145c(2)–(4) (Definitions; child sexually abusive activity or material; penalties; possession of child sexually abusive material; expert testimony; defenses; acts of commercial film or photographic print processor; report to law enforcement agency by computer technician; applicability and uniformity of section; enactment or enforcement of ordinances, rules, or regulations prohibited), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.145d(2)(b)–(f) (Use of internet or computer system; prohibited communication; violation; penalty; order to reimburse state or local governmental unit; definitions), Mich. Comp. Comp. Laws § 750.349 (Kidnapping; “restrain” defined; violation as felony; penalty; other violation arising from same transaction), offenses punishable under Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.451(3) and (4) (Violation of §§ 750.448, 750.449, 750.449a, 750.450, or 750.462; prior convictions; penalty; definition), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.452 (House of ill-fame; keeping, maintaining or operating), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.455 (Pandering; felony), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.457 (Earnings of prostitute, accepting), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.458 (Detaining female in house of prostitution for debt), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.459 (Transporting female for prostitution; felony), human trafficking offenses punishable under Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.462f(1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), (1)(d), (2) and (3), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.520b(2) (Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree; felony; consecutive terms), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.520c (Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree; felony), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.520d (Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree; felony), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.520e (Criminal sexual conduct in the fourth degree; misdemeanor), Mich. Comp. Laws § 750.520g(1)–(2) (Assault with intent to commit criminal sexual conduct; felony). Mich. Comp. To determine the recommended minimum sentence range, increase the upper limit of the recommended minimum sentence range determined under part 6 for the underlying offense as follows:

- (a) If the offender is being sentenced for a second felony, 25%.
  - (b) If the offender is being sentenced for a third felony, 50%.
  - (c) If the offender is being sentenced for a fourth or subsequent felony, 100%.
- (4) If the offender is being sentenced for a violation described in section 18 of this chapter,<sup>98</sup> both of the following apply:
- (a) Determine the offense variable level by scoring the offense variables for the underlying offense and any additional offense variables for the offense category indicated in section 18 of this chapter.
  - (b) Determine the offense class based on the underlying offense. If there are multiple underlying felony offenses, the offense class is the same as that of the underlying felony offense with the highest crime class. If there are multiple underlying offenses but only 1 is a felony, the offense class is the same as that of the underlying felony offense. If no underlying offense is a felony, the offense class is G.
