- 1.1 The state human trafficking law addresses sex trafficking and clearly defines a human trafficking victim as any minor under the age of 18 used in a commercial sex act without regard to use of force, fraud, or coercion, aligning to the federal trafficking law.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) (Human trafficking) makes it a crime to sex traffic a minor without requiring proof that force, threat of force, or coercion was used to cause the minor to engage in sexual activity.<sup>2</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) states,

<sup>2</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(1), (a)(2) (Human trafficking) reach the actions of traffickers and buyers who use some means of force, threat of force, or coercion and those who facilitate a violation of subsection (1). N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a) states,

A person commits the crime of human trafficking if he:

- (1) knowingly holds, recruits, lures, entices, harbors, transports, provides or obtains, by any means, another to engage in sexual activity as defined in paragraph (2) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:34-1 [Prostitution and related offenses] or to provide labor services:

- (a) by causing or threatening to cause serious bodily harm or physical restraint against the person or any other person;

a. A person commits the crime of human trafficking if he:

(3) knowingly holds, recruits, lures, entices, harbors, transports, provides or obtains, by any means, a child under 18 years of age, to engage in sexual activity as defined in paragraph (2) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:34-1, whether or not the actor mistakenly believed that the child was 18 years of age or older, even if that mistaken belief was reasonable.

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years and a possible fine up to $200,000.<sup>3</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(b), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1). However, an offender convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(2) or (a)(3) faces imprisonment for 20 years to life, and is not eligible for parole until 20 years have been served. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d). Lastly, an additional fine of no less than $25,000 is imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a) which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d).

Additionally, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree) states that a person commits human trafficking in the second degree if he:

- (b) by means of any scheme, plan or pattern intended to cause the person to believe that the person or any other person would suffer serious bodily harm or physical restraint;
  - (c) by committing a violation of N.J.S.2C:13-5 [Criminal coercion] against the person;
  - (d) by destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating, or possessing any passport, immigration-related document as defined in section 1 of P.L. 1997, c. 1 (C. 2C:21-31[Unauthorized practice of immigration law; penalties]), or other document issued by a governmental agency to any person which could be used as a means of verifying the person’s identity or age or any other personal identifying information;
  - (e) by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of the law or legal process;
  - (f) by means of fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation against the person; or
  - (g) by facilitating access to a controlled dangerous substance or controlled substance analog as set forth in chapter 35 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes; or
- (2) receives anything of value from participation as an organizer, supervisor, financier or manager in a scheme or course of conduct which violates paragraph (1) of this subsection; or
- .....

A person who has been convicted of an offense may be sentenced to pay a fine, to make restitution, or both, such fine not to exceed:

e. Any higher amount equal to double the pecuniary gain to the offender or loss to the victim caused by the conduct constituting the offense by the offender. In such case the court shall make a finding as to the amount of the gain or loss, and if the record does not contain sufficient evidence to support such a finding the court may conduct a hearing upon the issue. For purposes of this section the term “gain” means the amount of money or the value of property derived by the offender and “loss” means the amount of value separated from the victim or the amount of any payment owed to the victim and avoided or evaded and includes any reasonable and necessary expense incurred by the owner in recovering or replacing lost, stolen or damaged property, or recovering any payment avoided or evaded, and, with respect to property of a research facility, includes the cost of repeating an interrupted or invalidated experiment or loss of profits. The term “victim” shall mean a person who suffers a personal physical or psychological injury or death or incurs loss of or injury to personal or real property as a result of a crime committed against that person, or in the case of a homicide, the nearest relative of the victim . . . .

(1) provides services, resources, or assistance<sup>4</sup> with the knowledge that the services, resources, or assistance are intended to be used in furtherance of the commission of the crime of human trafficking in violation of section 1 of P.L.2005, c. 77 (C.2C:13-8) [Human trafficking].

(2) procures or attempts to procure a person to engage in sexual activity as defined in paragraph (2) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:34-1 [Prostitution and related offenses], or to provide labor or services, whether for himself or another person, knowing that the person provided or to be provided was a victim of human trafficking, or under circumstances in which a reasonable person would conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that the person was a victim of human trafficking.<sup>5</sup>

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-9(c)(1), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). An additional fine of no less than $15,000 is imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(1).

(a) For purposes of this paragraph, “services, resources, or assistance” shall include financial support, business services, lodging, transportation, the provision of false documentation or identification, equipment, facilities, or any other service or property with a pecuniary value that exceeds $200, whether or not a person is compensated for the services, resources, or assistance, but shall not include humanitarian or charitable aid or services provided directly to a victim of human trafficking.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph, the requisite knowledge that services, resources, or assistance are intended to be used in furtherance of the commission of the crime of human trafficking may be inferred if the defendant was aware that a person to whom the defendant was providing services, resources, or assistance:

(i) was subject to or subjected another to restrictions on the person's freedom of movement, so that the person could not leave without accompaniment of another person or was otherwise subjected to obvious restrictions on mobility; or

(ii) did not possess or have access to any means of communication, including but not limited to a cellular or other wireless telephone or other electronic communication device, and was not permitted or was otherwise unable to communicate with another person without supervision or permission.

(a) For purposes of this paragraph, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the defendant knew, and that a reasonable person would conclude there was a substantial likelihood, that a person was a victim of human trafficking if the person:

(i) could not leave the premises where the person provided labor or services without accompaniment of another person or was otherwise subjected to significant restrictions on the person's freedom of movement; or

(ii) did not possess or have access to any means of communication, including but not limited to a cellular or other wireless telephone or other electronic communication device, and was not permitted or was otherwise unable to communicate with another person without supervision or permission.

(b) For the purposes of this paragraph, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that:

(i) a person knew that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking; and

(ii) a reasonable person would conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking.

1.2 Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) is identified as a separate and distinct offense from general sexual offenses, which may also be used to prosecute those who commit commercial sex offenses against minors.

The following laws criminalize CSEC in New Jersey:

1. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(3), (4) (Prostitution and related offenses) states,

A person commits an offense if:

(3) The actor knowingly promotes prostitution<sup>6</sup> of a child under 18 whether or not the actor mistakenly believed that the child was 18 years of age or older, even if such mistaken belief was reasonable;

(4) The actor knowingly promotes prostitution of the actor's child, ward, or any other person for whose care the actor is responsible;

A conviction under either of these subsections is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years, a possible fine up to $200,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.”<sup>7</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

- (a) Owning, controlling, managing, supervising or otherwise keeping, alone or in association with another, a house of prostitution or a prostitution business;
- (b) Procuring an inmate for a house of prostitution or place in a house of prostitution for one who would be an inmate;
- (c) Encouraging, inducing, or otherwise purposely causing another to become or remain a prostitute;
- (d) Soliciting a person to patronize a prostitute;
- (e) Procuring a prostitute for a patron;
- (f) Transporting a person into or within this State with purpose to promote that person's engaging in prostitution, or procuring or paying for transportation with that purpose; or
- (g) Knowingly leasing or otherwise permitting a place controlled by the actor, alone or in association with others, to be regularly used for prostitution or promotion of prostitution, or failure to make a reasonable effort to abate such use by ejecting the tenant, notifying law enforcement authorities, or other legally available means.

A person who has been convicted of an offense may be sentenced to pay a fine, to make restitution, or both, such fine not to exceed:

e. Any higher amount equal to double the pecuniary gain to the offender or loss to the victim caused by the conduct constituting the offense by the offender. In such case the court shall make a finding as to the amount of the gain or loss, and if the record does not contain sufficient evidence to support such a finding the court may conduct a hearing upon the issue. For purposes of this section the term “gain” means the amount of money or the value of property derived by the offender and “loss” means the amount of value separated from the victim or the amount of any payment owed to the victim and avoided or evaded and includes any reasonable and necessary expense incurred by the owner in recovering or replacing lost, stolen or damaged property, or recovering any payment avoided or evaded, and, with respect to property of a research facility, includes the cost of repeating an interrupted or invalidated experiment or loss of profits. The term “victim” shall mean a person who suffers a personal physical or psychological injury or death or incurs loss of or injury to personal or real property as a result of a crime committed against that person, or in the case of a homicide, the nearest relative of the victim . . . .

2. Also, under N. J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses),

A person commits an offense if:

(7) The actor knowingly engages in prostitution<sup>8</sup> with a person under the age of 18, or if the actor enters into or remains in a house of prostitution for the purpose of engaging in sexual activity<sup>9</sup> with a child under the age of 18, or if the actor solicits or requests a child under the age of 18 to engage in sexual activity. It shall be no defense to a prosecution under this paragraph that the actor mistakenly believed that the child was 18 years of age or older, even if such mistaken belief was reasonable.

A conviction under this section is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years, a possible fine not to exceed $150,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

3. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4(b)(3), (4) (Endangering welfare of children) states,

(3) A person commits a crime of the first degree if he causes or permits a child<sup>10</sup> to engage in a prohibited sexual act<sup>11</sup> or in the simulation of such an act or to be portrayed in a sexually suggestive manner<sup>12</sup> if the person knows, has reason to know or intends that the prohibited act or <sup>10</sup> For the purposes of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4, “child” is defined as “any person under 18 years of age.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4(b)(1).

- (a) to depict a child’s less than completely and opaquely covered intimate parts, as defined in N.J.S.2C:14-1, in a manner that, by means of posing, composition, format, or animated sensual details, emits sensuality with sufficient impact to concentrate prurient interest on the child; or portrayal may be photographed, filmed, reproduced, or reconstructed in any manner, including on the Internet, or may be part of an exhibition or performance.

(4) A person commits a crime of the second degree if he photographs or films a child in a prohibited sexual act or in the simulation of such an act or for portrayal in a sexually suggestive manner or who uses any device, including a computer, to reproduce or reconstruct the image of a child in a prohibited sexual act or in the simulation of such an act or for portrayal in a sexually suggestive manner.

Generally, a conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4(b)(4) is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:24-4(b)(4), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). However, a conviction under N.J. Stat. b. An actor is guilty of sexual assault if he commits an act of sexual contact<sup>14</sup> with a victim who is less than 13 years old and the actor is at least four years older than the victim.

c. An actor is guilty of sexual assault if he commits an act of sexual penetration with another person under any one of the following circumstances:

(b) to depict any form of contact with a child’s intimate parts, as defined in N.J.S.2C:14-1, in a manner that, by means of posing, composition, format, or animated sensual details, emits sensuality with sufficient impact to concentrate prurient interest on the child; or

(c) to otherwise depict a child for the purpose of sexual stimulation or gratification of any person who may view the depiction where the depiction does not have serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

The depth of insertion shall not be relevant as to the question of commission of the crime.”

an intentional touching by the victim or actor, either directly or through clothing, of the victim’s or actor’s intimate parts for the purpose of degrading or humiliating the victim or sexually arousing or sexually gratifying the actor. Sexual contact of the actor with himself must be in view of the victim whom the actor knows to be present.

1.3 Prostitution statutes refer to the sex trafficking statute to acknowledge the intersection of prostitution with trafficking victimization.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(e) (Prostitution and related offenses) refers to New Jersey’s human trafficking law by creating an affirmative defense to prosecutions under the section for human trafficking victims. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(e) states,

It is an affirmative defense to prosecution for a violation of this section that, during the time of the alleged commission of the offense, the defendant was a victim of human trafficking pursuant

If a person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense under sections 2C:14-2 [Sexual assault] or 2C:14-3 a. [Aggravated criminal sexual contact; criminal sexual contact], the sentence imposed under those sections for the second or subsequent offense shall, unless the person is sentenced pursuant to the provisions of 2C:43-7 [Sentence of imprisonment for crime; extended terms], include a fixed minimum sentence of not less than 5 years during which the defendant shall not be eligible for parole. The court may not suspend or make any other non-custodial disposition of any person sentenced as a second or subsequent offender pursuant to this section. For the purpose of this section an offense is considered a second or subsequent offense, if the actor has at any time been convicted under sections 2C:14-2 or 2C:14-3 a. or under any similar statute of the United States, this state, or any other state for an offense that is substantially equivalent to sections 2C:14-2 or 2C:14-3a.

to section 1 of P.L.2005, c.77 (C.2C:13-8) [Human trafficking] or compelled by another to engage in sexual activity, regardless of the defendant's age.

However, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1 does not specify that a child under 18 involved in prostitution is a victim of human trafficking. Although N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) (Human Trafficking) does not require force, fraud, or coercion for children to be considered human trafficking victims, New Jersey's other CSEC offenses do not refer to the human trafficking law to identify victims of those offenses as victims of trafficking.

1.4 The state racketeering or gang crimes statute includes sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses as predicate acts allowing the statute to be used to prosecute child sex trafficking crimes.

Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-2 (Prohibited Activities),

- a. It shall be unlawful for any person who has received any income derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through collection of an unlawful debt in which he has participated as a principal within the meaning of N.J.S.2C:2-6 to use or invest, directly or indirectly, any part of the income, or the proceeds of the income, in acquisition of any interest in, or the establishment or operation of any enterprise which is engaged in or the activities of which affect trade or commerce . . . .
- b. It shall be unlawful for any person through a pattern of racketeering activity or through collection of an unlawful debt to acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in or control of any enterprise which is engaged in or activities of which affect trade or commerce.
- c. It shall be unlawful for any person employed by or associated with any enterprise engaged in or activities of which affect trade or commerce to conduct or participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the enterprise's affairs through a pattern of racketeering activity or collection of unlawful debt.
- d. It shall be unlawful for any person to conspire as defined by N.J.S.2C:5-2, to violate any of the provisions of this section.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-1(a) (Definitions), "racketeering activity" includes promoting prostitution, obscenity, endangering welfare of children under § 2C:24-4(b)(3), (4), and human trafficking under § 2C:13-8. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-1(d), (e), (z). Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-1(d),

"Pattern of racketeering activity" requires:

- (1) Engaging in at least two incidents of racketeering conduct one of which shall have occurred after the effective date of this act and the last of which shall have occurred within 10 years (excluding any period of imprisonment) after a prior incident of racketeering activity; and
- (2) A showing that the incidents of racketeering activity embrace criminal conduct that has either the same or similar purposes, results, participants or victims or methods of commission or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics and are not isolated incidents.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-3(a), "Any person who violates any provision of N.J.S.2C:41-2 in connection with a pattern of racketeering activity which involves a crime of violence, a crime of the first degree [which includes human trafficking,] or the use of firearms shall be guilty of a crime of the first degree. All other violations of N.J.S.2C:41-2 shall be crimes of the second degree."

A first degree crime is punishable by imprisonment for 10–20 years and a possible fine not to exceed $200,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1). A second degree crime is punishable by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:43-

6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). The defendant may also be required to pay restitution to the victim. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:43-3.

Additionally, a shall forfeit “[a]ny interest including money or anything of value he has acquired or maintained” through racketeering activity and may face civil penalties including restitution and civil monetary penalties. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:41-3(b), 2C:41-4.

Where the alleged enterprise is a criminal gang, a defendant may also be charged with crime gang activity for committing, attempting to commit, or conspiring to commit certain crimes including N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) or § 2C:34-1 (Prostitution and related offenses) as part of a criminal street gang, defined as “three or more persons associated in fact.”<sup>17</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:33-29(a). Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. 2C:33-29(b) (Crime of gang criminality; “criminal street gang” defined; grading of offense),

Grading. Gang criminality is a crime of one degree higher than the most serious underlying crime referred to in subsection a. of this section, except that where the underlying crime is a crime of the first degree, gang criminality is a first degree crime and the defendant, upon conviction, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:43-6, shall be sentenced to an ordinary term of imprisonment between 15 and 30 years. A sentence imposed upon conviction of the crime of gang criminality shall be ordered to be served consecutively to the sentence imposed upon conviction of any underlying offense referred to in subsection a. of this section.

This means that a defendant who violates N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), a first degree crime, as part of a criminal street gang may be punished by “an ordinary term of imprisonment between 15 and 30 years.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:33-29(b). If a defendant knowingly promotes child prostitution in violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(3), (4), a first degree crime, a violation is punishable by imprisonment for 10–20 years, a possible fine not to exceed $200,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:33-29(b), 2C:34-1(b)(3), (4), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

Legal Analysis:

- 2.1 The state sex trafficking law can be applied to buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) applies to buyers of sex with minors following federal precedent through the term “obtains.”<sup>18</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) provides, a person commits human trafficking if he or she “knowingly holds, recruits, lures, entices, harbors, transports, provides or obtains, by any means, a child under 18 years of age, to engage in sexual activity<sup>19</sup> as defined in paragraph (2) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:34–1 [Prostitution and related activities] . . . .”

Additionally, a buyer may be prosecuted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(a) (Human trafficking in the second degree), which states, <sup>18</sup> See United States v. Jungers, 702 F.3d 1066 (8th Cir. 2013). In this case, the Eighth Circuit held that the federal sex trafficking law, 18 U.S.C. § 1591 (Sex trafficking of children or by force, fraud, or coercion) applies to buyers of sex with minors. Reversing a District of South Dakota ruling that Congress did not intend the string of verbs constituting criminal conduct under 18 U.S.C. § 1591(a)(1) (“recruits, entices, harbors, transports, provides, obtains, or maintains”) to reach the conduct of buyers (United States v. Jungers, 834 F. Supp. 2d 930, 931 (D.S.D. 2011)), the Eighth Circuit concluded that 18 U.S.C. § 1591 does not contain “a latent exemption for purchasers” because buyers can “engage in at least some of the prohibited conduct.” Jungers, 702 F. 3d 1066, 1072. Congress codified Jungers clarifying that the federal sex trafficking law is intended to apply to buyers in the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act (JVTA) of 2015 Pub. L. No. 114-22, 129 Stat 227), enacted on May 29, 2015. The JVTA adds the terms “patronize” and “solicit” to the list of prohibited conduct and expressly states, “section 108 of this title amends section 1591 of title 18, United States Code, to add the words ‘solicits or patronizes’ to the sex trafficking statute making absolutely clear for judges, juries, prosecutors, and law enforcement officials that criminals who purchase sexual acts from human trafficking victims may be arrested, prosecuted, and convicted as sex trafficking offenders when this is merited by the facts of a particular case.” Id. at Sec. 109. The Eighth Circuit decision in United States v. Jungers and the federal sex trafficking law as amended by the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act establish persuasive authority when state courts interpret the string of verbs constituting prohibited conduct in state sex trafficking laws (in particular the term “obtains”) to the extent such interpretation does not conflict with state case law.

a. A person commits a crime of the second degree if he:

.....
(2) procures or attempts to procure a person to engage in sexual activity as defined in paragraph (2) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:34-1 [Prostitution and related offenses] . . . whether for himself or another person, knowing that the person provided or to be provided was a victim of human trafficking, or under circumstances in which a reasonable person would conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that the person was a victim of human trafficking.<sup>20</sup>

(b) For the purposes of this paragraph, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that: (i) a person knew that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking; and (ii) a reasonable person would conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking.

c. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a person convicted for a violation of this section shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment, which shall include a period of parole ineligibility of one-third to one-half of the term of imprisonment imposed or three years, whichever is greater. Notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S.2C:43-3, the sentence for a conviction under this section shall include a fine in an amount of not less than $15,000, which shall be collected as provided for the collection of fines and restitutions in section 3 of P.L.1979, c.396 (C.2C:46-4) and forwarded to the Department of the Treasury to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund” established by section 2 of P.L.2013, c.51 (C.52:17B-238).

(2) Additionally, upon a finding of guilt or entry of a guilty plea for a crime described under this section, the court shall direct any issuing State, county, or municipal governmental agency to revoke any license, permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of business or professional authorization required by law concerning the operation of that person’s business or profession, if that business or profession was used in the course of the crime.

2.1.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) to clarify that buyer conduct is included as a violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking).

2.2 Buyers of commercial sex acts with a minor can be prosecuted under commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses) specifically makes it a crime to buy sex with a child. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7),

A person commits an offense if:

(7) The actor knowingly engages in prostitution with a person under the age of 18, or if the actor enters into or remains in a house of prostitution for the purpose of engaging in sexual activity with a child under the age of 18, or if the actor solicits or requests a child under the age of 18 to engage in sexual activity . . . .

<sup>20</sup> See supra note 5 for a full discussion of the mens rea required for a violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9.

A conviction under this section is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years, a possible fine not to exceed $150,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.”<sup>21</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

Several sexual offenses also could be used to prosecute certain buyers of commercial sex acts with a child.<sup>22</sup> These statutes, however, do not specifically criminalize the commercial sexual exploitation of a child and do not refer to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking).

2.3 Solicitation laws differentiate between soliciting sex acts with an adult and soliciting sex acts with a minor under 18.

New Jersey’s solicitation law differentiates between soliciting sex with an adult and soliciting sex with a child by enhancing the penalty when a minor victim is involved. Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1 (Prostitution and related offenses), a first conviction for engaging in prostitution as a patron, pursuant to subsection (b)(1) is punishable as a disorderly persons offense by imprisonment up to 6 months, a temporary loss of driver’s license, and a possible fine not to exceed $1,000, with heightened penalties for second and subsequent convictions. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(5), 2C:43-8, 2C:43-3(c). In contrast, under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7), a conviction for soliciting an individual under 18 is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years, a possible fine not to exceed $150,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

2.4 Penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are as high as federal penalties.

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) (Human trafficking) is punishable by imprisonment for 20 years to life, and a buyer shall not be eligible for parole until 20 years have been served. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d). Buyers convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 also face a possible fine up to $200,000 and a mandatory fine of not less than $25,000 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.”<sup>23</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(b), (d).

To the extent that a buyer may be prosecuted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree), a conviction is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-9(c)(1), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). An additional fine of no less than $15,000 is imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(1).

A conviction for buying sex with a child under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses) is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years, a possible fine not to exceed $150,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

Several sexual offenses could be used to prosecute certain buyers of commercial sex acts with a child but do not specifically criminalize the commercial sexual exploitation of a child, and do not refer to the human trafficking statute to bring these criminal offenses within the ambit of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) (Human trafficking).<sup>24</sup>

In comparison, if the victim is under the age of 14, a conviction under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA)<sup>25</sup> for child sex trafficking is punishable by 15 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(1), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). If the victim is between the ages of 14–17, a conviction is punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1591(b)(2), 3559(a)(1), 3571(b)(3). A conviction is punishable by mandatory life imprisonment, however, if the buyer has a prior conviction for a federal sex offense<sup>26</sup> against a minor. 18 U.S.C. § 3559(e)(1). To the extent buyers can be prosecuted under other federal CSEC laws,<sup>27</sup> a conviction is punishable by penalties ranging from a fine not to exceed $250,000 to life imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $250,000.<sup>28</sup>

2.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to lure, entice, or purchase, or attempt to lure, entice, or purchase commercial sex acts with a minor is a separate crime or results in an enhanced penalty for buyers.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) (Luring, enticing child by various means, attempts; crime of second degree; subsequent offense; mandatory imprisonment; definitions),

A person commits a crime of the second degree if he attempts, via electronic<sup>29</sup> or any other means, to lure or entice a child<sup>30</sup> or one who he reasonably believes to be a child into a motor vehicle, structure<sup>31</sup> or isolated area, or to meet or appear at any other place, with a purpose to commit a criminal offense with or against the child.

an offense under section 1591 [18 USCS § 1591] (relating to sex trafficking of children), 2241 [18 USCS § 2241] (relating to aggravated sexual abuse), 2242 [18 USCS § 2242] (relating to sexual abuse), 2244(a)(1) [18 USCS § 2244(a)(1)] (relating to abusive sexual contact), 2245 [18 USCS § 2245] (relating to sexual abuse resulting in death), 2251 [18 USCS § 2251] (relating to sexual exploitation of children), 2251A [18 USCS § 2251A] (relating to selling or buying of children), 2422(b) [18 USCS § 2422(b)] (relating to coercion and enticement of a minor into prostitution), or 2423(a) [18 USCS § 2423(a)] (relating to transportation of minors).

<sup>27</sup> 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (Selling or buying of children), 2251(a) (Sexual exploitation of children), 2423(a) (Transportation of a minor with intent for minor to engage in criminal sexual activity), 2422(a) (Coercion and enticement), 2252(a)(2), (a)(4) (Certain activities relating to material involving the sexual exploitation of minors).

<sup>28</sup> 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251A(b) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 30 years to life and a fine), 2251(e) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 15–30 years and a fine), 2423(a) (conviction punishable by imprisonment for 10 years to life and a fine), 2422(a) (conviction punishable by a fine, imprisonment up to 20 years, or both), 2252(b) (stating that a conviction under subsection (a)(2) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–20 years and a fine, while a conviction under subsection (a)(4) is punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine, or both); see also 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559(a)(1) (classifying all of the above listed offenses as felonies), 3571(b)(3) (providing a fine up to $250,000 for any felony conviction).

<sup>31</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(b) defines “structure” as “any building, room, ship, vessel or airplane and also means any place adapted for overnight accommodation of persons, or for carrying on business therein, whether or not a person is actually present.”

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-6(a), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2).<sup>32</sup> Additionally, under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(f), “The court may not suspend or make any other non-custodial disposition of any person sentenced pursuant to this section.”

2.6 No age mistake defense is permitted for a buyer of commercial sex acts with any minor under 18.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) prohibits a buyer from asserting a mistake of age defense for “engag[ing] in sexual activity” with a minor. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) specifies that a person commits the crime of human trafficking when that person “knowingly . . . obtains, by any means, a child under 18 years of age, to engage in sexual activity<sup>33</sup> . . . , whether or not the actor mistakenly believed that the child was 18 years of age or older, even if that mistaken belief was reasonable.

However, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(a)(2)(b) (Human trafficking in the second degree) establishes a rebuttable presumption that:

- (i) a person knew that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking; and
- (ii) a reasonable person would conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that a child under the age of 18 years of age procured to engage in sexual activity or for whom attempts were made to procure for that activity was a victim of human trafficking.<sup>34</sup>

New Jersey does not allow a buyer of commercial sex to assert a mistake of age defense for the crime of prostitution. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses) states, in part, “It shall be no defense to a prosecution under this paragraph that the actor mistakenly believed that the child was 18 years of age or older, even if such mistaken belief was reasonable.”

<sup>32</sup> Additional penalties may be imposed for second or subsequent convictions. Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6,

d. A person convicted of a second or subsequent offense under this section shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:43-6 [Sentence of imprisonment for crime; ordinary terms; mandatory terms], the term of imprisonment shall include, unless the person is sentenced pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.2C:43-7 [Sentence of imprisonment for crime; extended terms], a mandatory minimum term of one-third to one-half of the sentence imposed, or three years, whichever is greater, during which time the defendant shall not be eligible for parole. If the person is sentenced pursuant to N.J.S.2C:43-7, the court shall impose a minimum term of one-third to one-half of the sentence imposed, or five years, whichever is greater. The court may not suspend or make any other non-custodial disposition of any person sentenced as a second or subsequent offender pursuant to this section.

e. A person convicted of an offense under this section who has previously been convicted of a violation of N.J.S.2C:14-2 [Sexual assault], subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:14-3 [Aggravated criminal sexual contact; criminal sexual contact] or N.J.S.2C:24-4 [Endangering welfare of children] shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:43-6, the term of imprisonment shall include, unless the person is sentenced pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.2C:43-7, a mandatory minimum term of five years, during which time the defendant shall not be eligible for parole. The court may not suspend or make any other non-custodial disposition of any person sentenced pursuant to this section.

<sup>34</sup> See supra note 5 for a full discussion of the mens rea required for a conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(a)(2).

2.7 Base penalties for buying sex acts with a minor under 18 are sufficiently high and not reduced for older minors.

New Jersey’s buyer-applicable trafficking and CSEC laws do not stagger penalties based on a minor’s age and provide sufficiently high penalties. A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3) (Human trafficking) is punishable by imprisonment for 20 years to life, while a conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree) or § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses) is punishable by imprisonment for 5–10 years. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(d), 2C:13-9(c)(1), 2C:34-1(c)(1), 2C:43-6(a)(2).

2.8 Financial penalties for buyers of commercial sex acts with minors are sufficiently high to make it difficult for buyers to hide the crime.

Buyers of commercial sex with children are subject to fines, restitution, and asset forfeiture. A buyer convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) is subject to a possible fine up to $200,000 and a mandatory fine of not less than $25,000 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.”<sup>35</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(b), (d), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

Additionally, the buyer shall be ordered to make restitution to any victim. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(e), the court shall award the greater of

- (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services; or
- (2) the value of the victim's labor or services as determined by the “New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act,” P.L.1963, c. 150 (C.34:11–56.25 et seq.), the “New Jersey State Wage and Hour Law,” P.L.1966, c. 113 (C.34:11–56a et seq.), the Seasonal Farm Labor Act, P.L.1945, c. 71 (C.34:9A–1 et seq.), the laws concerning the regulation of child labor in chapter 2 of Title 34 of the Revised Statutes, or any other applicable State law, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938,” 29 U.S.C. s.201 et seq., or any other applicable federal law.

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree) is punishable as a second degree crime by a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-9(c)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(2). An additional fine of no less than $15,000 is imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(1).

Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(7) (Prostitution and related offenses), a second degree crime, a buyer may face a fine up to $150,000, a possible fine of $150,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(c)(2), (f)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). For a violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) (Luring, enticing child by various means, attempts; crime of second degree; subsequent offense; mandatory imprisonment; definitions) a buyer may face a fine up to $150,000 and a sentence to pay restitution to the victim, or both. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-6(a), 2C:43-3(a)(2).

Additionally, buyers face mandatory asset forfeiture pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:64-1(a) (Property subject to forfeiture), including

- .....
- (2) All property which has been, or is intended to be, utilized in furtherance of an unlawful activity, including, but not limited to, conveyances intended to facilitate the perpetration of illegal acts, or buildings or premises maintained for the purposes of committing offenses against the State.

(3) Property which has become or is intended to become an integral part of illegal activity, including, but not limited to, money which is earmarked for use as financing for an illegal gambling enterprise.

(4) Proceeds of illegal activities, including, but not limited to, property or money obtained as a result of the sale of prima facie contraband as defined by subsection a. (1), proceeds of illegal gambling, prostitution, bribery and extortion.

Property subject to forfeiture “may be seized by the State or any law enforcement officer as evidence pending a criminal prosecution pursuant to section 2C:64-4 or, when no criminal proceeding is instituted, upon process issued by any court of competent jurisdiction over the property, except that seizure without such process may be made when not inconsistent with the Constitution of this State or the United States, and when (1) The article is prima facie contraband; or, (2) The property subject to seizure poses an immediate threat to the public health, safety or welfare.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:64-1(b). With the exception of prima facie contraband, forfeiture proceedings are civil in nature. N. J. Stat. An. § 2C: 64-3. Disposal of forfeited property is governed by N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C: 64-6, which states, in part,

The prosecutor or the Attorney General, whichever is prosecuting the case, shall divide the forfeited property, any proceeds resulting from the forfeiture or any money seized pursuant to this chapter with any other entity where the other entity's law enforcement agency participated in the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture, in proportion to the other entity's contribution to the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture, as determined in the discretion of the prosecutor or the Attorney General, whichever is prosecuting the case. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such forfeited property and proceeds shall be used solely for law enforcement purposes, and shall be designated for the exclusive use of the law enforcement agency which contributed to the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture.

A buyer may also have to pay a $500 fee for a court ordered “Prostitution Offender Program.”<sup>36</sup> Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(b),

In addition to any fine, fee, assessment, or penalty authorized under the provisions of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, a person convicted of an offense of engaging in prostitution as a patron pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection b. of N.J.S.2C:34-1 [Prostitution and related offenses] shall be assessed, if ordered to participate in the “Prostitution Offender Program,” a fee of $500.

Lastly, a buyer is subject to forfeiture of business or professional licenses used in the commission of the crime if convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree). N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(2) provides,

the court shall direct any issuing State, county, or municipal governmental agency to revoke any license, permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of business or

However, the grounds for termination of parental rights do not include convictions of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), or § 2C:34-1(b) (Prostitution and related offenses) (when a child is prostituted).

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 30:4C-15(f) (Petition to terminate parental rights, conditions) allows for termination when the parent is criminally convicted of murder, aggravated manslaughter or manslaughter of another child of the parent; to have aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit such murder, aggravated manslaughter or manslaughter of the child or another child of the parent; or to have committed, or attempted to commit, an assault that resulted, or could have resulted, in the significant bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent; or the parent has committed a similarly serious act which resulted, or could have resulted, in the death or significant bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent.

However, parental rights may be terminated wherever, pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 30:4C-15(a), “it appears that a court wherein a complaint has been proffered as provided in chapter 6 of Title 9 of the Revised Statutes, has entered a conviction against the parent or parents, guardian, or person having custody and control of any child because of abuse, abandonment, neglect of or cruelty to such child.” Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.9(c) (“Abused child” defined), an “abused child” is “a child under the age of 18 years whose parent, guardian, or other person having his custody and control . . . [c]ommits or allows to be committed an act of sexual abuse against the child.” Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.84(2) (Definitions relative to child abuse, neglect),

“Sexual abuse” means contacts or actions between a child and a parent or caretaker for the purpose of sexual stimulation of either that person or another person. Sexual abuse includes:

- a. the employment, use, persuasion, inducement, enticement, or coercion of any child to engage in, or assist any other person to engage in, any sexually explicit conduct or simulation of such conduct;
- b. sexual conduct including molestation, prostitution, other forms of sexual exploitation of children, or incest; or
- c. sexual penetration<sup>55</sup> and sexual contact<sup>56</sup> as defined in N.J.S.2C:14-1 [Definitions] and a prohibited sexual act<sup>57</sup> as defined in N.J.S.2C:24-4 [Endangering welfare of children].

A facilitator could be in violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(a)(1) (Human trafficking in the second degree) if he provides services, resources, or assistance<sup>58</sup> with the knowledge that the services, resources, or assistance are intended to be used in furtherance of the commission of the crime of human trafficking in violation of section 1 of P.L.2005, c. 77 (C.2C:13-8).

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 is punishable as a second degree crime by imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-9(c)(1), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). An additional fine of no less than $15,000 is imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 which is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(1).

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(2) (Human trafficking) reaches a smaller subset of facilitators by including a facilitator who “receives anything of value from participation as an organizer, supervisor, financier or manager in a scheme or course of conduct which violates paragraph (1) of this subsection.” A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(b), 2C:43-6(a)(1). If, however, the facilitator is convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(2) or (a)(3), the facilitator shall be sentenced to imprisonment for 20 years to life and shall not be eligible for parole until 20 years have been served. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d).

As a first degree crime, a conviction is also punishable by a possible fine not to exceed $200,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:43-3(a)(1). Further, a facilitator convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(2) or (3) shall pay “a fine in an amount of not less than $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d).

Additionally, a facilitator could be in violation of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(3) (Prostitution and related offenses) for promoting prostitution of a child. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(a)(4) defines “promoting prostitution” as

- (a) Owning, controlling, managing, supervising or otherwise keeping, alone or in association with another, a house of prostitution or a prostitution business;
- ....

- (f) Transporting a person into or within this State with purpose to promote that person's engaging in prostitution, or procuring or paying for transportation with that purpose; or
- (g) Knowingly leasing or otherwise permitting a place controlled by the actor, alone or in association with others, to be regularly used for prostitution or promotion of prostitution, or failure to make a reasonable effort to abate such use by ejecting the tenant, notifying law enforcement authorities, or other legally available means.

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(3) is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years, a possible fine up to $200,000, and a mandatory fine of at least $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(b)(3), (c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

Facilitators who knowingly advertise the sale of minors for commercial sex acts are subject to criminal liability. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-10(b) (Advertising commercial sexual abuse of a minor as a crime), a person commits the offense of advertising commercial sexual abuse of a minor if

- (1) the person knowingly published, disseminates, or displays, or causes directly or indirectly to be published, disseminated, or displayed, any advertisement for a commercial sex act, which is to take place in this State and which includes the depiction of a minor; or
- (2) the person knowingly purchases advertising in this State for a commercial sex act which includes the depiction of a minor.

A conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-10 is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years, a possible fine up to $200,000, and a mandatory fine of $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-10(c), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

4.2 Financial penalties, including asset forfeiture laws, are in place for those who benefit financially from or aid and assist in committing domestic minor sex trafficking.

Facilitators are subject to fines, asset forfeiture, and restitution. As a first degree crime, a conviction under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(2) or (a)(3) (Human trafficking) carries a possible fine not to exceed $200,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:13-8(a)(2), (a)(3), 2C:43-3(a)(1). Additionally, for a conviction of promoting prostitution of a child under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(3) (Prostitution and related offenses), a facilitator could receive a possible fine not to exceed $200,000 and a possible sentence to pay restitution, and a mandatory fine of $25,000 to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:34-1(b)(3), (c)(1), (f)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

Additionally, a fine of not less than $25,000 shall be imposed on violators of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a) and the fine is to be deposited in the “Human Trafficking Survivor’s Assistance Fund.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(d).

Persons convicted of trafficking shall also pay restitution pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(e), which states,

In addition to any other disposition authorized by law, any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be ordered to make restitution to any victim. The court shall award to the victim restitution which is the greater of:

- (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services; or
- (2) the value of the victim's labor or services as determined by the “New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act,” P.L. 1963, c. 150 (C. 34:11-56.25 et seq.), the “New Jersey State Wage and Hour Law,” P.L. 1966, c. 113 (C. 34:11-56a et seq.), the Seasonal Farm Labor Act, P.L. 1945, c. 71 (C. 34:9A-1 et seq.), the laws concerning the regulation of child labor in chapter 2 of Title 34 of the Revised Statutes, or any other applicable State law, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938,” 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., or any other applicable federal law.

Facilitators may be subject to asset forfeiture. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:64-1(a) (Property subject to forfeiture),

Any interest in the following shall be subject to forfeiture and no property right shall exist in them:

- ....
- (2) All property which has been, or is intended to be, utilized in furtherance of an unlawful activity, including, but not limited to, conveyances intended to facilitate the perpetration of illegal acts, or buildings or premises maintained for the purpose of committing offenses against the State.
- (3) Property which has become or is intended to become an integral part of illegal activity, including, but not limited to, money which is earmarked for use as financing for an illegal gambling enterprise.
- (4) Proceeds of illegal activities, including, but not limited to, property or money obtained as a result of the sale of prima facie contraband as defined by subsection a. (1), proceeds of illegal gambling, prostitution, bribery and extortion.

Property subject to forfeiture “may be seized by the State or any law enforcement officer as evidence pending a criminal prosecution pursuant to section 2C:64-4 or, when no criminal proceeding is instituted, upon process issued by any court of competent jurisdiction over the property, except that seizure without such process may be made when not inconsistent with the Constitution of this State or the United States, and when (1) The article is prima facie contraband; or, (2) The property subject to seizure poses an immediate threat to the public health, safety or welfare.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:64-1(b). Disposal of forfeited property is governed by N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C: 64-6, which states, in part,

The prosecutor or the Attorney General, whichever is prosecuting the case, shall divide the forfeited property, any proceeds resulting from the forfeiture or any money seized pursuant to this chapter with any other entity where the other entity's law enforcement agency participated in the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture, in proportion to the other entity's contribution to the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture, as determined in the discretion of the prosecutor or the Attorney General, whichever is prosecuting the case. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such forfeited property and proceeds shall be used solely for law enforcement purposes, and shall be designated for the exclusive use of the law enforcement agency which contributed to the surveillance, investigation, arrest or prosecution resulting in the forfeiture.

Lastly, a facilitator is subject to forfeiture of business or professional licenses used in the commission of the crime if convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree). N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(c)(2) provides, the court shall direct any issuing State, county, or municipal governmental agency to revoke any license, permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of business or professional authorization required by law concerning the operation of that person's business or profession, if that business or profession was used in the course of the crime.

4.3 Promoting and selling child sex tourism is illegal.

There is no specific provision in the New Jersey code prohibiting child sex tourism.

- 4.3.1 Recommendation: Enact a law that prohibits selling or offering to sell travel services that include or facilitate travel for the purpose of engaging in commercial sexual exploitation of a minor or prostitution of a minor, if the travel is sold or occurs in New Jersey.

4.4 Promoting and selling images of child sexual exploitation carries penalties as high as similar federal offenses.

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4(b)(5)(a) (Endangering welfare of children) includes the crime of selling images of child sexual exploitation (ICSE), stating,

A person commits a crime if, by any means, including but not limited to the Internet, he:

- (i) knowingly distributes an item depicting the sexual exploitation or abuse of a child;
- (ii) knowingly possesses an item depicting the sexual exploitation or abuse of a child with the intent to distribute that item; or
- (iii) knowingly stores or maintains an item depicting the sexual exploitation or abuse of a child using a file-sharing program which is designated as available for searching by or copying to one or more other computers.

. . . A violation of this subparagraph that involves 1,000 or more items depicting the sexual exploitation or abuse of a child is a crime of the first degree; otherwise it is a crime of the second degree . . . .

A violation involving less than 1,000 items depicting the sexual exploitation or abuse of a child is punishable as a second degree crime imprisonment for 5–10 years and a possible fine not to exceed $150,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:24-4(b)(5)(a), 2C:43-6(a)(2), 2C:43-3(a)(2). A violation involving 1,000 or more items is punishable as a first degree crime by imprisonment for 10–20 years and a possible fine not to exceed $200,000. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 2C:24-4(b)(5)(a), 2C:43-6(a)(1), 2C:43-3(a)(1).

Legal Analysis:

- 5.1 Victims under the core child sex trafficking offense include all commercially sexually exploited children.<sup>59</sup>

N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) includes all commercial sexual exploitation of minors. Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3), when the victim is a minor, means of force, fraud, or coercion are not required.<sup>60</sup> In addition, the human trafficking law applies to buyers.<sup>61</sup> While the buyer applicable provision under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9(a) (Human trafficking in the second degree) requires that a buyer knew the person solicited or purchased was a victim of trafficking, creating a third party control requirement, the core sex trafficking offense under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 applies to buyers through the term “obtains,” regardless of third party control. Thus, buying commercial sex with a person who is under the age of eighteen constitutes human trafficking. Consequently, under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8, any child who is bought for sex, regardless of whether force, fraud or coercion is used, and regardless of whether the victim identifies a trafficker falls within the definition of a child sex trafficking victim entitled to the services, benefits and protections associated with that victim status. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(a)(3).

5.2 The state sex trafficking statute expressly prohibits a defendant from asserting a defense based on the willingness of a minor under 18 to engage in the commercial sex act.

Neither N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), nor N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree) prohibit a defense based upon the willingness of a minor to engage in the commercial sex act. However, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:2-10 (Consent) states, a. In general. The consent of the victim to conduct charged to constitute an offense or to the result thereof is a defense if such consent negatives an element of the offense or precludes the infliction of the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.

c. Ineffective consent. Unless otherwise provided by the code or by the law defining the offense, assent does not constitute consent if:

(1) It is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct charged to constitute the offense; or

(2) It is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental disease or defect or intoxication is manifestly unable or known by the actor to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature of harmfulness of the conduct charged to constitute an offense; or

(3) It is induced by force, duress or deception of a kind sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.

5.2.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) and N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree) to expressly prohibit a defense based upon the willingness of the minor to engage in the commercial sex act.

5.3 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses.<sup>62</sup>

Neither N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(1), (8) (Prostitution and related offenses) nor § 2C:34-1.1 (Loitering for the purpose of engaging in prostitution) prevents the prosecution of children for prostitution-related offenses. However, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(e) provides an affirmative defense to prostitution charges for human trafficking victims and minors under 18, stating,

It is an affirmative defense to prosecution for a violation of this section that, during the time of the alleged commission of the offense, the defendant was a victim of human trafficking pursuant to [N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8] or compelled by another to engage in sexual activity, regardless of the defendant's age.

Further, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(c) (Human trafficking) provides trafficking victims with an affirmative defense to trafficking charges, stating,

It is an affirmative defense to prosecution for a violation of this section that, during the time of the alleged commission of the offense of human trafficking created by this section, the defendant was a victim of human trafficking.

5.3.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(b)(1) (Prostitution and related offenses) and § 2C:34-1.1 (Loitering for the purpose of engaging in prostitution) to ensure that all minors are protected from criminalization for prostitution offenses.<sup>63</sup>

System response to child engage in commercial sex act

A juvenile sex trafficking victim may access services after being identified as abused<sup>64</sup> or in a juvenile-family crisis,<sup>65</sup> however, services are not required to be specialized to the needs of these children.<sup>66</sup>

To the extent that a juvenile sex trafficking victim is identified as delinquent for an act that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a crime, the child may be subject to a delinquency adjudication. prostitution and other offenses committed pursuant to trafficking victimization and to establish a statutory avenue to specialized services).

<sup>65</sup> A child engaging in “an act which if committed by an adult would constitute prostitution in violation of N.J.S.2C:34-1 or any offense which the juvenile alleges is related to the juvenile being a victim of human trafficking” constitutes a juvenile-family crisis under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:4A-22(g) (General definitions), which potentially allows the child to be referred to a juvenile family crisis intervention unit.

<sup>66</sup> While access to specialized services for juvenile sex trafficking victims is not statutorily mandated, N. J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-44.1 (Establishment of standard protocols for provision of information and services to victims of human trafficking, minors charged with prostitution) states,

The Attorney General shall, in consultation with the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Senior Services, the Commissioner of Children and Families, the Superintendent of State Police and representatives of providers of services to victims of human trafficking and sexually exploited minors, coordinate the establishment of standard protocols for the provision of information and services to victims of human trafficking and to minors under the age of 18 who are charged with prostitution, including coordination of efforts with the appropriate federal authorities pursuant to the "Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act of 2003," 22 U.S.C. § 7101 et seq. and shall make such protocols available upon request.

Additionally, although not codified, the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General issued Law Enforcement Directive No. 2012-2 (Investigation of Human Trafficking). Pursuant to the General Policy of the Directive, “[a]ll law enforcement agencies and officers shall be required: . . . to protect the immediate safety and security of human trafficking victims; and to respect and safeguard the rights of these victims.” The Directive outlines special responsibilities of law enforcement agencies in both investigating prostitution offenses and when interacting with possible victims of human trafficking. The Directive subsection IV(C) (Special responsibilities: when interacting with possible victims) states, in relevant part:

1. All law enforcement officers shall take appropriate actions as are necessary to protect the immediate safety and security of persons who may be the victims of human trafficking.
2. If a person reports to a law enforcement officer that he or she is a victim of human trafficking, or relates to a law enforcement officer facts that, if true, would make the person a victim of human trafficking, the law enforcement officer . . . shall treat the person making the report . . . as a human trafficking victim . . . notwithstanding that the person may have committed an offense (e.g. prostitution) . . .
3. . . . [A] law enforcement officer . . . shall notify the County Prosecutor’s Human Trafficking Liaison as soon as practicable after receiving the report or information from the possible human trafficking victim so that the County Prosecutor’s Office can arrange for any appropriate referrals for victim services.
4. . . . [T]he Division of Criminal Justice, working in conjunction with the County Prosecutors, and in consultation with the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Senior Services, the Commissioner of the Department of Children and Families, the Superintendent of State Police, and representatives of providers of services to victims of human trafficking and sexually exploited minors, shall develop standards and protocols for providing information and services to these persons. Such standards and protocols shall include coordination of efforts with appropriate federal authorities pursuant to the “Trafficking Victims Protection reauthorization Act of 2003,” 22 U.S.C. Sec. 7101 et seq.

for certain juveniles) requires that a complaint against a juvenile be reviewed by court intake services for a determination as to whether the complaint “should be dismissed, diverted, or referred for court action.” Further, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:4A-71(2)(b)(11) states,

Court intake services shall consider the following factors in determining whether to recommend diversion:

(11) Any information relevant to the offense in any case where the juvenile is charged with an act which if committed by an adult would constitute prostitution in violation of N.J.S.2C:34-1 or any offense which the juvenile alleges is related to the juvenile being a victim of human trafficking.<sup>67</sup>

If delinquency proceedings commence, however, New Jersey law provides a juvenile sex trafficking victim with an affirmative defense to prostitution charges. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1(e) (Prostitution and related offenses) states, “[i]t is an affirmative defense to prosecution for a violation of this section that, during the time of the alleged commission of the offense, the defendant was a victim of human trafficking . . . .”

Further, a dispositional hearing must occur under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:4A-41 (Dispositional hearing). Prior to this hearing a predispositional evaluation may be conducted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:4A-42 (Predispositional evaluation). “In any case where the juvenile is charged with an act which if committed by an adult would constitute prostitution in violation of N.J.S.2C:34-1 or any offense which the juvenile alleges is related to the juvenile being a victim of human trafficking, the predisposition report may include any information relevant to the commission of the act.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:4A-42(2)(h).

Summary

Juvenile sex trafficking victims may access services, but these services are not required to be specialized. Further, New Jersey law allows for diversion, but this process is discretionary.

5.4.1 Recommendation: Amend New Jersey’s protective response for juvenile sex trafficking victims to include specialized services and a mandatory mechanism to prevent delinquency adjudications.

5.5 Child sex trafficking is identified as a type of abuse and neglect within child protection statutes.<sup>68</sup>

New Jersey does not expressly identify human trafficking as a form of abuse but does include commercial sexual exploitation as a type of abuse or neglect. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.9(c) (“Abused child” defined), an “abused child” is “a child under the age of 18 years whose parent, guardian, or other person having his custody and control . . . [c]ommits or allows to be committed an act of sexual abuse against the child.”

Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.84(2) (Definitions relative to child abuse, neglect),

“Sexual abuse” means contacts or actions between a child and a parent or caretaker for the purpose of sexual stimulation of either that person or another person. Sexual abuse includes:

- a. the employment, use, persuasion, inducement, enticement, or coercion of any child to engage in, or assist any other person to engage in, any sexually explicit conduct or simulation of such conduct;
- b. sexual conduct including molestation, prostitution, other forms of sexual exploitation of children, or incest; or

<sup>67</sup> See also N.J. Stat. Ann. 2A:4A-74, listing prostitution and trafficking as relevant factors to be considered when the juvenile is diverted to a court intake services conference.

c. sexual penetration<sup>69</sup> and sexual contact<sup>70</sup> as defined in N.J.S.2C:14-1 [Definitions] and a prohibited sexual act<sup>71</sup> as defined in N.J.S.2C:24-4 [Endangering welfare of children].

5.5.1 Recommendation: Expand the definitions of abuse to expressly include when a child is victimized through N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking).

5.6 The definition of “caregiver” or another related term in the child welfare statutes is not a barrier to a sex trafficked child accessing the protection of child welfare.

For the purpose of protective child welfare laws, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-2 (“Parent” and “custodian” defined) defines “the person having care, custody and control of any child” as including, any person who has assumed the care of a child, or any person with whom a child is living at the time the offense is committed, and shall include . . . a person who legally or voluntarily assumes the care, custody, maintenance or support of the child.

While this definition may potentially be broad enough to allow child welfare intervention in non-familial trafficking cases, the definition of “sexual abuse,” which specifically applies to commercially sexually exploited children, requires “contacts or actions between a child and a parent or caretaker . . .” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.84(2). However, “caretaker” is not defined, suggesting that this definition is likely too narrow to allow for child welfare intervention on behalf of child sex trafficking victims in non-familial trafficking cases.

5.6.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 9:6-8.84(2) (Definitions relative to child abuse, neglect) to allow child sex trafficking victims to access child protective services regardless of the perpetrator of abuse.

5.7 Crime victims’ compensation is specifically available to a child victim of sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

Crime victims’ compensation is only allowed for certain crimes, but most crimes related to domestic minor sex trafficking are included. Under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act of 1971, the Victims of Crime Compensation Agency may order payment for victims<sup>72</sup> who suffer personal injury or death resulting from the commission or attempt to commit specified offenses, including violations of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), § 2C:14-2 (Sexual assault), § 2C:14-3 (Aggravated criminal sexual contact; criminal sexual contact), or any other lewd, indecent, or obscene acts with children. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-11. The Agency may make an order for compensation even if the buyer has not been prosecuted or convicted. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-10. Applications shall be made within two years of the date of injury or death (unless good cause is found for delay) and reported to authorities “within three months after its occurrence or reasonable discovery.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-18. Furthermore, pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-18,

No compensation shall be awarded if:

a. . . . the victim did not cooperate with the reasonable requests of law enforcement authorities unless the victim demonstrates a compelling health or safety reason for not cooperating; or

c. The victim was guilty of a violation of . . . subtitle 2 of Title 2C [Specific Offenses] of the New Jersey Statutes, which caused or contributed to his injuries; or

<sup>72</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-2 (Definitions) defines “victim” as “a person who is injured or killed by any act or omission of any other person which is within the description of any of the offenses specified in [N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-11].”

f. The victim has been convicted of a crime and is still incarcerated; or
....

Additionally, New Jersey has a “Sex Crime Victim Treatment Fund,” which is only applicable to crimes that fall within the sexual assault chapter, such as sexual assault and lewdness, but not human trafficking. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-43.2.

5.7.1 Recommendation: Provide exceptions to the listed ineligibility criteria for child sex trafficking victims to ensure that domestic minor sex trafficking victims may receive compensation.

5.8 Victim-friendly procedures and protections are provided in the trial process for minors under 18.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:14-7 (Victim’s previous sexual conduct; manner of dress), a. In prosecutions for aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, aggravated criminal sexual contact, criminal sexual contact, human trafficking involving sexual activity, endangering the welfare of a child in violation of N.J.S.2C:24-4 or the fourth degree crime of lewdness in violation of subsection b. of N.J.S.2C:14-4, evidence of the victim’s previous sexual conduct shall not be admitted nor reference made to it in the presence of the jury except as provided in this section . . . .

b. In the absence of clear and convincing proof to the contrary, evidence of the victim’s sexual conduct occurring more than one year before the date of the offense charged is presumed to be inadmissible under this section.

c. Evidence of previous sexual conduct with persons other than the defendant which is offered by any lay or expert witness shall not be considered relevant unless it is material to proving the source of semen, pregnancy or disease.

d. Evidence of the victim’s previous sexual conduct with the defendant shall be considered relevant if it is probative of whether a reasonable person, knowing what the defendant knew at the time of the alleged offense, would have believed that the alleged victim freely and affirmatively permitted the sexual behavior complained of.

e. Evidence of the manner in which the victim was dressed at the time an offense was committed shall not be admitted unless such evidence is determined by the court to be relevant and admissible in the interest of justice, after an offer of proof by the proponent of such evidence outside the hearing of the jury or at such hearing as the court may require, and a statement by the court of its findings of fact essential to its determination. A statement by the court of its findings shall also be included in the record.

f. For the purposes of this section, “sexual conduct” shall mean any conduct or behavior relating to sexual activities of the victim, including but not limited to previous or subsequent experience of sexual penetration or sexual contact, use of contraceptives, sexual activities reflected in gynecological records, living arrangement and life style.

Further, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:82-46(a)<sup>73</sup> (Disclosure of identity of victims of certain crimes under age 18 prohibited) prevents the identity of certain child victims from being disclosed; qualifying offenses include N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:24-4 (Endangering welfare of children) and § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking). However, this protection does not extend to child victims of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:34-1 (Prostitution and related offenses).

<sup>73</sup> The text of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:82-46 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 1199 during the 2017 Regular Session of the 217th Legislature of the State of New Jersey (effective August 7, 2017).

Finally, New Jersey’s law allowing any minor to testify via closed circuit television includes human trafficking and certain CSEC crimes as qualifying offenses. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:84A-32.4(a)(1)<sup>74</sup> (Prosecutions; certain actions; closed circuit testimony). Specifically, prosecutions for “aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, aggravated criminal sexual contact, criminal sexual contact, human trafficking involving sexual activity, . . . endangering the welfare of a child pursuant to N.J.S.2C:24-4, abuse or neglect of a child pursuant to R.S.9:6-3, or any action alleging abused or neglected child” can occur via closed circuit television under this statute. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:84A-32.4(a)(1). An order for such testimony may be made when “there is a substantial likelihood that the victim or witness would suffer severe emotional or mental distress if required to testify in the presence of spectators, the defendant, the jury, or all of them.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:84A-32.4(b).

5.9 Child sex trafficking victims may vacate delinquency adjudications and expunge related records for prostitution and other offenses arising from trafficking victimization, without a waiting period.

New Jersey law does not provide a mechanism for minors to vacate delinquency adjudications related to trafficking victimization, and juvenile records may only be expunged after a waiting period.

Regarding expungement,<sup>75</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:52-4.1(b)<sup>76</sup> (Juvenile delinquent; expungement of adjudications and charges) provides,

. . . any person who has been adjudged a juvenile delinquent may have his entire record of delinquency adjudications expunged if:

(1) Three years have elapsed since the final discharge of the person from legal custody or supervision or three years have elapsed after the entry of any other court order not involving custody or supervision, except that periods of post-incarceration supervision pursuant to section 25 of P.L.1982, c.77 (C.2A:4A-44), shall not be considered in calculating the three-year period for purposes of this paragraph;

(2) He has not been convicted of a crime, or a disorderly or petty disorderly persons offense, or adjudged a delinquent, or in need of supervision, during the three years prior to the filing of the petition, and no proceeding or complaint is pending seeking such a conviction or adjudication, except that periods of post-incarceration supervision pursuant to section 25 of P.L.1982, c.77 (C.2A:4A-44), shall not be considered in calculating the three-year period for purposes of this paragraph;

(3) He was never adjudged a juvenile delinquent on the basis of an act which if committed by an adult would constitute a crime not subject to expungement under N.J.S.2C:52-2 [Indictable offenses];

(4) He has never had an adult conviction expunged; and

(5) He has never had adult criminal charges dismissed following completion of a supervisory treatment or other diversion program.

Because N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:52-4.1(b) mandates a minimum 3 year waiting period, however, child sex trafficking victims may face collateral consequences associated with having accessible delinquency records during that time.

<sup>74</sup> The text of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:84A-32.4 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Assembly Bill 1199 during the 2017 Regular Session of the 217th Legislature of the State of New Jersey (effective August 7, 2017).

<sup>75</sup> Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:51-1(a) (Definition of expungement), “expungement” means “the extraction and isolation of all records on file within any court, detention, or correctional facility, law enforcement or criminal justice agency concerning a person’s detection, apprehension, arrest, detention, trial or disposition of an offense within the criminal justice system.”

<sup>76</sup> The text of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:52-4.1 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate Bill 3308 during the 2017 Regular Session of the 217th Legislature of the State of New Jersey (effective April 1, 2018).

Regarding vacatur, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:44-1.1 (Certain convictions vacated expunged) provides,

- a. (1) A person convicted of N.J.S.2C:34-1, prostitution and related offenses, or section 3 of P.L.1997, c.93 (C.2C:34-1.1), loitering for the purpose of engaging in prostitution, or a similar local ordinance, may file an application with the Superior Court in accordance with the Rules of Court to have the conviction vacated at any time following entry of a judgment of conviction, when the person's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of human trafficking pursuant to section 1 of P.L.2005, c.77 (C.2C:13-8) or as defined in paragraph (14) of 22 U.S.C. s.7102 [Definitions].
(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the person may also in the same application seek an order for the expungement of any reference to the person's arrest, conviction, and any proceeding for prostitution in any records in the custody of a court, or law enforcement or correctional agency entitled to be served with the application pursuant to subsection b. of this section.

d. If the court finds, pursuant to subsection c. of this section,<sup>77</sup> that the person was a victim of human trafficking, it shall enter an order vacating the conviction and directing that all court records be revised accordingly. When the person's application also seeks an order for expungement, the court order shall require that any court, law enforcement and correctional agencies, and other noticed parties pursuant to subsection b. of this section expunge all references to the person's arrest, conviction, and related proceedings for the violation of N.J.S.2C:34-1, prostitution and related offenses, or section 3 of P.L.1997, c. 93 (C.2C:34-1.1), loitering for the purpose of engaging in prostitution, or a similar local ordinance from all records in their custody that relate to the vacated conviction . . . .

Because N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:44-1.1 applies specifically to “convictions,” however, this protection does not clearly extend to delinquency adjudications. Accordingly, child sex trafficking victims are likely unable to vacate delinquency adjudications and expunge related records under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:44-1.1. Further, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:44-1.1 applies only to violations of New Jersey’s prostitution-related offenses, foreclosing the law’s applicability to other offenses related to trafficking victimization.

- 5.9.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:44-1.1 (Certain convictions vacated expunged) to allow child sex trafficking victims to vacate delinquency adjudications and expunge related records for prostitution and other offenses arising from trafficking victimization, without a waiting period.

5.10 Victim restitution and civil remedies for victims of domestic minor sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) are authorized by law.

Offenders convicted under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) must pay restitution to the victim. Specifically, under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8(e),

The court shall award to the victim restitution which is the greater of:

- (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the victim’s labor or services; or
- (2) the value of the victim’s labor or services as determined by the “New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act,” the “New Jersey State Wage and Hour Law,” “the Seasonal Farm Labor Act,” the laws

The court may vacate a conviction pursuant to this section if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person was a victim of human trafficking pursuant to section 1 of P.L.2005, c. 77 (C.2C:13-8) [Human trafficking] or as defined in paragraph (14) of 22 U.S.C. s.7102 [Definitions] at the time of the offense, and that the violation was a result of the person having been a victim of human trafficking.

concerning the regulation of child labor...or any other applicable State law, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938” 29 U.S.C. s.201 et seq., or any other applicable federal law.

Similarly, other offenders may be ordered to pay restitution because the court is allowed to order the perpetrator to pay the victim restitution for any degree of crime. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:43-3. However, except in state tax cases, “[t]he restitution ordered paid to the victim shall not exceed the victim’s loss.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:43-3.

Specific civil remedies are available to victims of human trafficking and they may seek a judgment against both the trafficker and persons acting in concert with the trafficker. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8.1,

Any person injured, including injury due to the loss of moneys or property, real or personal, by an actor and all those acting in concert with that actor who committed a human trafficking offense in violation of section 1 of P.L.2005,c. 77 (C.2C:13–8) [Human trafficking] or section 5 of P.L.2013, c. 51 (C.2C:13–9) [Human trafficking as a crime of the second degree] may bring a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction against the actor and all those acting in concern [sic] with that actor.<sup>78</sup>

Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8.1(c)(1), (2), (d), a prevailing victim in a civil action may recover attorney’s fees and costs, and the court may “in addition to any other appropriate legal or equitable relief, including damages for pain and suffering, recovery of reasonable costs for necessary medical, dental, and psychological services and punitive damages, award damages in an amount that is the greater of:

- (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the injured party's labor or services; or
- (2) the value of the injured party's labor or services as determined by the “New Jersey Prevailing Wage Act,” P.L.1963, c. 150 (C.34:11–56.25 et seq.), the “New Jersey State Wage and Hour Law,” P.L.1966, c. 113 (C.34:11–56a et seq.), the Seasonal Farm Labor Act, P.L.1945, c. 71 (C.34:9A–1 et seq.), the laws concerning the regulation of child labor in chapter 2 of Title 34 of the Revised Statutes, or any other applicable State law, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938,” 29 U.S.C. s.201 et seq., or any other applicable federal law.

Also, child sex trafficking and CSEC victim could bring a civil case under an action for sexual abuse. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:61B-1. For purposes of this action, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:61B-1(a)(1) defines “sexual abuse” as an act of sexual contact or sexual penetration between a child under the age of 18 years and an adult. A parent, resource family parent, guardian or other person standing in loco parentis within the household who knowingly permits or acquiesces in sexual abuse by any other person also commits sexual abuse, except that it is an affirmative defense if the parent, resource family parent, guardian or other person standing in loco parentis was subjected to, or placed in, reasonable fear of physical or sexual abuse by the other person so as to undermine the person's ability to protect the child.

5.11 Statutes of limitations for civil and criminal actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated or lengthened to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

Most prosecutions in New Jersey are subject to a 5-year statute of limitations pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:1-6(b)(1) (Time limitations). Prosecutions for sexual assault and aggravated sexual assault under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:14-2 (Sexual assault) have no limitation and may be brought at any time. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:1-6(a)(1). An extension is also available to victims of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:14-3 (Aggravated criminal sexual contact; criminal sexual contact) and § 2C:24-4 (Endangering welfare of children) under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:1-6(b)(4), which states,

A prosecution for an offense set forth in N.J.S.2C:14-3 or N.J.S.2C:24-4, when the victim at the time of the offense is below the age of 18 years, must be commenced within five years of the victim's attaining the age of 18 or within two years of the discovery of the offense by the victim, whichever is later.

A civil action brought under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:61B-1 (Definitions; accrual of actions; proceedings) for sexual abuse must "be brought within two years after reasonable discovery." N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:61B-1(b).

- 5.11.1 Recommendation: Amend N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:1-6(a)(1) (Time limitations) to include § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking) and § 2C:34-1 (Prostitution and related offenses) when a child is involved, in order to allow prosecutions for these offenses to be brought at any time.

Legal Components:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.
- 6.2 Single party consent to audiotaping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.
- 6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).
- 6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy to investigate buying or selling commercial sex is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.
- 6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.
- 6.6 State law requires reporting of missing children and located missing children.

Legal Analysis:

- 6.1 Training on human trafficking and domestic minor sex trafficking for law enforcement is statutorily mandated or authorized.

New Jersey law mandates development of training on human trafficking. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-12(19)(a) provides that

The Police Training Commission, in consultation with the Attorney General and the Director of the Division of Criminal Justice in the Department of Law and Public Safety, shall develop and approve, as part of the police training courses required pursuant to P.L.1961, c. 56 (C.52:17B-66 et seq.), courses of study on the handling, response procedures, investigation, and prosecution of human trafficking cases. These courses shall be reviewed at least every two years and modified from time to time as need may require.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-47 (Training courses for law enforcement personnel), the curriculum for police training shall include “specific training on responding to the needs of victims of human trafficking as defined in section 1 of P.L.2005, c. 77 (C.2C:13-8), and on services available to provide assistance, including information on federal, State, and local hotlines available to receive reports of and provide assistance to victims of human trafficking. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:4B-47(9)(a).

Additionally, New Jersey does require training on “substances which could be used to facilitate sexual assault,” training on tracing missing persons, and training on technology used in the commission of sex offenses, all of which could include topics related to domestic minor sex trafficking. N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 52:17B-4.5(a), 52:17B-9.8, 52:17B-77.11.

- 6.2 Single party consent to audiotaping is permitted in law enforcement investigations.

New Jersey allows for single party consent to audiotaping. The following actions are lawful pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:156A-4(b)-(d),

- b. Any investigative or law enforcement officer to intercept a wire, electronic or oral communication, where such officer is a party to the communication or where another officer who is a party to the communication requests or requires him to make such interception;
- c. Any person acting at the direction of an investigative or law enforcement officer to intercept a wire, electronic or oral communication, where such person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception; provided, however, that no such interception shall be made without the prior approval of the Attorney General or his designee or a county prosecutor or his designee;

d. A person not acting under color of law to intercept a wire, electronic or oral communication, where such person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception unless such communication is intercepted or used for the purpose of committing any criminal or tortious act in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this State or for the purpose of committing any other injurious act . . . .

6.3 Wiretapping is an available tool to investigate domestic minor sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC).

New Jersey law allows wiretapping for investigations of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), § 2C:34-1 (Prostitution and related offenses), § 2C:24-4 (Endangering welfare of children), or racketeering offenses under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:41-2 (Prohibited activities). N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:156A-8.

Pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2A:156A-8 (Authorization for application for order to intercept communications),

The Attorney General, county prosecutor or a person designated to act for such an official and to perform his duties in and during his actual absence or disability, may authorize, in writing, an ex parte application to a judge designated to receive the same for an order authorizing the interception of a wire, or electronic or oral communication by the investigative or law enforcement officers or agency having responsibility for an investigation when such interception may provide evidence of the commission of the offense of . . . section 1 of P.L. 2005, c. 77 (C.2C:13-8) [Human trafficking], a violation of N.J.S.C. 2C:34-1 [Prostitution and related offenses] punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, . . . endangering the welfare of a child pursuant to N.J.S.2C:24-4, . . . racketeering or a violation of subsection g. of N.J.S.2C:5-2, . . . or any conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing offenses or which may provide evidence aiding in the apprehension of the perpetrator or perpetrators of any of the foregoing offenses.

6.4 Using a law enforcement decoy to investigate buying or selling commercial sex is not a defense to soliciting, purchasing, or selling sex with a minor.

New Jersey’s trafficking and CSEC laws do not prohibit a defense to prosecution based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor. However, the non-CSEC offense of N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) (Luring, enticing child by various means, attempts; crime of second degree; subsequent offense, mandatory imprisonment; definitions) appears to permit the use of a decoy, by making it a crime to attempt to lure a person the offender “reasonably believes to be a child.” N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) states,

A person commits a crime of the second degree if he attempts, via electronic or any other means, to lure or entice a child<sup>79</sup> or one who he reasonably believes to be a child into a motor vehicle, structure<sup>80</sup> or isolated area, or to meet or appear at any other place, with a purpose to commit a criminal offense with or against the child.

<sup>80</sup> N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(b) defines “structure” as “any building, room, ship, vessel or airplane and also any place adapted for overnight accommodation of persons, or for carrying on business therein, whether or not a person is actually present.”

However, a defendant may still be able to assert a defense based on a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate other buyer-applicable offenses through reverse sting operations, which are the most likely situations in which a defendant would try to use such a defense. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree), § 2C:34-1(b) (Prostitution and related offenses), and § 2C:24-4(b) (Endangering welfare of children) are buyer applicable CSEC and sex trafficking offenses which do not prohibit this defense, meaning that buyers charged for attempting to solicit or purchase sex with a minor under these statutes would not be prohibited from raising a defense based on the fact that an actual minor was not involved.

6.4.1. Recommendation: Expand the ability of law enforcement to investigate commercial sexual exploitation crimes against children by amending N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-8 (Human trafficking), § 2C:13-9 (Human trafficking in the second degree), § 2C:34-1(b) (Prostitution and related offenses), and § 2C:24-4(b) (Endangering welfare of children) to prohibit a defense based on the fact that an actual minor was not involved.

6.5 Using the Internet or electronic communications to investigate buyers and traffickers is a permissible investigative technique.

While trafficking and CSEC laws do not expressly allow for investigation using the Internet or electronic communications, law enforcement can use electronic means for investigation under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:13-6(a) (Luring, enticing child by various means, attempts; crime of second degree; subsequent offense, mandatory imprisonment; definitions).

6.6 State law requires reporting of missing children and located missing children.

Law enforcement must report missing and located minors in New Jersey. Under N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:17B-9.8 (Powers, duties of unit), the Department of Law and Public Safety shall,

a. Coordinate, file and investigate all missing persons cases in this State, and cooperate with local law enforcement officials and federal law enforcement officials in the creation of a centralized office on missing persons in this State;

c. Collect and maintain data on missing persons and unidentified bodies in this State and throughout the United States;

d. Coordinate efforts with other states and with the federal government in the investigation of cases involving missing persons or unidentified bodies;

Additionally, pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. § 52:17B-217 (Actions relative to high risk missing person or child), if the missing person is a child,

....

b. The lead law enforcement agency shall promptly notify all law enforcement agencies within the State and, if deemed appropriate, law enforcement agencies in adjacent states or jurisdictions of the information that may aid in the prompt location and safe return of the high risk missing person.

c. Local law enforcement agencies that receive notification from the lead law enforcement agency pursuant to subsection b. of this section shall forward that information immediately to their officers and members.

d. The lead law enforcement agency shall, as expeditiously as possible, prepare and disseminate a photographic information bulletin utilizing the Missing Child Alert System, or any successor law enforcement notification system the State may employ.

e. The lead law enforcement agency shall, as appropriate, enter all collected information relating to the missing person case to applicable federal databases. The information shall be provided in accordance with applicable guidelines relating to the databases, as follows:

(1) a missing person report, and relevant information, in a high risk missing person case shall be entered in the National Crime Information Center database immediately, but in no case no more than two hours after the determination that the missing person is a high risk missing person;

(2) a missing person report, and relevant information, in a case not involving a high risk missing person shall be entered within 24 hours of the initial filing of the missing person report;

(6) the State Police shall, when deemed appropriate and likely to facilitate a resolution to a particular missing person report, activate the Amber Alert program for the State.

f. If, after the dissemination of a photographic information bulletin utilizing the Missing Child Alert System information, the missing person is found, the lead law enforcement agency shall promptly disseminate an additional bulletin on the Missing Child Alert System indicating that the person was found.
