PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Terry's House Residential Program is led by experienced, trauma-informed, and compassionate staff. Safety for residents is a priority: house location and resident information is kept confidential. The therapeutic program is divided into three stages for the residents to progress through, moving from recovery to independence.

1. RESTORE

Live in safety and stability, with time and space to begin the healing process

2. EMPOWER

Begin to utilize provided life skills and leadership development

3. THRIVE

Fully transition to independence

A variety of resources, classes, and therapeutic activities are part of each step of the program. These include:

- Individualized treatment plans
- Professional counseling
- Life skills classes
- Job internship opportunities
- Equine therapy
- Yoga
- Case management
- Therapeutic art activities
