MOBILIZE YOUR COMMUNITY

You become the face of Shared Hope in your community as a volunteer Ambassador!

Shared Hope Ambassadors are people like you

- Everyday activists looking for a way to end sex trafficking
- Volunteer representatives of Shared Hope to expand our impact in the nation, one community at a time

We help Ambassadors of Hope

- Educate, equip and connect you to change your community
- Provide online or group trainings to learn the basics of domestic minor sex trafficking (DMST)
- How to recognize and report victims of exploitation in the commercial sex industry
- Find your place in the fight against trafficking—tell us what you're passionate about!

Shared Hope International equips Ambassadors of Hope with pre-made presentations, fact sheets, reports, books and other resources.

Ambassadors of Hope are connected with speaking and training opportunities at local events for churches, businesses, community groups, conferences, schools and anti-trafficking efforts.
