 - Assist in event planning.
 - Work closely with the Volunteer Coordinator in researching community outreach opportunities, attend outreach events, and other projects.
2. Work Closely with the Director of Faith Initiatives and National Outreach:
 - Become integrated in the program learning the Ambassador of Hope program.
 - Assist with providing technical support, training support and resources to Ambassadors.
 - Maintain the awareness@sharedhope.org email account.
 - Assist in the disseminating of collateral and resources.
3. Other work as determined to meet your goals.

Qualifications:

1. Self-motivated and capable of working independently and on a deadline.
2. Able to work on a team as a trustworthy member.
3. A passionate concern for women, men, and children in crisis and the eradication of sex slavery.
4. High school diploma minimum.
5. Proficient level of computer skills including Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook.
6. Strong organizational skills, attention to detail and critical thinking skills.
7. Ability to manage various projects simultaneously.

Abilities:

1. Ability to stand or sit for prolonged duration.
2. Ability to utilize electronics equipment such as a computer, 10-key, telephone, etc.
3. Ability to think critically and problem solve.

Stipend: $4,000/quarter

Location: SHI Headquarters in Vancouver, WA.
