Stories of Hope

Founder's Gala and 25th Anniversary Party

Dearest Shared Hope Changemaker,

TWENTY. FIVE. YEARS.

Can you believe it has already been a quarter of a century since Former Congresswoman Linda Smith and her husband Vern founded Shared Hope International and began writing stories of hope for the vulnerable survivors of human trafficking? Over the past quarter-century, Shared Hope has emerged as a pioneering force in the fight against sex trafficking, training leaders, advocating for legislative change, and restoring hope one life at a time.

This June, we will be celebrating this remarkable milestone at the 2024 Stories of Hope Founder's Gala. Come meet the women and children whose lives you have changed and reflect on the stories of hope you have helped write. We look forward to sharing this special occasion with you.

As someone who cares so deeply for the girls and boys that we serve, we are asking if you would consider sponsoring this momentous event. Will you help support our 25th Anniversary?

from 5 PM - 11 PM

at the Hilton Vancouver, WA

301 W. 6th Street, Vancouver, WA 98660
